EVERYBODY'S TALKING ABOUT...

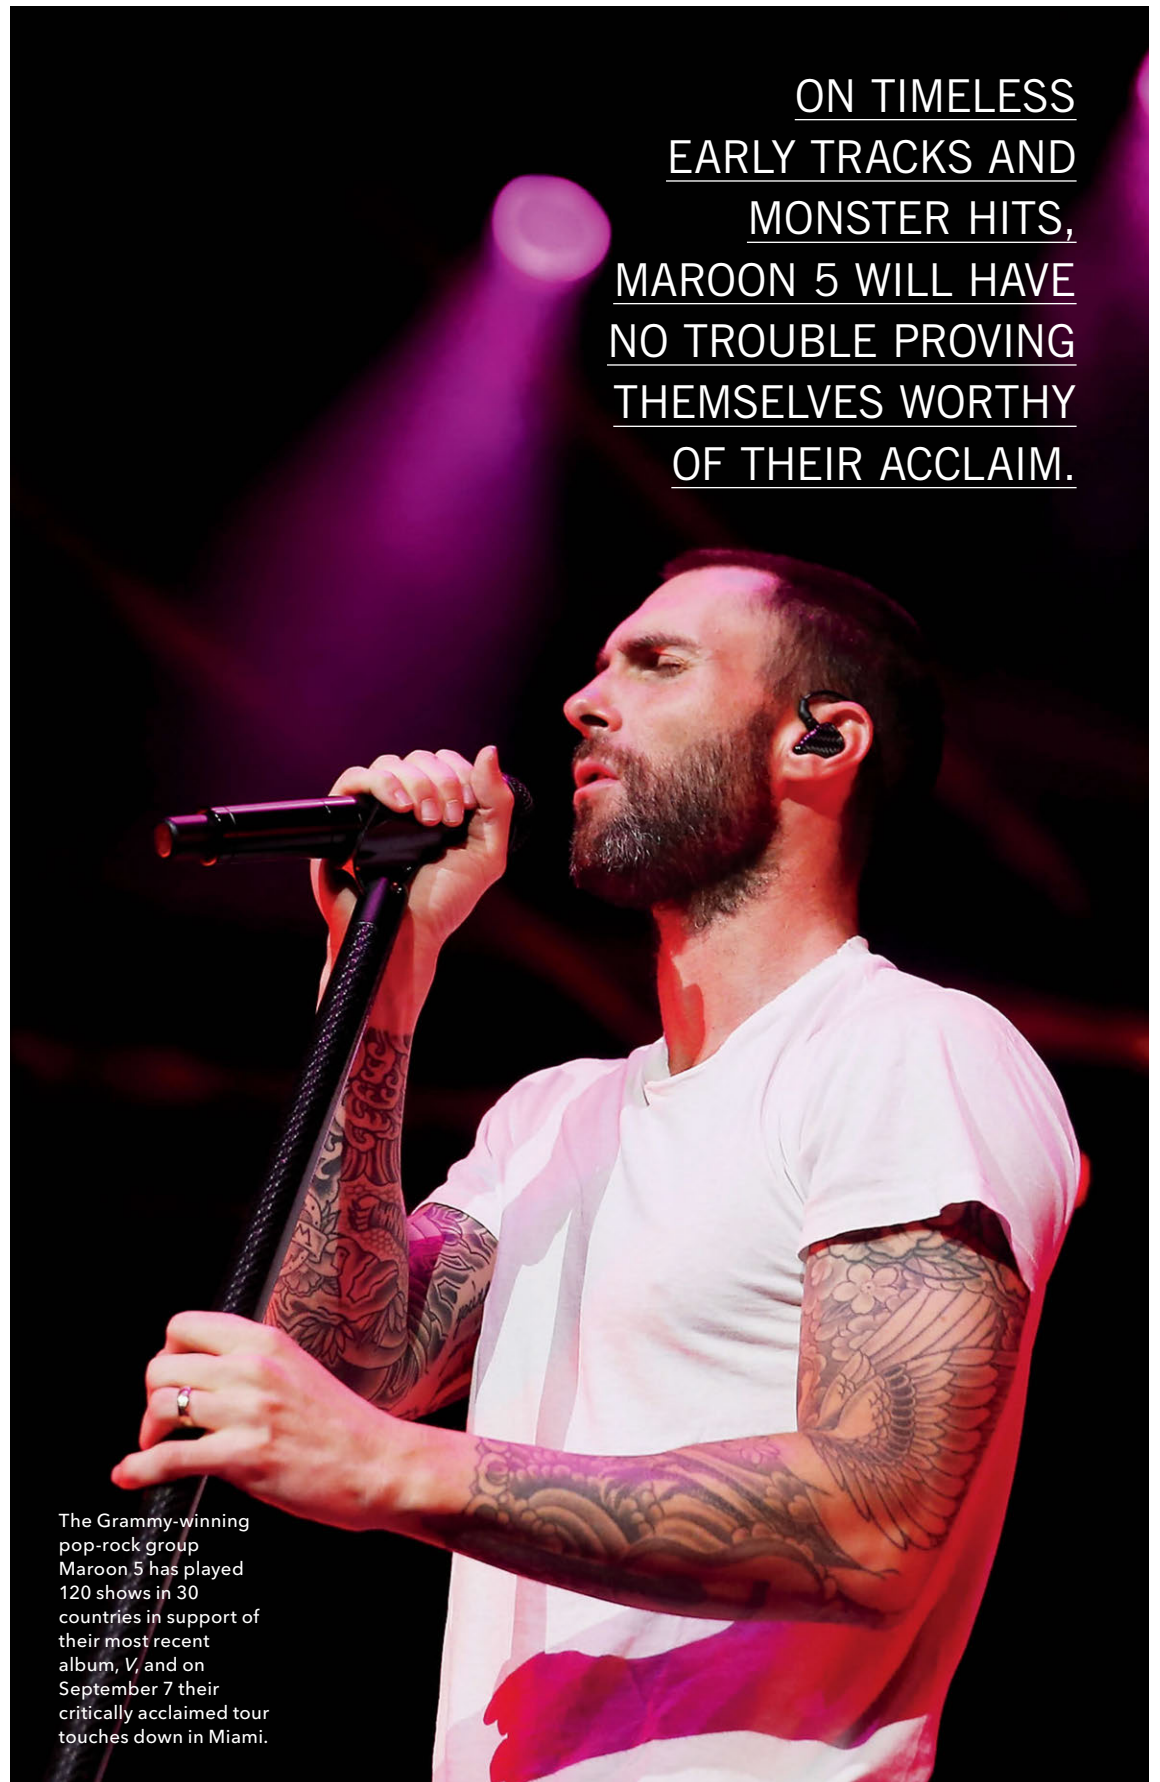

THEY WILL BE LOVED

THE GRAMMY AWARD-WINNING BAND MAROON 5 IS SURE TO HIT ALL THE RIGHT NOTES WHEN IT BRINGS ITS ELECTRIFYING SOUND TO MIAMI.

BY LAUREN BROWN WEST-ROSENTHAL

Maroon 5 frontman Adam Levine is one of four judges on the hit NBC singing competition The Voice, where his good looks and unfailing wit have made him a retweetable favorite. But the tables will be turned when Levine and his band hit AmericanAirlines Arena on September 7. It's been more than a year since the band's fifth studio album, V, was released, but that's only because Levine now has a second job as a TV star. And his fans should be in a generous mood, happy to sing along to 14 years' worth of chart-topping songs from the three-time Grammy Award-winning (and nine-time nominated) group. On timeless early tracks like "Harder to Breathe," "Sunday Morning," and "She Will Be Loved" (from their quintuple-platinum-selling debut, Songs About Jane) and monster hits such as "Moves Like Jagger," "Payphone," and "Animals," Levine and company will have no trouble proving themselves worthy of their critical and popular acclaim. Of course, Levine is also a master showman who knows there's nothing better than a sweet ending, so expect him to close the concert with—spoiler alert—"Sugar," his most recent hit, which reached number two on the Billboard Hot 100. With a track record like that, we think he'll ace this contest. AmericanAirlines Arena, 601 Biscayne Blvd., Miami, 786-777-1000; ticketmaster.com ■
