<This Spring, Weekends Are for Never Doing Anything Just Halfway.>

Your 3-year/36,000-mile New Vehicle Limited Warranty that's expiring in 18 months or less is just half the story.

Dear <John>,

Yes, your New Vehicle Limited Warranty is inching its way towards expiring. However, the other half of the story is that with a Ford Protect extended service plan, you can continue driving with confidence knowing you're protected from unforeseen covered vehicle repair expenses well beyond your warranty period, for up to the earlier of 8 years or 150,000 miles.<sup>o</sup>

<Spring is a time for hard work and fun. Whether you are off-roading, picking up cattle feed or heading to the city for a concert – time flies when you're driving your <Ford F-150>. Before you know it, that security you're enjoying will disappear.>

Why is Ford Protect worth the added protection?

- It's 100% Backed by Ford Motor Company
- It offers 24/7 Roadside Assistance and rental coverage
- It wraps around your existing coverage, providing enhanced protection

Your <Ford F-150> is loaded with smart technology that the average owner can't fix on their own. When you consider the rising cost of vehicle repairs, and the fact that the cost of one repair alone could cost more than the price of Ford Protect, the investment just makes sense.
