Dear Martin,

On behalf of the Embassy of Saudi Arabia, I wanted to bring your attention to the recent meeting on Ukraine in Jeddah hosted by the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Please see a brief synopsis below and a statement by the Saudi Ministry of Foreign Affairs attached.

On August 5, the Kingdom hosted a meeting for National Security Advisors of various countries in Jeddah to advance principles for ending the conflict in Ukraine. Delegates from 40 countries met in the Kingdom, including from the U.S., China, India, Brazil, and South Africa. The meeting in Jeddah enabled Ukraine's leadership to directly address certain countries about its perspective on the necessary conditions for a durable peace.

The meeting is a testament to Saudi Arabia's prominent role at mediating international conflicts, showcasing the Kingdom's central role in global diplomacy. The meeting garnered praise from the U.S. government and other western nations for its contributions to building a broader consensus around the need for a just, comprehensive, and lasting peace.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you,
Chase

Saudi Arabia hosts a meeting for National Security Advisors of various brotherly and friendly countries on the Ukrainian crisis

The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia hosts a meeting for the National Security Advisors and representatives of a number of countries on the Ukrainian crisis in Jeddah on Saturday 18 Muharram 1445 (H) corresponding to 5 August 2023.

Hosting this meeting marks a continuation of the humanitarian initiatives and efforts exerted in this regard by HRH Prince Mohammed bin Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, Crown Prince and Prime Minister, and the communications made by HRH with the Russian and Ukrainian leaderships since the early days of the crisis, expressing the Kingdom's readiness to exert its good offices to contribute to reaching a solution that will result in permanent peace, and its support for all efforts and initiatives aiming to reduce the impacts of the crisis and its humanitarian repercussions.

The Government of the Kingdom looks forward that this meeting contributes to reinforcing dialogue and cooperation through the exchange of views, coordination, and deliberations at the international level on the ways to ensure a solution for the crisis through political and diplomatic means and in a way that strengthens international peace and security, sparing the world further humanitarian, security, and economic repercussions of the crisis.

Dear Sarah,

On behalf of the Embassy of Saudi Arabia, I wanted to bring your attention to the recent meeting on Ukraine in Jeddah hosted by the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Please see a brief synopsis below and a statement by the Saudi Ministry of Foreign Affairs attached.

On August 5, the Kingdom hosted a meeting for National Security Advisors of various countries in Jeddah to advance principles for ending the conflict in Ukraine. Delegates from 40 countries met in the Kingdom, including from the U.S., China, India, Brazil, and South Africa. The meeting in Jeddah enabled Ukraine's leadership to directly address certain countries about its perspective on the necessary conditions for a durable peace.

The meeting is a testament to Saudi Arabia's prominent role at mediating international conflicts, showcasing the Kingdom's central role in global diplomacy. The meeting garnered praise from the U.S. government and other western nations for its contributions to building a broader consensus around the need for a just, comprehensive, and lasting peace.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you,
Chase

Saudi Arabia hosts a meeting for National Security Advisors of various brotherly and friendly countries on the Ukrainian crisis

The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia hosts a meeting for the National Security Advisors and representatives of a number of countries on the Ukrainian crisis in Jeddah on Saturday 18 Muharram 1445 (H) corresponding to 5 August 2023.

Hosting this meeting marks a continuation of the humanitarian initiatives and efforts exerted in this regard by HRH Prince Mohammed bin Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, Crown Prince and Prime Minister, and the communications made by HRH with the Russian and Ukrainian leaderships since the early days of the crisis, expressing the Kingdom's readiness to exert its good offices to contribute to reaching a solution that will result in permanent peace, and its support for all efforts and initiatives aiming to reduce the impacts of the crisis and its humanitarian repercussions.

The Government of the Kingdom looks forward that this meeting contributes to reinforcing dialogue and cooperation through the exchange of views, coordination, and deliberations at the international level on the ways to ensure a solution for the crisis through political and diplomatic means and in a way that strengthens international peace and security, sparing the world further humanitarian, security, and economic repercussions of the crisis.

Dear Amelia,

On behalf of the Embassy of Saudi Arabia, I wanted to bring your attention to the recent meeting on Ukraine in Jeddah hosted by the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Please see a brief synopsis below and a statement by the Saudi Ministry of Foreign Affairs attached.

On August 5, the Kingdom hosted a meeting for National Security Advisors of various countries in Jeddah to advance principles for ending the conflict in Ukraine. Delegates from 40 countries met in the Kingdom, including from the U.S., China, India, Brazil, and South Africa. The meeting in Jeddah enabled Ukraine's leadership to directly address certain countries about its perspective on the necessary conditions for a durable peace.

The meeting is a testament to Saudi Arabia's prominent role at mediating international conflicts, showcasing the Kingdom's central role in global diplomacy. The meeting garnered praise from the U.S. government and other western nations for its contributions to building a broader consensus around the need for a just, comprehensive, and lasting peace.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you,
Chase

Dear Patrick,

On behalf of the Embassy of Saudi Arabia, I wanted to bring your attention to the recent meeting on Ukraine in Jeddah hosted by the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Please see a brief synopsis below and a statement by the Saudi Ministry of Foreign Affairs attached.

On August 5, the Kingdom hosted a meeting for National Security Advisors of various countries in Jeddah to advance principles for ending the conflict in Ukraine. Delegates from 40 countries met in the Kingdom, including from the U.S., China, India, Brazil, and South Africa. The meeting in Jeddah enabled Ukraine's leadership to directly address certain countries about its perspective on the necessary conditions for a durable peace.

The meeting is a testament to Saudi Arabia's prominent role at mediating international conflicts, showcasing the Kingdom's central role in global diplomacy. The meeting garnered praise from the U.S. government and other western nations for its contributions to building a broader consensus around the need for a just, comprehensive, and lasting peace.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you,
Chase
