

Worship and Connections Pastor

Full-time

Forest Park Church

Elizabeth City, North Carolina

Forest Park Church is seeking a Worship & Connections Pastor to lead our worship ministry and champion a healthy, people-centered volunteer culture.

Forest Park Church is a mission-driven congregation serving many unchurched and de-churched individuals, along with people from diverse denominational backgrounds. Because of this, our worship culture is intentionally accessible, thoughtful, and pastoral in tone.

This role is for a leader who not only shapes meaningful worship experiences but also helps people take next steps into community and service.

What You'll Do

- Lead and oversee worship services and special events
- Build, train, and care for worship, production, and tech teams
- Collaborate with the Lead Pastor to plan creative, engaging services
- Design and manage clear pathways from first-time guest → engaged volunteer
- Recruit, equip, and celebrate volunteers across worship and connections
- Ensure strong guest follow-up and next-step systems

Who You Are

• Passionate about leading Spirit-sensitive worship that is theologically rich and accessible to people from diverse church backgrounds

- Energized by building teams and developing leaders
- Organized, dependable, and calm under pressure
- A pastor at heart who values relationships, integrity, and unity
- Comfortable leading musically and administratively

- Experienced with (or willing to learn) Planning Center and worship tech tools

Details

- Full-time, salaried position (40–45 hours/week)
- Reports directly to the Lead Pastor
- Reports indirectly to the Directional Team
- Flexible work environment
- Located in Elizabeth City, NC

To apply: Submit resume, worship samples (if available), and a brief introduction explaining why this role excites you. <https://justchurchjobs.com/job/1323/worship-and-connections-pastor>
