OUR PHILOSOPHY

Alarm Sports Network (ASN) is a leader in fantasy gaming. ASN built a custom CMS for sports with integrated features that allow us to create value, engagement & customers for partners. ASN creates high long-term value and “branding” for companies within or outside of fantasy gaming. ASN developed a deep set of tools for fantasy gamers players that are created on a platform that can be provided for fantasy gaming players.

Here are some of the ways that we partner with companies:

Integrated Marketing
The ASN sites and systems have built in marketing mechanisms to include YOUR brand & direct marketing messaging with every content piece or interactive tool on any of ASN properties.

Live Streaming Production
ASN's live streaming technology allows hosts to use skype and for us to broadcast to Twitter, Facebook, YouTube and as many websites as we want simultaneously and synchronized.

White Label Content or Tools Sites
ASN technology produces state of the art sports tools in any look & feel so companies can focus on their core competencies.

Content Creation

The Fantasy Alarm Show with Howard Bender and Jim Bowden, which airs M-F from 4-6 pm ET on SiriusXM, is the winner of the FSTA Award for Best Radio Show. It is a blend of comedy and sketches that are both educational and entertaining. Bender brings fun comedic energy, and Bowden is one of the most entertaining well-respected baseball analysts. The two together are radio platinum. The information saves listeners time in their research, and the entertainment makes them happier and has more fun with their hobby.

The Alarm After Hours Show with Justin Fensterman and co-hosts Adam Ronis, Jennifer Piacenti, and Howard Bender, which airs M-F from Midnight-2 am ET on SiriusXM, is the late-night bar games and hijinks show of the Fantasy Sports Radio schedule. AAH combines high-energy personalities, LIVE sports payoffs of the day’s predictions, and the FIRST look at tomorrow’s games. Fensty brings unique energy while the others bring trash-talking game playing fun that the audience can play along with.
