5. Arranged a luncheon seminar on "Furniture Export Opportunities in Japan" which was held from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on October 19, 1982 at the Top of the Mart, located at Southern Furniture Market Center in Highpoint, North Carolina.

The luncheon program was free to guests and the purpose was to help U.S. furniture manufacturers learn more about how they can export their products to Japan. The two speakers at the conference were Mr. Kosuga, President of Kosuga & Company, Ltd. and Mr. Seki, Managing Director of Kashiwa Mokko, both leading Japanese furniture concerns. They discussed the market for imported furniture in Japan including furniture design, marketing trends, licensing procedures, working with Japanese trading companies and other key elements of the Japanese market.

In addition to the speakers, the following people attended the luncheon seminar (see attached listing).
