

Biblical Counselor The Church at Brook Hills

The Biblical Counselor will provide leadership, discipleship, training, and support in the area of counseling for the members of Brook Hills. The majority of his time will be spent on counseling and equipping others in the church to counsel. This is a full-time, salaried position with benefits.

Supervisor: Pastor of Member Care

Qualifications:

- A mature Christ-follower committed to personal disciple-making who has demonstrated ability in teaching and equipping with passion and clarity
- A growing leader who seeks to understand the biblical counseling movement and how to best resource and equip the church
- A member of The Church at Brook Hills with a commitment to the vision/mission/goal of the church
- Strong organizational skills; sound relational skills; solid communication skills; and a depth of knowledge in the biblical counseling world
- A minimum certificate training or Bachelor's degree and preferably a Master's degree in the related field
- A heart for shepherding and caring for the body
- Extensive experience in counseling and the ability to counsel members on a variety of topics
- A collaborative and effective team player who has the ability to bridge ministry areas, and advance the mission and vision of the church

Responsibilities:

- Provide biblical counseling on a variety of topics to the church body
- Work with the Pastor of Member Care to evaluate ministry areas, make appropriate changes when necessary, and develop new initiatives to care for the body
- Develop and teach biblical counseling classes for the church body
- Provide support and assistance to the elders, church staff, and small group leaders regarding counseling and discipleship issues
- Recruit, train, and equip Brook Hills members in the areas of care and counseling
- Build partnerships with other biblical counselors and counseling centers in the area
- Carry out other duties and responsibilities, as assigned

Interested applicants should contact Sean Gould (sgould@brookhills.org)