SVERIGES TELEVISION AKTIEBOLAG, LTD
(SWEDISH BROADCASTING COMPANY)

Sveriges Television Aktiebolag (the Swedish Television Company) is a non-commercial corporation formed in Sweden to broadcast television programs.

It is financed by annual license fees from owners of radio and television sets in Sweden.

An office was established here in New York City, operating under the assumed name of Swedish Broadcasting Company (a Certificate of Assumed Name was filed on June 14, 1989 with the State of New York/Department of State) to provide production research and assistance to the home office, and to distribute programs about Sweden to radio stations in the United States, free of charge.

The office in New York conducts no commercial activities, and is completely funded by the home office.

The corporation is registered with the U.S. Department of Justice under the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, and files semi-annual reports of its activities.
