2. Equip Families

- Support and encourage parents in discipling their children—
(Ephesians 6:4)

3. Develop Volunteers

- Recruit and equip volunteers for children's and youth ministry—
(2 Timothy 2:2)

4. Provide Ministry Oversight

- Ensure children's and youth ministries are organized, safe, and aligned with the church's mission of "To know Christ, grow in faith, go make him known." —
(1 Corinthians 14:40)

5. Secondary Responsibilities (Develop Over Time):

- Strengthen community outreach to youth and families—
(Matthew 28:19-20)
- Introduce tools or systems that improve communication and organization
- Develop additional programs or events as ministry grows

Qualifications:

Required:

- A clear and growing relationship with Jesus Christ
(1 Timothy 4:12)
 - Agreement with the church's statement of faith
 - Ability to teach and apply Scripture faithfully
(2 Timothy 2:15)
 - A heart for discipling children, youth, and families
 - A man who exemplifies the qualifications of a Biblical Elder
(1 Timothy 3:1-7)

Preferred (not required):

- Bible training (formal or informal)
 - Experience in children's or youth ministry (formal or informal)
 - Experience leading or organizing volunteers

Personal Character:

- Spiritually mature and committed to prayer
(Colossians 4:2)
 - Humble, teachable, and team-oriented
(Philippians 2:3-4)
 - Faithful and dependable in ministry
(Luke 16:10)

Schedule & Commitment:

- Sunday morning participation required (teaching and/or ministry leadership)
(Hebrews 10:25)
 - Weekly ministry involvement (including some evenings as needed)
 - Participation in regular staff or leadership meetings

Vision & Growth Opportunities:

- Shape and strengthen the church's ministry to children, youth, and families
 - Help develop new ministry initiatives as the church grows
 - Create new opportunities in a community that is hungry for ministry where there is none
 - Grow personally in ministry skills, leadership, and theological understanding
(2 Timothy 1:6-7 – God develops gifts over time)

How to Apply:

- Send cover letter (brief introduction) and resume to staffing@leafriverbaptist.org
- Cover letter should have a basic testimony and general church history.
