

ABOUT

THE AUTHORS

Daniel Brown, LLB, CS

Daniel Brown is a criminal defence lawyer and lead counsel at Daniel Brown Law LLP in Toronto, Ontario where he has a trial and appellate practice devoted to criminal, constitutional, and regulatory law.

Since his call to the bar in 2005, Daniel has appeared at every level of court in Ontario and the Supreme Court of Canada, regularly defending clients facing allegations of sexual offences in all corners of Ontario.

Jill Witkin, LLB, LLM

Jill Witkin has worked as an Assistant Crown Attorney in Toronto since 1994. She is currently counsel at the Crown Law Office, Criminal and sits as the Chair of the Criminal Law Division's Sexual Violence Advisory Group and the Education and Training Crown for sexual violence. She was Deputy Crown Attorney at Old City Hall from 2009 to 2015 and was Team Leader of the Child Abuse Team from 2007 to 2009. She does much trial and some appellate work involving cases of sexual assault and domestic or child abuse.

Prosecuting and Defending Sexual Offence Cases

A PRACTITIONER'S HANDBOOK By Daniel Brown and Jill Witkin

Due to their nature, sexual offence cases can pose a variety of complex and unique challenges. This text is designed to help practitioners overcome a number of obstacles by exploring case law, relevant Criminal Code provisions, the Canadian Victims Bill of Rights, and other key issues surrounding procedure and evidence.

The authors—a criminal defence lawyer and a Crown prosecutor—have integrated valuable practice insights into their analysis, making this text an essential resource on all facets of litigating sexual offence cases.

“The authors have collected in one book the most current and essential law necessary to the profession in prosecuting and defending sexual offence cases. It should be mandatory reading for anyone doing their first such case and invaluable reference for experienced litigators.”

— Marie Henein, LLB, LLM

4 Criminal Law Series: Volume Four

BRIAN H. GREENSPAN & VINCENZO RONDINELLI, General Editors

Emond's Criminal Law Series offers clear, concise guidance on the practical and procedural aspects of criminal law. Ideally suited for members of the criminal bar and judiciary, this collection covers discrete areas of criminal practice, anchored by the expertise of General Editors Brian H. Greenspan and Vincenzo Rondinelli. Most titles are authored by both defence and Crown counsel, lending balance and comprehensiveness to the series.

CRIMINAL LAW SERIES
vol. 4

CRIMINAL LAW SERIES

Brian H. Greenspan & Vincenzo Rondinelli
General Editors

Prosecuting and Defending Sexual Offence Cases
A PRACTITIONER'S HANDBOOK Daniel Brown, Jill Witkin

Prosecuting and Defending Sexual Offence Cases

A PRACTITIONER'S HANDBOOK

4
Daniel Brown
Jill Witkin

ABOUT

THE GENERAL EDITORS

Brian H. Greenspan, BA, LLB, LLM

Brian H. Greenspan is one of the most prominent and well-regarded defence lawyers in Canada, and is the founding partner of Greenspan Humphrey Lavine. Brian has been recognized by his peers in The International Who's Who of Business Crime Lawyers, The Best Lawyers in Canada, and Chambers Canada. He has twice been named as one of the 25 Most Influential Lawyers in Canada by Canadian Lawyer Magazine. He received the G. Arthur Martin Medal for contributions to criminal justice in Canada in 2010 and an honorary doctorate from the Law Society of Upper Canada in 2012. Brian H. Greenspan is a past president of the Criminal Lawyers' Association (Ontario) and the founding chair of the Canadian Council of Criminal Defence Lawyers.

Vincenzo Rondinelli, BA, LLB, LLM

Vincenzo Rondinelli is a criminal defence lawyer in Toronto, where he regularly argues appeals before the Court of Appeal for Ontario. He joined the adjunct faculty at Osgoode Hall Law School in 2003 and is co-director of the Criminal Intensive Program and co-instructor in the Forensic Science and the Law course. Vincenzo is also a sessional instructor at the University of Toronto (Forensic Science Program) and recently developed the criminal law curriculum for Ryerson's Law Practice Program. Experienced and widely published, he is certified by the Law Society of Upper Canada as a Specialist in Criminal Law and is currently the treasurer of the Criminal Lawyers' Association and an executive member of the Ontario Bar Association (Criminal Law Section).

8"

1.0496"

8"

UNDERSTANDING CRIME IN CANADA

AN INTRODUCTION TO CRIMINOLOGY

SECOND EDITION

EDITED BY NEIL BOYD

"The edited approach, with multiple perspectives from subject experts, is one of the real strengths of this text."

—Michael Seredycz, MacEwan University

"This text is great for university or college level learning, and one of the best Canadian criminology books I've seen. The case studies are fascinating and very effective, and really draw in the reader."

—Melanie Marchand, Georgian College

Understanding Crime in Canada: An Introduction to Criminology, 2nd Edition provides a thorough overview of the foundations of criminology. This edition has been updated with new case studies and new coverage of cybercrime and terrorism, mental illness, and crime policy. In addition to this new material, the text explores important aspects of criminology, including—but not limited to—the role of the media, key points of criminal law, and ways of measuring crime. Using this comprehensive resource, readers will be able to deepen their understanding of crime and its effects on society.

emond.ca/crim2

UNDERSTANDING CRIME IN CANADA
AN INTRODUCTION TO CRIMINOLOGY
SECOND EDITION

BOYD

UNDERSTANDING CRIME IN CANADA

AN INTRODUCTION TO CRIMINOLOGY

SECOND EDITION

EDITED BY NEIL BOYD

10"