DINE AT YOUR LEISURE ON BUSINESS CLASS

Your bags have been checked in hassle-free, you've caught up on emails on the plush sofas inside Mabuhay Lounge while sipping bubbly and now it's time to settle into your full-flat recline seat – your home for the next few hours. Maybe you desire a glass of red wine, or perhaps all you want is just to doze off and catch up on that much deserved rest.

Don't want the cabin crew to wake you up during meal time? No problem. As part of PAL's goal to constantly improve and enhance your inflight experience, Business Class passengers on long-haul flights between Manila and the United States (Los Angeles, San Francisco,

New York City), Canada (Toronto and Vancouver) and London can enjoy breakfast, lunch or dinner whenever they please. That's right – before takeoff, cabin crew will take your order and announce that Business Class guests may dine at their leisure.

Have a look through our very comprehensive menu which includes palatable choices of breads, appetizer, breads and main dishes as well as a scrumptious dessert selection and cheese platter, not to mention mid-flight snacks, then place your order as you please – just as you would at a sit-down restaurant. Even better, the main dishes are envisaged by world-renowned Filipino chefs and have a distinct Filipino flavor. And after you've been well fed, sit back and catch up on the latest blockbusters or let soothing soundtracks ease you into sleep.

Yes, dining on demand is the way of the future and it goes hand-in-hand with PAL's mission to continually deliver the best and most personalized level of service with a heart. So what are you waiting for? It's time to try PAL's new Dine at Your Leisure service.
