"With the season nearly over, some teams are looking forward to deep playoff runs while others are already looking toward what can be done differently next season."

NEW YORK -- Its going down to the wire in many divisions as the season is just about to come to an end and some teams are already looking forward to next season. Teams bringing up the rear in their respective divisions will most likely be playing the role of spoiler for teams in playoff contention or trying to clinch home field advantage.

The Monroe Eagles look poised once again to win the Bronx A East division as they remain undefeated with an 11 - 0 record. The Eagles have held the lead over division rivals Dewitt Clinton and Morris Educational Campus all season and will face Dewitt Clinton in two upcoming crucial games that can possibly determine the division champion.

The bulldogs will need help if they are to have a chance at the division crown as they do not have anymore games against the Eagles and could control their own destiny with a winning streak to end the season and two Eagles losses.

The Knights of John F. Kennedy currently hold a one game lead over Lehman High School in the Bronx A West division. The two teams ironically will finish the season with a crucial home and home confrontation that will most likely determine the division winner. The Knights will need to bring their pitching back to last year's form that helped them capture the Bronx crown and advance to the PSAL semi finals.

It is business as usual in the Brooklyn A East division as James Madison has gone through the season virtually untouched since opening day. The Knights are sporting a perfect 11 - 0 record are seeking a top seed in the playoffs and possibly end the playoff hopes of their rival Midwood High School as the two match up with each other at the end of the season. At 7 - 4 Brooklyn Tech is still in the hunt for a playoff spot but will need big wins against Midwood and a strong finish against win less Canarsie looking to play spoiler.

The finish in the Brooklyn A West division should be rather exciting as Fort Hamilton at 10 - 1 hold a one game lead over both New Utrecht and HS Telecommunication Arts & Technology.

The teams will get a chance to determine everything this week as they each will be matched up against each other with everything on the line. The upcoming season games will seem like playoff games in this division as one loss can be the difference between first and third place.

Teams have stamped their tickets to the playoffs but nothing is set in stone for the other playoff bubble teams as we approach the season's final week.
