

NATIONAL DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

JBLM Annual Domestic Violence Awareness Conference

OCTOBER 2015 | Joint Base Lewis-McChord

Guest Speaker:
Dr. Christopher Wilson

Complimentary continental breakfast and lunch for the first 300 people to register.

(253) 967-5901

Oct. 23
9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Sign-in begins at 8 a.m.

American Lake Conference Center
8085 NCO Beach Rd., JBLM - Lewis North

Registration Required:
JBLM-DV-Conf-2015.eventbrite.com

facebook.com/jblmAFCS | jblmafc.com

Domestic violence or intimate terrorism - the basics of violence between intimate partners.

The neurobiology of trauma for,
and narrative in, victims/survivors of domestic violence.

Putting it all together: the science behind being trauma informed.

Dr. Christopher Wilson, Psy.D., is a licensed psychologist, speaker, and trainer based in Portland, Oregon. In his practice he provides evaluations for attorneys and state agencies, works with individuals and couples, and designs and conducts trainings and workshops nationwide. His doctoral degree is from Pacific University in Forest Grove, Oregon and he's been licensed since 2005.

His training has included working with Dr. G. Andrew Benjamin, Ph.D., J.D., in Seattle, Washington, and Dr. Richard Kolbell, Ph.D., A.B.P.P., in Portland, Oregon. Dr. Wilson is an expert in the field of domestic violence (intimate terrorism, secondary aggression and situational couples violence), he also provides consultation for therapists, case workers, evaluators, and attorneys in cases involving any form of domestic violence.

Biography sourced from <http://drchristopherwilson.com/index.html>

Sponsorship does not imply federal endorsement.