Scholarship announcement

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Scholarships at Japanese universities for U.S. citizens who will graduate from a university or college by September, 1983, or graduates under 35 years old, are available under a Japanese Government Scholarship program for 1983. Applications are available from the Consulate-General of Japan, 3110 Rainier Bank Tower, Seattle, WA 98101.

Knowledge of the Japanese language and arts is an advantage to those who apply. Included in each scholarship will be tuition fees, transportation, living expenses and field study allowances. Applicants must be willing to study the Japanese language, and will receive assistance in pursuing their studies. The program is intended to promote an international exchange in the fields of education, science and culture and contribute to the mutual understanding and cooperation between Japan and America.

The deadline for filing is September 27 this year. An interview will follow on October 2.

For more information, call 206-682-9107.

Free Japanese cultural films in Seattle

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The films "A Cultural Journey into Japan", through glimpses of three of its capital cities, and "The Life of Chikuzan", master of the Tsugaru Shamisen stringed instrument, will be presented with English-language and subtitles respectively, Friday, March 26, 7-10 p.m. at the Nippon-Kan Theater, 622 S. Washington St. Admission is free to the public.

Both films are part of a cultural familiarization program co-sponsored by the Consulate-General of Japan, Seattle, and the Japan-America Society of the State of Washington.

"A Cultural Journey into Japan" provides insight into the cultural and aesthetic side of Japan through glimpses of three of its major cities: Nara, Kyoto, and Tokyo. The 27-minute film portrays the blend and contrast of traditional and modern Japan, which characterizes contemporary Japanese life and culture.

The 1½ hour presentation of "The Life of Chikuzan" adopts a new technique of fusing a documentary with drama on the youthful days of Chikuzan Takahashi, master player of the Japanese Tsugaru Shamisen musical instrument.
