- d. Musical ability to lead corporate worship and proficiency with primary instrument.
- e. Proficiency with modern technology for worship ministry, team collaboration and development.
- f. Anticipate budgetary needs; develop and propose budget recommendations, and responsibly manage ministry finances with accountability.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES

1. Pastoral Leadership for Family-Equipping Discipleship (~60% of time)
  - a. As God has called parents to be primary in their children's evangelism and discipleship, this pastor will cast this biblical vision, support parents through everyday equipping and resourcing, and maintain a simple calendar that seeks to give families time to minister to those in their spheres of influence.
  - b. Work with parents and ministry team members to foster meaningful biblical community among middle and high school students and their families.
  - c. Identify, examine, and train potential volunteers for family ministry, developing, empowering, and supporting them to serve in their unique areas of giftedness.
  - d. Care and counseling.
2. Music and Worship Ministry (~40% of time)
  - a. Prayerfully plan and lead biblically rich worship services, gleaned from the best of new and old songs, prayers, readings, etc.
  - b. Work with Lead Pastor, Elders, and worship team to assess current corporate worship, identify areas for growth, and develop a phased plan for implementation.
  - c. Recruit, develop and give direction to worship and tech team members.
  - d. Lead the preparation for and execution of corporate worship on Sunday morning.
  - e. Coordinate special Christian seasonal worship services and assist with music and tech for weddings and funerals as needed.
3. Pastoral Staff and Administrative Responsibilities (% of time overlaps with other duties)
  - a. Share corporate worship preaching ministry several times annually (~8-12 times (adjustable) as agreed upon with the Lead Pastor and Elders).
  - b. Clearly and consistently communicate needs under your oversight with Lead Pastor, Elders, ministry team members, participants, and church family.
  - c. Oversee administrative responsibilities related to ministries.

COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

1. Full-time position with salary commensurate with education and experience.
2. Two-weeks paid vacation.
3. One-week paid conference leave with budget for expenses.

HOW TO APPLY

Please provide the following via email: associate-pastor-search@oakgrove.cc. If possible, please provide items 1-4 in a single document — a PDF is preferable, but Word, Pages, Google Doc are all acceptable.

1. Cover letter and resume with five references (two personal (non-family), two ministry-related, and at least one professional).
2. A written testimony of your personal salvation, a significant challenge and recent growth in Christ.
3. Personal statement of faith (if best communicated by another organizational statement, please send that statement as the most accurate representation of your beliefs).
4. A one-page summary of your philosophy of ministry tailored to this position.
5. A five-to-ten-minute introduction video of yourself.
6. A video of you teaching in a related environment and leading worship (if you don't have video leading corporate worship, a video in another setting or alone is fine as well). We're interested in getting a feel for you, not evaluating the quality of the recording.
