SOTO SINAR PAGI

Sample the local version of soto, a traditional Indonesian soup, served at this popular eatery. It's topped with either chicken, beef or offal, and best enjoyed with a side of perkedel (fried patties made with ground potato).

TINGGI RAJA WHITE CRATER

A four-hour drive from the city is this otherworldly setting, where a cluster of turquoise hot springs is surrounded by snow-white limestone formations. It's still pretty untouched as a tourist spot, so bring your own refreshments.

HALLEY BISTRO & BAR

The newest watering hole in the buzzing Cemara Asri neighbourhood features an alfresco seating area and live music on weekends. Try the Royal Brewhouse, a locally blended whiskey.

FAT PASSION

This restaurant is as sinful as it sounds. Recently opened by Hong Kong chef Jorge Chen, it serves Asian fusion dishes, reinterpreted with a heavy dose of carbs. The pulled crab and shrimp ravioli with chilli comes highly recommended.

NEVERLAND ART SPACE

This new gallery space aims to offer artists a conducive venue to display their artworks, which are often quite experimental – think noise bombing, for example. fb.com/neverlandartspace

LE BOUTIER

Named after co-owner David Chhay's mother, this three-storey cocktail bar brings 1960s Cambodian rock and roll to Street 308. Some of the cocktails here are named after Khmer rock legends.
