One of the best things about gardens is how easy it is to put your own personality into them; how you can create something that is truly unique, and a reflection of your tastes and style. But there's more to it than simply deciding what to plant where. You can make it an extension of the living room, or a haven to unwind in. It can become a place to place to work, or work out, away from the hustle and bustle of the house. You can experiment with quirky, eye-catching features and personalised touches to your heart's content. After all, it's your space.
