

FDA APPROVED
FOR COLON CANCER SCREENING

You're invited to an exclusive discussion:

Discover the Shield™ blood test: a revolutionary innovation redefining colorectal cancer (CRC) screening.

Register

Andrea Johnson
Director, Medical Affairs
Guardant Health

Andrea C. Johnson earned their Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Xavier University of Louisiana. She completed a Clinical Residency at the Veterans Affairs Medical Center in New Orleans, LA. Dr. Johnson served as a clinical pharmacist in the decentralized Primary Care Clinic, overseeing the Coumadin Clinic and other Primary Care Clinics with direct patient care responsibilities before transitioning to the industry. She brings extensive clinical and industry experience to Guardant Health.

Venue:

Flemings
6515 S Las Vegas Blvd
Las Vegas, NV 89119

Date:

Thursday, May 21, 2026

Time:

6:30 PM Pacific Daylight
Time

Host:

Lisa Walisever
lwalisever@guardanthealth.com
702-885-3195

Agenda

- Learn about CRC background and screening challenges
- Explore Shield's performance published in The New England Journal of Medicine
- Hear how Shield can be implemented in your practice to help increase CRC screening adherence
- Learn how Shield fits into patient care through case studies

The Shield™ test is an IVD intended for colorectal cancer screening. Please click here for Important Product Information, including precaution and limitations.

