

Lafayette, LA is known for its southern charm, rich history, and endless strew of festivals and entertainment. Named after the famous French general who fought in the Revolutionary War -- Marquis de Lafayette -- Lafayette has brandished the title "Happiest City in America". This vibrant city is immersed in Cajun and Creole culture, making the cuisine something locals rave about and travelers dream about. Check out these prime picnic spots where you can enjoy the culture while chowing down.

5 Great Picnic Spots in and Around Lafayette, LA

1. Acadiana Park

Located at 1005 E. Alexander Street Lafayette, LA 70501, Acadiana Park is home to 110 acres of bike trails, hiking trails, boat docks, tennis courts, and much more! Another great feature of Acadiana Park is The Acadiana Park Nature Station. The hiking trails and campground are an ideal picnic spot if you're wanting to take a break from the hustle and bustle of the city and breathe in some fresh, country air!

2. Girard Park Recreation Center

Located at 500 Girard Park Dr, Lafayette, LA 70503, Girard Park Reaction Center is one of Lafayette's most popular picnic spots. There are plenty of covered areas where you can sit and enjoy an afternoon eating and laughing with friends and family while also reaping the benefits of a local hiking trail. The scenery is beautiful and you're sure to fall in love with it as much as the locals have!

3. Lake Martin

Seven miles outside of Lafayette, Lake Martin offers hours of bird watching, swamp exploring (be wary of the alligators), and nature walking. Its new visitor center and boardwalk are a surefire way to experience Louisiana's natural beauty. For those looking for an extra side of adventure to go with their picnic sandwiches, this would be the perfect spot!

4. The Horse Farm at Moncus Park

Located at 2913 Johnston St, Lafayette, LA 70503, The Horse Farm is not what it seems! Rather than be filled with horses as its title insinuates, The Horse Farm is a wonderful place for friends and family to come together for the Farmer's and Artisan's market, shopping, eating, and all sorts of community events at Moncus Park. It would be a great opportunity to pack a picnic basket and a blanket, sit back, and enjoy the outdoor festivities Lafayette has to offer.

5. Parc Sans Souci

Located at 201 East Vermilion Street, Lafayette, LA 70501, Parc Sans Souci is the perfect picnic spot for those looking for a downtown feel. Chow down using Parc Sans Souci's picnic tables, while also enjoying access to their lush gardens, tennis courts, walking trails, and more! Bring the whole family, including the kids, so they can enjoy the play equipment Parc Sans Souci offers!

Planning a picnic is the perfect summer activity in the beautiful and vibrant city of Lafayette, LA. The next time you get the itch to wander outside with friends and family for some food and good conversation, make sure you check out these 5 great picnic spots!