

Christian Counselor & Outreach Ministry Coordinator

This position is a joint effort between Foundations Christian Counseling Services (FCCS) of Brodheadsville, Pennsylvania and Calvary Bible Church (CBC) of Ellerslie, Maryland. Candidates should have a graduate degree in counseling from a seminary or Christian university. Ideal candidates will have experience working in a professional Christian counseling or pastoral counseling environment. Weekly time commitment could range from 40-50 hours. Position details can be flexible and open to suggestions based upon the candidate's personality, skills, interest, and experience. The position has a salaried component as well as an hourly wage for counseling sessions. This is a new position that would include launching a new counseling satellite center in Cumberland, MD.

Foundations Christian Counseling Responsibilities (20-25 hours/week):

- Build and cultivate church and community partnerships in the surrounding Cumberland area
- Oversee operational growth for counseling services to local communities and churches
- Promote FCCS in the local community and to the surrounding churches
- Organize and provide biblical counseling seminars for the community and area churches
- Provide hourly counseling services for local churches and the community
- Offer pastoral counseling consultations for partnering churches
- Participate with interviews, training, and possibly supervision of new staff hirers
- Participate in individual and group supervision or staff meetings remotely

Outreach Ministry Director Responsibilities (20-25 hours/week):

- Collaborate with CBC leadership on planning and organizing counseling related outreach resources, services, and events for the community and church
- Survey community needs and opportunities for outreach ministries
- Network with local county and community leaders, resources, and organizations
- Create new outreach events and support ongoing ministries
- Organize and train individuals to serve in various outreach ministries
- When possible participate in teaching and discipleship opportunities
- When appropriate participate in CBC leadership meetings and vision development

Apply for the Opening by emailing a cover letter and resume to Jeremy Yeckley at jyeckley@foundchristcounsel.org or calling Jeremy at 570-955-9387.