

GRETCHEN GALL

INVOLVEMENT

Gretchen acts as the first point of contact for NGO's and communities wishing to work with EWB-USA, supports the Program Managers, coordinates the activities of the Application Review and Technical Advisory Committees, and oversees the project application process.

EXPERIENCE

Center for Community Engagement and Service Learning, University of Denver 2008: Worked as the Immersion Program Coordinator, coordinating short-term domestic and international immersion programs for students. Habitat for Humanity Paraguay 2006-2008: Worked as the Global Village Coordinator, managing and coordinating short-term international volunteer teams to work alongside Paraguayan families in the construction of their Habitat home. International Service Learning Program, University of Denver 2004-2006: Worked as the Graduate Student Assistant to support International Service Learning Programs. International Volunteer in Costa Rica 2003-2004: Worked with local organization doing outreach and education focused on migrant and children's rights, in both urban and rural migrant communities. Congresswoman Diane DeGette 2001-2003: Worked as Congressional Aide doing primarily immigration caseworker. Nicaragua Network 1999-2000: Worked as the Program Coordinator, coordinating cross-cultural educational exchange programs, speaking tours with Nicaraguan civil leaders, and work brigades to Nicaragua.

CREDENTIALS

M.A. International and Intercultural Communication, University of Denver
B.A. Spanish and Sociology, Willamette University