ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The Santa Fe International Conference on Creative Tourism is the first global gathering of its kind. The conference will provide the skills and knowledge necessary for developing creative tourism programs by experiencing practical applications and through sessions with some of the world's foremost leaders in the field. Key to the learning process will be the participation of UNESCO Creative Cities Network representatives; a group of international experts who will share background information, advice, and lessons from their own creative tourism programs. This concept of cities helping cities is fundamental to the Creative Cities Network charter.

Founding Members of the UNESCO Creative Cities Network include:

Montreal - Design
Edinburgh - Literature
Seville - Music
Berlin - Design
Bologna - Music
Aswan - Folk Art
Popayan - Gastronomy
Santa Fe - Folk Art
Buenos Aires - Design
Lyon - Media Arts
Melbourne, Australia - Literature

The Creative Cities Network was born out of the Global Alliance for Cultural Diversity initiative, set up in 2002 by UNESCO (United Nations Educational Scientific & Cultural Organization).

Additional proposed cities include:

Ghent, Belgium - Music
Nagoya, Japan - Design
Kobe, Japan - Design
Iowa City, USA - Literature
Shiraz, Iran - Literature
Shenzhen, China - Design and many more...

The UNESCO Creative Cities Network was launched by UNESCO in October 2004. The network is designed to promote the social, economic, and cultural development of cities in both the developed and the developing world. The cities that apply to the network seek to promote their local creative industries; they share interest in UNESCO's mission towards cultural diversity.

Once a city is appointed to the network it can share experiences and create new opportunities for itself and others on a global platform. One such activity is based on the notion of creative tourism.

Who Should Attend

Tourism Professionals, Destination Managers, Community Leaders in the Creative Economy, City and Urban Planners, Cultural Experts, Creative Entrepreneurs, Educators, Creative Industry Developers, and Artists will all benefit from the skills and best practices learned during this unique participative conference.

Japan and America share a unique friendship. To celebrate this friendship, the Japan/America Society of Kentucky has partnered with the Manjiro/Whitfield Commemorative Center for International Exchange to organize a week-long citizen exchange program. We are pleased to welcome our Japanese guests to the Bluegrass State. Kentucky is the 17th host for this annual cultural exchange. We hope you will join our Welcome and Farewell Events.

Person-to-person exchange strengthens ties between Kentucky and Japan by extending friendship, encouraging the sharing of cultural experiences, and promoting understanding that contributes to global peace. Through this program, our Japanese guests will take away a greater appreciation of and knowledge about Kentucky as an ideal location for Japanese citizens, tourists and companies.

Former Kentucky Governor Martha Layne Collins is Chair of the Japan/Kentucky Cultural Exchange. The planning committee includes representatives from JASK, CIE, Toyota, Louisville Metro Government, Lexington/Fayette Urban County Government, Louisville Convention and Visitors Bureau, Commerce Lexington, each of the eleven host cities, and other entities. Special thanks for government and corporate sponsors whose contributions underwrite this program.
