

HEIGHTS AND HILLS

supporting brooklyn's older adults

Heights and Hills and the Teachers and Writer Collaborative are excited to announce a writing and poetry workshop led by Maria Lisella, the Poet Laureate of Queens and recent Academy of American Poets Fellow. This will be a remote four week workshop on Thursdays at 2pm starting on October 14th.

It will be an interactive workshop that requires NO PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE -- participants will write from verbal or visual prompts, and opt to share or not, and opt to offer feedback to others if desired.

Just bring pencil, paper, tablet or computer or phone ... your curiosity and a sense of humor.
