PLM SAINT JACQUES HOTEL IN PARIS CELEBRATES SECOND BIRTHDAY Hotel Will be Eight Years Old

How can an eight-year-old hotel in Paris be celebrating its second birthday this month? It must be named the PLM Saint Jacques and have been inaugurated on February 29, 1972, thus making it a true Leap Year baby, celebrating a birthday every four years.

The Saint Jacques, PLM's "flagship" hotel, was indeed opened two Leap Years ago as the very first large, modern, all-French hotel constructed in the French capital since 1932! It was the first, also, to have a computerized operations system. During the past eight years it has been joined by a number of other fine new establishments, but it has kept pace with these "newcomers" by implementing a continual plan of renovation, as well as a major replacement of its original computer by more advanced equipment.

When the PLM Saint Jacques opened, the PLM Chain had but 12 hotels, all within the boundaries of France. Today, the chain's phenomenal growth has resulted in a total of 57 properties throughout France and the French West Indies, as well as in Italy, Greece, Morocco, Switzerland, Tunisia and West Africa.

WHAT'S NEW AND UP-COMING IN GUADELOUPE FOR SUMMER OF 1980

Item: Guadeloupe's "Port de Plaisance"

Guadeloupe takes its place as a leading yacht haven in the Caribbean with the recent opening of its "Port de Plaisance" at Bas du Fort, located about five minutes drive east of the island's principal city of Pointe-a-Pitre and a similar distance west of Gosier, the island's major resort area.

At present, there are some 400 fully equipped anchoring berths distributed along eight jetties and an additional 200 will soon open. Yachts up to 92 ft. in length can easily be accommodated.

The "Port de Plaisance" (Pleasure Port) has such needed facilities as a boat supply depot; a slipway; a wharf with equipment to lift boats; a maintenance department; diesel, water, electrical and ice supplies; a restaurant and bar; numerous shops, and an exhibition area for boat manufacturers. A welcome center called the "Capitainerie" features a permanent meteorological service, a VHF channel hook-up, and international telex system, and a telephone: 82.54.85.

Item: PLM Sun Village

The PLM chain recently opened its latest link, the Sun Village, comprised of 105 studios and suites, located on a hilltop overlooking the "Port de Plaisance" at Bas du Fort, a five minute drive from Pointe-a-Pitre. The complex includes a swimming pool, a restaurant, snack bar and mini-supermarket, with a beach nearby. Rates: single and double studios $28 to $43, EP, between April 16 and December 15, 1980.

Item: Gosier Casino to Open in 1980

A new casino to serve all of the hotels in the Gosier area, just 15 minutes from Pointe-a-Pitre, is scheduled to open during 1980 on the grounds of the PLM Arawak. It will be Guadeloupe's second casino (the first having opened two years ago at the resort complex outside of St. Francois).

Item: St.Francois Resort Area

This resort section at the eastern end of Grande-Terre has now been completed. FRENCH WEST INDIES TRAINING SEMINARS IN MARCH Workshops in East Coast and Southern Cities

Beginning on March 4, the French West Indies Tourist Board will conduct a month-long series of training workshops for travel agents and airline sales staff in a dozen cities through the east and south.

The seminars will feature a new, in depth approach to the best means of selling the French West Indies and will provide specific details on the new "Fete Francaise" tours which are being offered for the first time this year by more than a half dozen wholesalers.

In each city, a specialist from the French West Indies Tourist Board will offer a short audio-visual presentation on the islands, followed by a comprehensive talk on the various aspects of the product such as why and how the French islands differ from the rest of the Caribbean, what new facilities and activities are available, who is the best potential client, how to get the most for your client's money, etc. Finally, there will be a period for questions from the floor.

The format will differ somewhat from place to place, with some breakfasts being scheduled, some plain "no frills" evening workshops, and some accompanied by a trade show where hoteliers and wholesalers will be present.

The program of cities is as follows: March 4, Stamford, CT; March 5, Saddle Brook, N.J.; March 6, Boston; March 10, Long Island; March 11, South New Jersey; March 12 Philadelphia; March 13, New York City; March 17, Houston; March 18, Dallas/Fort Worth; March 24, West Palm Beach; March 25, Jacksonville, FL; March 26, Atlanta.

Agents and airline personnel will receive invitations to attend, but all those who would like to be certain of participating in these special seminars are asked to contact directly the French West Indies Tourist Board, 610 5th Ave., New York City, 10020 (212)

757-1125, for the northeast; the French Tourist Office in Dallas, 102 World Trade Center, (214) 742-7011, for Texas; and the Miami or Atlanta Air France offices for Florida and Atlanta respectively.

BRAND NEW 'FETE FRANCAISE' TOURS FOR FRENCH WEST INDIES Carriers, Wholesalers and Tourist Offices Combine Efforts

For the very first time, the Martinique Tourist Office and the Guadeloupe Tourist Office have joined with several airlines and a group of major Caribbean wholesalers to prepare and market a series of three-and-seven-night low-season packages to the French West Indies. Known as "Fete Francaise" tours, they will be valid from April 15 to December 15.

"Each of the partners is contributing an important component to make the tours unusually attractive and to assure their success," announced Jean Roma, Director General of the French West Indies Tourist Board, which is coordinating the program. "The airlines are providing the necessary frequency and equipment, the wholesalers are putting their full sales effort behind the product, and the French West Indies Tourist Board is both producing the folders and backing up the packages with an extensive new advertising campaign."

American Airlines is involved primarily with the traffic passing through its New York gateway, Eastern Airlines will apply its unlimited mileage fares, and Air France expects to use its Miami gateway.

The "Fete Francaise" tours, which are fully commissionable, are being handled by the following wholesalers: Adventure Tours, Caribbean Holidays, Cavalcade, Flyfaire, Gogo, Two World Tours, and, for the southeast, Hill Tours. Most of the tours will be listed in the next edition of the CATM Manual.

The Guadeloupe and Martinique Tourist Offices brought together almost 20 hotels in the French islands to participate in the "Fete Francaise" tours. Although rates and special features vary from one establishment to another, depending on category of hotel and facilities available, a number of items are included in almost all the packages. In addition to guaranteed air-conditioned accommodations with private bath and American breakfast daily, the price includes round trip transfers, a welcome drink, a bottle of rum or wine in the room, one dinner with show or folklore ballet, service charge and tax in most cases, and in some cases a free casino entrance, a free first day car rental, or free shopping transportation.

The prices in Guadeloupe range from a low of $208.50 per person, double occupancy, for seven nights at the Callinago Beach, to $294 at the Holiday Inn. In Martinique, the minimum for seven nights is $210 per person, double occupancy, at the PLM La Marina, while the top is $374 at the Bakoua Beach.

For clients primarily concerned with economy, and looking also for a quiet, relaxed atmosphere, two hotels on Guadeloupe's small satellite island of St. Barthelemy, the St. Barth Beach and the Baie des Flamands, are offering their packages at just $125 per person, double occupancy, for seven nights.

In addition to the hotels mentioned above, the following Martinique properties are participating: Frantel, Latitude, Meridien, and PLM La Bateliere. The additional Guadeloupe hotels are: Ecotel, Frantel, Meridien, Novotel, PLM Arawak, PLM Sun Village, and Salako. On St. Barthelemy, there is also the PLM Jean Bart.

A series of workshop-seminars for agents, featuring a new formula for in-depth training in how to sell the French Caribbean in general and the "Fete Francaise" tours in particular, will be conducted by the French West Indies Tourist Board in March along the east coast and the south.

The Board will also issue a completely revised and up-dated edition of its "French West Indies Sales Manual" this spring. Further information and documentation is available from the F.W.I. Tourist Board at 610 5th Avenue, New York 10020. Tel: (212) PL7-1125.
