

Wizarre Summary: June 2022

Wow! What a crazy month it's been for crypto, right?

But despite chaos in the markets and unprecedented events in the world of CeFi and crypto generally, June was another incredibly positive month for the Wizarre community.

Maybe it's all that wizardry and magic in the air? Or maybe it's because we have such a truly awesome game with equally awesome followers to match?

Who really knows, but whatever the reason, while others have been experiencing real pain, we managed to roll out new game developments, issue rewards, form a brand new development partnership and that's just for starters.

We can't wait to share with you what we've been up to this month and you can't wait to find out, so let's dive right in!

Tournament of Houses Results

The Tournament of Houses was introduced in May and the results and prizes were all released this month. The round 1 rewards included some pretty sweet jackpots including:

1. Personality Elixir plus $SCRL 50,000
2. $SCRL 50,000
3. One Ephemeral Wizard

If you missed out this time around, don't worry, because round two opened already on June 13th. So if you want to get in the action you can find out how and sign up here via Twitter or if you want to go straight to our Discord server just follow this link right here.

And remember the more people that participate, the bigger the bag of rewards so make sure to tell family, friends, your boss, and a few random strangers as well.

Development Deal with Audiokinetic

On June 22nd we were thrilled to announce our partnership with the clever folks at AudioKinetic to create a next-level audio experience via their Wwise software.

If you're not familiar with them you soon will be. Their highly qualified team is responsible for some of the most advanced, feature-rich interactive audio solutions in online gaming, so get ready for some incredible new sound quality to add to an already awesome gaming experience.

Facebook Debut

The magic is everywhere and that's right, you can now connect with us on Facebook. We officially made our page public on June 15th and have been really enjoying interacting with you guys as we build our presence on the world's largest social media platform.

We love our Twitter and Discord families but we want to have as many ways as possible for players and the community as a whole to connect with us and stay up to date with all of the exciting new developments that we are driving forward right now.

Head on over to our page and make sure to like, follow, and get involved.

Ritual of Summoning Released June 30th

This was a big day for us and the entire Wizarre community. The Ritual of Summoning is a key process in Wizarre and we were every bit as excited for the big day as you all.

This crucial element of the game enables players to grow their NFT army and then use their newly minted wizards, warriors, and other characters to explore the game more deeply than ever.

You can head on over there right now to summon your first Wizard. If you need to learn more about this crucial process there is a full explainer video on our YouTube channel as well as an in-depth breakdown on Medium.

Caravan Trips Reach New Shrines

All those enterprising wizards who set out with their caravans on March 19th arrived at the Shrine of Appearance on June 2nd, the Shrine of Heredity on June 17th, and finally the Shrine of Masquerade on June 30th.

The rewards were every bit as delicious as hoped for with all the claimed Enhancements stored safely in the Bottomless Bag.

These shrines corresponded to days 75, 90, and 120 of the staking journey and brought this epic mission to a conclusion. But don't worry if you missed this one, keep an eye out on all of our socials for new staking games and opportunities to come.

You can find the locations of all the shrines on the staking map and you can learn more about them individually here, here, and here.

Four New Battlefields Created

That's right, not one, not two, or even three but four new battlefields were revealed this month because what would a wizard game be without multiple battlefields, right?

If you haven't seen them yet, you need to check them out right now. We love the artwork and are pretty sure you will too. Let us know which ones you love the most!

You will find them here, here, here, and right here.

Wizarre Character Deep Dive and Stats

We know many of you love to get into the weeds of how things work so this month we published a deep, deep dive on all of the traits of our favorite game characters.

This includes a detailed breakdown of the stats and algorithms at play behind each of them for those who enjoy, as we do, nerding out over the nuts and bolts behind everything that's going on.

If you want to get to expert OG level fast with the Wizarre ecosystem, or even if you're just a bit curious, you can check out the full article here.

Successful Smart Contract Audit

The folks at RD Audits gave our Ritual of Summoning smart contract breeding mechanism a clean bill of health. The successful audit enabled us to release the process for your pleasure and use this month.

If you want to ahead and get summoning right now, you can do that here.

Comic Relief

As promised last month we have continued to add game, spice, and value to our loyal community with the ongoing release of our new short comics. There were three this month and you can find them here and here, as well as right here.

Stay Up to Date

To stay in the loop on all of these developments, rewards, strategic partnerships, and more, make sure to follow us on our social media channels. We look forward to connecting with you all soon.
