ESTANCIA LA JOLLA HOTEL & SPA

La Jolla's lodgings exude a warm, relaxed elegance—and Estancia is no exception. Here, spa lovers can sink into bliss at the sumptuous, award-winning Spa at Estancia, where bungalows offer a unique experience. Don't miss the Couples Bungalow with its private deck, fireplace, and soaking tub for two. Later, dine on fresh local cuisine at Mustangs & Burros—reminiscent of a Spanish hacienda with its patio under the stars and large brick outdoor fireplace. Nearby, the famed Torrey Pines Golf Course has your tee time, while La Jolla Village's celebrated boutiques beckon with everything from haute couture to bargain finds.

THE LODGE AT TORREY PINES

Coastal beauty entices the senses at this AAA Five-Diamond resort, designed to blend into the adjacent Torrey Pines State Reserve. Give yourself time to wander—hike or stroll the Reserve's miles of trails, explore pine forests and sandstone canyons, and drink in breathtaking ocean views. Arrive with an appetite at the award-winning A.R. Valentien, the Lodge's epicurean treasure, serving seasonal farm-to-table fare in elegant surroundings; or dine more casually at The Grill. In town, take an art lover's romp through the Museum of Contemporary Art (MCASD) in La Jolla, with its internationally recognized collection, exhibits, and sculpture garden.

HILTON LA JOLLA TORREY PINES

One of SoCal's most inspiring settings awaits at this seaside retreat perched atop the bluffs of La Jolla. Here, it's all about the sweeping views that steal the eye in all directions—from the azure Pacific Ocean panoramas to the adjacent Torrey Pines Golf Course and the resort's own gorgeous gardens. After a spectacular sunset,
