Job Description: Worship Leader

Purpose of Position-

A worship leader will focus on creating a distraction-free environment for the congregation to encounter God's presence. They are responsible for learning our congregation & knowing what music will be the best for the congregation.

With an older church we are used to hymns, but open to newer songs. A strong leader will be needed during new songs that the congregation will need help with. Practicing, organizing our regular Sunday morning worship, & being available for other holiday services, such as Christmas Eve & Good Friday will be the sole purpose of this role.

Role Summary-

The Worship Member supports the Pastor & other team members in facilitating corporate worship through musical and vocal excellence, spiritual maturity, and a servant's heart.

Key Responsibilities-

- Musical Contribution: Prepare and perform assigned vocal parts or instruments with excellence.
- Spiritual Modeling: Maintain an active attitude of worship while on stage to lead the congregation by example.
- Preparation: Attend all scheduled rehearsals and Sunday morning sound checks punctually.
- Team Dynamics: Work harmoniously with other musicians and technical staff, accepting direction and coaching with humility.
- Platform Presence: Maintain a modest and appropriate appearance that reflects the sanctity of the ministry.

Qualifications & Skills-

- Spiritual Maturity: A living relationship with Jesus Christ and a commitment to personal spiritual growth.
- Musical Skill: Ability to play or sing on pitch and in time with the songs.
- Adaptability: Flexibility to learn new songs, arrangements, and different genres of worship music.
- Reliability: Consistent attendance and clear communication regarding availability.
- Time off: All worship leaders & members will receive 3 PTO days (used only for Sundays) per calendar year. In the case of a PTO day or the individual taking an unpaid day off, they will be responsible for finding a replacement for their missed Sunday.
