OFFICE OF THE CLERK

STATE OF FLORIDA
DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH
DECLARATION OF PUBLIC HEALTH EMERGENCY

WHEREAS, Zika fever, a dengue-like illness caused by a flavivirus transmitted by the Aedes mosquito, has been diagnosed in Central and South America, Mexico, the Caribbean and other areas in the world. Outbreaks of the fever have occurred in Africa, Southeast Asia and the Pacific Islands; and

WHEREAS, the World Health Organization has declared a Public Health Emergency of International Concern related to the Zika virus on February 1, 2016; and

WHEREAS, there have been nine confirmed travel-related cases of the Zika virus (none of which have been pregnant women) in Miami-Dade, Hillsborough, Lee, and Santa Rosa counties, Florida; and

WHEREAS, the Zika virus is transmitted by a bite from an infected Aedes mosquito and other transmission methods are still being determined; and

WHEREAS, there are reports of infants born with microcephaly and persons contracting neurological disorders including Guillain-Barre Syndrome in areas where Zika virus has been diagnosed; and

WHEREAS, although Florida's current nine Zika cases were travel-related, Aedes mosquitos are common in Florida;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John H. Armstrong, MD, FACS, Surgeon General of Florida and State Health Officer, by virtue of Executive Order Number 16-29 of Governor Rick Scott and the authority vested in me by section 381.00315, Florida Statutes, do hereby declare that a public health emergency exists in Florida. In order to respond to this emergency, the following shall commence:

1. Section 1. The Commissioner of Agriculture is hereby notified of this threat to public health from the Zika virus transmission to humans from the bite of an infected Aedes mosquito. Further, the appropriate resources of the Department of Health are available to the Commissioner of Agriculture in execution of the powers and duties outlined in section 388.45, Florida Statutes.
2. Section 2. This Public Health Emergency Declaration shall be limited to the following counties:
