

The New Look for LifeGroups Online

We're changing the face of findalifegroup.tv so that getting connected to a LifeGroup begins with a more personal approach. We have learned that finding the right group for you begins with a personal connection, and we believe our main website and point of direction should align with that truth.

At LifeChurch.tv, we want to help find the group that's right for you! We have a variety of groups with amazing leaders that would love for you to join in their journey of becoming fully devoted followers of Christ.

Group Seekers: By completing the simple form you'll find on our main page, our campus LGLM team will connect with you personally to help you find the group that's right for you. We want to help you find the group that's right for you because we know that we always Grow Better Together!

Group Leaders: You'll notice that we are moving away from the online group search in order to create a more personal approach to connecting with our group seekers. We will continue to advertise open groups in the LifeGroups area of the lobby. If you would like to grow your LifeGroup, spending time in the lobby on the weekends is a great way to meet new people looking for a LifeGroup. You will be notified by our LGLM campus team of any new prospects looking for a LifeGroup..
