Children's Ministry

Title: God Calls Israel to Love through Obedience
Passage: Deuteronomy 6:4-9
Principle: God calls us to meditate on and obey His Word
Praise: "I Love You, Lord"
Prompt: Ask your child these questions:
• How was Israel to love God?
• What were parents to teach their children?
• How can we apply God's Word to our lives?
• Should anything be more important to us than God?
Practice: Help your child apply these truths in the following ways:
• By memorizing Scripture to mediate on throughout the day
• By applying the truth of God's Word to his life today
• By checking his heart to make sure nothing has taken God's place
This week: As a family, read Deuteronomy 6:4-9
Next week: Deuteronomy 11:8-17
Memory verses: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might." Deuteronomy 6:5
* Preschool verse in bold print

Being Careful How We Build
Building on the Foundation of the Gospel
Being Fruitful in a Secular Culture
Romans 12:1-2

1 Corinthians 3:11 - For no man can lay a foundation other than the one which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:10 - ...each man must be careful how he builds on it.

3 principles to help us relate properly to the world around us

I. _____ the Warning – Do Not Be Conformed to This World

Romans 12:2

A. Which _____?

1. The physical cosmos, _____

Psalms 89:11

2. The "world of _____"

John 3:16 - For God so loved the world...

3. The present sinful _____ (aion), the world system, the demonic human philosophy of life

B. Defining _____

John 17:13-17

C. What does it _____ to be conformed?

D. 2 _____ questions

1. Is the current culture _____ and good, or fundamentally fallen?

2. Should we be pessimistic or optimistic about the possibility for cultural change?

E. Your answer is somewhat dependent on your view of the _____

1. _____ - no millennium - This view says that there is no literal 1,000 year period of Christian rule on the earth; instead the 1,000 years is a symbol for the time period of today until the second coming of Jesus

2. _____ - This view says that there is a prolonged period of Christian prosperity brought on through the church; the second coming of Christ to earth occurs at the end of that prolonged period of gospel success

3. _____ - This view says that Jesus will return to earth and establish a literal 1,000 year reign followed by the eternal state in heaven

F. Various ways others have tried to relate to the world _____

1. _____ – Be indifferent to and unengaged with culture because it is fundamentally and irredeemably flawed

"I look upon this world as a wrecked vessel. God has given me a lifeboat and said to me, 'Moody, save all you can.'" (D.L. Moody)

2. Theological _____ - Christianity can and must be redefined to be fundamentally compatible with the surrounding culture
3. _____ Right – Take the culture back by political means
4. _____ Driven Church Movement – Make church relevant and attractive to unbelievers by removing anything offensive from your church services

II. _____ the Antidote – A Mind Renewed by God’s Word

A. Romans 12:2 Fueled by the truth of the first 11 chapters of this book

cf. Romans 12:1 – “Therefore...”

1. _____

Romans 1:20

Psalms 19:1

2. _____

3. _____

Romans 5:8-9

B. Learning to ask key _____ through the lens of God’s Word

1. Because of our view of _____
 - a. What are the opportunities to _____ God because of His creative beauty and power?
 - b. What are the opportunities to _____ people for their expertise and skill?
2. Because of our view of the _____
 - a. What are the opportunities to see our own _____?
 - b. What are the opportunities to meet needs because our world has been impacted by _____ in this way?
 - c. What are the ways our culture should be _____ because of this sinful tendency?
3. Because of our view of _____
 - a. How and when can the good news of the gospel be _____ on this ministry platform?
 - b. How can this aspect of culture be _____, albeit temporarily, because of the presence of those who say they know Christ?

III. _____ the Challenge – Present Your Body for Cultural Engagement in a Way that Displays God’s Marvelous Mercy and Perfect Will
