This 400-500 SF storefront on Jefferson Avenue was most recently a barbershop. It’s a cost-effective way for a small business or service operator to open in one of Brooklyn’s most active neighborhoods.

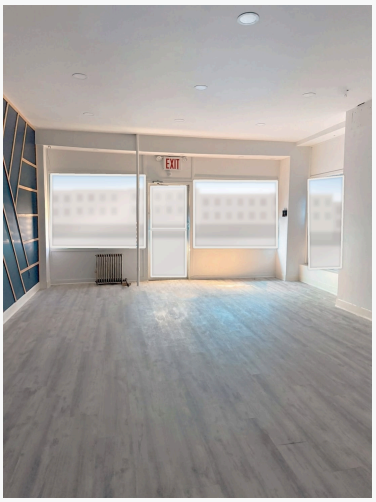

Property Description

Two ground-floor retail spaces are available at 451 Irving Avenue, at the corner of Jefferson Avenue in Bushwick. The first is a newly renovated corner storefront of about 900 SF. It has large windows and a full basement for storage, which can be accessed from the interior of the space.

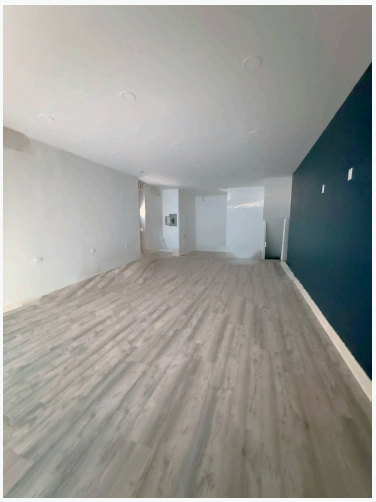

The second space is a 400-500 SF former barbershop facing Jefferson Avenue, an affordable fit for a service business or a first location.

Both spaces are steps from Food Bazaar and a short walk to the Halsey St (L) and Myrtle–Wyckoff (L/M) stations. Starbucks, McDonald’s, CVS and Planet Fitness are nearby.
