

Directions to Gotham Center

42-09 28th Street Long Island City (Queens), NY 11101

Gotham Center is highly accessible by public transportation and sits just across the Queensboro Bridge from Manhattan. You are encouraged to visit the MTA website: www.mta.info or a commuting site, such as hopstop.com or mapquest.com, to determine the best route to meet your needs. General commuting information and a map are provided below to help get you started.

By Subway:

Gotham Center is centrally located between two large MTA subway stations. As a result, the E, M and R trains to Queens Plaza and the 7, N and Q trains to Queensboro Plaza are all within two blocks of Gotham Center. The G train is just 5 blocks away at Court Square.

By Bus:

Multiple MTA bus routes service Long Island City. The Q32, Q39, Q60, Q67, Q69, Q100, Q101, Q102 and B62 bus lines stop within a few blocks from Gotham Center.

By Train:

The Long Island Railroad provides service to Hunters Point Avenue in Long Island City. Employees who take the LIRR to work can switch trains at the Jamaica station and take the connection to Hunters Point Avenue. From the Hunters Point Avenue station, employees can walk across the street to the Hunters Point subway station and take the 7 train two stops to Queensboro Plaza. Information and schedules for the Jamaica to Long Island City train can be found at the MTA website: www.mta.info/lirr.

By Boat:

New York Water Taxi provides commuter service along the East River with a terminal point in Long Island City at Hunters Point.

By Car:

Gotham Center is located at the intersection of Queens Plaza South and 28th Street. If you choose to drive your car to work, you can secure parking at any one of a number of parking lots surrounding Gotham Center.
