

5 New developments that help reach net zero

Solar cell production

Mass production is expected this year with China potentially filling up to 30% of global demand.

5 New developments that help reach net zero

Electric vehicle battery tech

Progress on electric vehicle battery technology and recycling is promising.

5 New developments that help reach net zero

Nuclear power for energy security

The IAEA expects global net capacity to more than double to 873 GW by 2050.

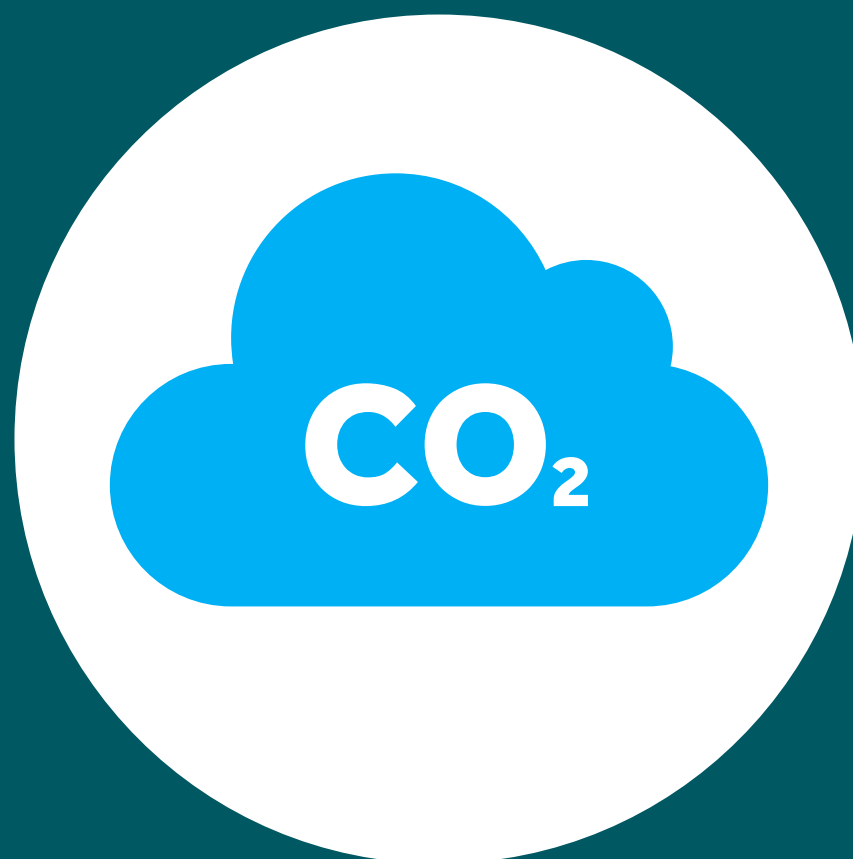

5 New developments that help reach net zero

Renewables are starting to scale

Renewable energy growth has created demand for utility-scale energy storage.

5 New developments that help reach net zero

Carbon capture tech interest

Rising support for carbon capture, utilization and storage technologies should speed development.