

DIANNE SHANKS

INVOLVEMENT

As Director of Outreach for EWB-USA, Dianne oversees the long range planning for a more comprehensive education program within the organization. She also focuses on developing the content for the EWB-USA International Conference and the programs for the Fall Regional Training Workshops.

EXPERIENCE

Dianne has a long history of providing creative process consulting with focus on organizational development and effective program intervention. Some successful ventures have included: Managing the Public Affairs office for the Illinois Division of Energy; Overseeing an international design competition and exhibition for the Solar Energy Research Institute; Board of Directors of a major banking institution of Peoria; Co-founder and board members for an alternative high school, Catalyst I; Transition Leader for Unisys Corporation; Management strategies for the Celestial Seasonings Store; Director of Louisville Chamber of Commerce; Board of Directors for Boulder Energy Conservation Center and a Founding Director of Resource2000; Commissioner for Louisville and Boulder County Housing Authorities.

CREDENTIALS

Multiple certifications in the fields of marketing, public relations, small business management and development, conference master planning, fundraising, and non profit operational diagnostics and strategies.

Received: e-town's E-CHIEVEMENT Award, Unisys Corporation Achievement Award for Excellence and National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials Achievement Award.