Deadline for Applications

Chicago & NY:	Friday, September 30 2005
All others:	Friday, October 7 2005

Introduction

Tourism Australia is organizing the Americas first-ever Australia Media Roadshow to seven cities throughout the United States.

The Roadshow is specifically designed to target America's biggest media and travel source markets.

State and Territory Tourism Organizations as well as Australian travel product are invited to participate and promote their top experiences and news to this targeted group of print and broadcast media from a wide range of outlets including travel and lifestyle, food and wine, art and culture, and spa and fashion.

The Roadshow Format

The Roadshow consists of three media tours, with each tour scheduled as follows:

- NOVEMBER: Chicago & New York
- JANUARY: San Francisco & Seattle
- MARCH: Los Angeles/Washington DC/New York

Each city has two media events, with each event based on a theme and targeted to small groups of media, giving representatives more one-on-one time with journalists.

STOs and Australian product can join in any or all of the tours of the Roadshow.

A detailed breakdown of each media tour is listed on the following pages.

Timetable of Application Process

OCTOBER: CHICAGO AND NEW YORK

DATES: Chicago: Monday, November 14 & Tuesday Nov 15
New York: Wednesday November 16 & Thursday November 17

THEME: "From aboriginal to eco-adventures, why you need to cover Australia now"

BACKGROUND: The Roadshow kicks off in Chicago and New York because:

- The two cities are where a major concentration of the best media is located
- New York is America's number one media market
- Chicago, is a large base of nationally syndicated media
- November is a key period for media planning their travel. The event will focus on getting media committed to travel.
- Imperative to get news out as editors and producers are also planning their 2006 calendars.

FORMAT: In Chicago, there will be a cocktail party followed the next day by a media lunch and transfer to NY. In NY, there will be a luncheon and the tour's largest event, a cocktail reception.

Chicago's Luncheon and Cocktail Reception, New York's Luncheon:

Hosted at an Australian restaurant, loft or gallery these events will target media who have already travelled to Australia, journalists who have expressed interested but have not committed and media we want to introduce to Australia.

Attendee Target: 15-20 media per event

Media Target: Print, online and broadcast media from travel and lifestyle, food and wine, art & culture, spa, and fashion

New York: Cocktail Reception

NY Cocktail reception will be the Roadshow's largest event, with several "wow factors" including exhibitors own specially created interactive spaces.

Attendee Targets: 30-50 media

Media Target: Print, radio, online and broadcast media from travel and lifestyle, food and wine, art & culture, spa, and fashion in NY, as well as nearby drive markets of New Jersey, Connecticut and Philadelphia

PARTICIPANTS: This media tour will comprise the following exhibitors:

- Tourism Australia
- Partner Airlines
- Dedicated Australian Product and Experiences
- State Tourism Organisations
- Select food and wine, and Indigenous cultural experiences

JANUARY: SAN FRANCISCO AND SEATTLE

DATES: San Francisco: Monday, January 22

Seattle: Wednesday, January 24

THEME: "The Taste and Spirit of Australia"

BACKGROUND: The second tour is in San Francisco and Seattle because:

- Both cities are major gateways for Australian travel, with Northern California and Seattle
- Events are timed to draw on the resources and media impact of G'Day LA: Australia Week, one of Australia's biggest promotions the week before in LA
- Northern California is a major market for travel, outdoor and lifestyle media and especially food and wine media.
- The Fancy Food Show in SF January 20-22, allows Australian food and wine to participate
- Seattle has a large number of travel and outdoor lifestyle media, is in close proximity to Vancouver and is a major centre of business for airline, hospitality and wholesalers.

FORMAT: In San Francisco and Seattle, there will be two events in each city including one afternoon tasting focused on food and wine and an evening cocktail party celebrating the launch of Qantas new SFO service and Australia's experiences.

Afternoon Tastings

A media event focused on food, wine, bar and restaurant news. The country's epicurean scene is a hot travel trend and helps Australia get on pages outside of travel.

Attendee Target: 15-20 media per event

Media Target: Travel, lifestyle and food and wine media

Cocktail Party Kick-off

This is a kick-off celebration for a two-month long promotion of Qantas' new routes on the West Coast, including San Francisco in March and Vancouver in June. The evening will also showcase Australia's experiences and food and wine.

Attendee Targets: 15-20 media

Media Target: Print, radio, online and broadcast media from travel and lifestyle, food and wine, and art & culture media in SF and Seattle, including the cities nearby markets, Oakland, Sacramento and San Jose for SF and Vancouver for Seattle.

PARTICIPANTS: This Media Tour will comprise the following exhibitors:

- Tourism Australia
- Partner Airlines
- Dedicated Australian Product and Experiences
- State Tourism Organisations
- Select food and wine

MARCH: LOS ANGELES, WASHINGTON DC & NEW YORK

DATES: Los Angeles: Wednesday, March 1

Washington DC: Monday, March 7

New York: Tuesday, March 8

THEME: Australia's newest experiences

BACKGROUND: The final tour is in these three cities because:

- The three cities have the largest concentration of influential media on the East and West Coast.
- Washington DC has a large concentration of tastemakers in travel media, including travel trade press, National Geographic, USA Today, Discovery, NPR and the Washington Post
- New Product attending the New Product Workshop in Los Angeles March 2-4 have the opportunity to have additional media exposure
- The condensed schedule before and after the New Product workshop keeps representatives days out of the office to a minimum.

FORMAT: Each city will have a luncheon reception and a cocktail reception featuring Australia's new products.

Luncheon Receptions

The luncheon will start off with time for media to roam through interactive areas and then sit down for lunch for more one-on-one time.

Attendee Target: 15-20 media per event

Media Targets: Print, radio, online and broadcast media from travel and lifestyle, food and wine, and art & culture media, including the cities nearby drive markets.

Cocktail Receptions

The evening reception will have media mingle among state and product interactive areas as well as lounge areas to facilitate more one-on-one discussions.

Attendee Target: 15-20 media per event

Media Targets: Print, radio, online and broadcast media from travel and lifestyle, food and wine, and art & culture media, including the cities nearby drive markets.

PARTICIPANTS: This media tour will comprise the following exhibitors:

- Tourism Australia
- Partner Airlines
- Dedicated Australian Product and Experiences
- State Tourism Organisations
- Select food and wine, Indigenous cultural experiences

Venue & Materials

Tourism Australia will be responsible for customising each venue, including participants display area to ensure that the overall branding of the event is consistent and that each supplier has the most effective use of space and positioning. To maintain a consistent image, participants must get prior approval to erect additional display materials.

Promotional collateral (i.e. brochures) are the responsibility of the State/product to have shipped to the venue. Details of delivery arrangements will be provided in the future communications with participating partners. Product may be asked for images/displays to assist with venue decoration.

Participation Fee

The Roadshow participation fee is as follows:

State and airlines, includes presentation space:

Each Tour: $3,000
All Three Tours: $8,000*

*Price break of $1,000 if confirmed participation in all three tours by Oct 7, 2005

Australian Experiences:

To attend a tour: $500
Individual presentation space on a tour: $1,500

*all above amounts are in USD

The participation fee includes:

- Individual space at events for states, airlines and participating experiences (total tour estimated value $107,500)
- Inclusion in PR activities organised by Tourism Australia (Value $5,000 per tour)
- Include items in the Official gift bag.

Not included in the participation fee:

- Domestic and International Flights
- Accommodation
- Items of a personal nature (eg. telephone bills, laundry etc)
- Meals (other than any cocktails or hosted meals)
- Travel Insurance
- freight costs

Other Terms and Conditions

1. Accommodation and Flights

Accommodation & flights will be the responsibility of the exhibitor. Any discounted hotel and flight offers available for delegates will be advised.

Insurance and Liability Issues

All participants are reminded that Tourism Australia DOES NOT:

- Accept responsibility or liability for any loss suffered by participants or visitors
- Provide or arrange for any insurance for, or on behalf, of participants or visitors
- Provide any indemnity for loss or injury suffered by participants or visitors

Participants are reminded that it is their responsibility to arrange insurance including public and product liability, workers compensation and property insurance.

Queensland Bulletin – September 2005

Brought to you by the International Media & Trade Relations Marketing team from Tourism Queensland. Queensland Bulletin is a monthly update on new tourism product and happenings, event information and new sources of information on visiting Queensland.

New Products

Thunderbolt Outer Reef Trip, Cairns

New generation reef boat thrills with high speed ride of a lifetime

Brand new vessel Thunderbolt 1 has access to three different reef sites for your reef adventure. It will also get you there quickly as it is the fastest commercial passenger vessel on the Reef.

Up to 42 passengers can be transported at 80 km/h to Moore, Flynn or Thetford Reefs for snorkeling and exploring The Great Barrier Reef.

This new generation reef boat operated by Raging Thunder is a must do trip and will have you to the Outer Reef from Fitzroy Island in only 24 minutes – leaving plenty of time to enjoy the wonders below.

It departs Cairns daily from the Reef Fleet Terminal at 12.30 pm for this three hour Outer Reef experience.

Thunderbolt 1 half day reef adventure

Ramada Pelican Waters & Golf Course

Next door neighbour is the Greg Norman-designed golf course

The picturesque Glass House Mountains provide the background for golfers at the 18-hole Greg Norman-designed Club Pelican golf course, just a few steps from Ramada Pelican Waters, due to open its doors in December.

With 114 rooms (suites and apartments) this latest addition to the beautiful Sunshine Coast is set to become one of the leading conference venues in Queensland.

Located an hour north of Brisbane and just 40 minutes south of Noosa, the 4.5 star Ramada Pelican Waters is custom built to cater for world class conferences.

Two tournament sized tennis courts, two swimming pools, fitness centre and Vida Health and Day Spa are just some of the resort facilities on offer. 'Vida' is Spanish for life and will offer a broad range of beauty therapies and rejuvenating therapies. Opens December, 2005.

Ramada Pelican Waters, Caloundra

Bunk Brisbane

'Birdie Num Num' is the meet and mingle bar for backpackers & students at Bunk Brisbane, the city's latest budget accommodation house.

It's just the place to go all Aussie-style for a cold beer by the pool and a BBQ.

Bunk Brisbane is what it says, with accommodation in brand new four, six and eight share dorms plus twins and doubles.

Bunk Brisbane is air-conditioned and all dorms, doubles and twins are ensuite.

Conveniently located in cosmopolitan Fortitude Valley on the edge of Brisbane, it's just a short walk from the hub of the city's nightlife and entertainment. Chinatown is literally just around the corner.

With all the facilities you'd expect and an in-house travel agency Bunk is fast becoming the traveller's stop of choice. www.bunkbrisbane.com.au

Noosa Springs Resort Now Open

The latest resort for cosmopolitan Noosa Heads

Play and stay in the latest addition to the range of luxury accommodation available at Noosa.

Noosa Springs Resort is a godsend for golfers, tennis aficionados and for just about every sports lover. Not that it's all to do with sport, because in between playing a round or two on the 18-hole golf course, or a 'game, set and match' at the tennis centre, it's nice and handy to the resort's award winning Relish restaurant.

Noosa Springs Resort offers luxuriously appointed, two and three bedroom, fully self contained apartments - just perfect for a bit of R&R. It's located just three kilometres from famous Hastings Street and Noosa's beautiful Main Beach.

Of course, it's also close to the many fine attractions and activities of the Sunshine Coast.

Orion Expedition Cruises, Great Barrier Reef

Fifty couples have choice of six World Heritage Reef cruises

Go explore the waters of an isolated reef; snorkel amongst brightly coloured tropical fish; follow in the footsteps of Captain Cook by climbing the summit of Lizard Island; or take to the Zodiac and step ashore onto bleached white beaches.

These are just some of the highlights included in the six World Heritage Reef cruises aboard Orion which depart from either Brisbane or Cairns. Orion is a luxuriously appointed modern vessel new to Australia's waters.

Apart from the highlights of the Great Barrier Reef also enjoy other delights of Queensland's coast including World Heritage Listed Fraser Island and coral cay Lady Elliot Island. Marine and animal life abounds with some special snorkeling and diving spots on offer. Exclusive beach barbecues, kayaking, exploring and swimming are all on the agenda.

True 5 star experiences are included onboard what really is a private mega yacht.

Product Updates

Conrad Jupiters - A Gold Coast Icon

Massive multi million dollar upgrade

Expect the impossible when Conrad Jupiters hotel and casino spends $53.5 million on its biggest upgrade in its 20 year history.

The turning of the first sod has been undertaken and work is in progress, with completion due late next year.

The magic makers may be hard at work adding exciting new features to an already popular attraction, and whilst they're doing that, rest assured gaming, entertainment, dining and celebrating are still in full swing.

Highlights of the refurbishment include:

- Relocation and refurbishment of casino and gaming operations to one level
- Construction of balconies giving views of Broadbeach from gaming floor
- New restaurant with indoor & outdoor seating
- New lounge areas on the gaming floor

Whitsunday Fantasea Reef Festival

Fireworks, seafood, wine, and an impressive program

Set aside a few days between Friday November 4th and Sunday the 13th, for a festival which appears to have everything. It's an event which also puts the spotlight on the beautiful Whitsundays.

From what was a single event, the Whitsunday Fantasea Reef Festival has grown into a ten-day extravaganza. This all started with a Fantasea cracker night, and now it's not only fireworks on the foreshore, but the program includes a seafood and wine festival, a massive street carnival and a plethora of cultural and sporting events.

How about making it to the dinner-party on the Esplanade, but please wear something appropriate, namely 'wearable art'.

There's a full program listed on the website:
www.whitsundayreeffestival.com
It's just too good to miss.

Cathedral Beach, Fraser Island

Tented accommodation on World Heritage Listed island

Join a three day/two night Fraser Island Company adventure with Cathedral Beach tented accommodation for a great way to experience beautiful World Heritage Listed Fraser Island.

It's Fraser Island's only private campground in a lush and quiet setting on 25 acres. The many diverse highlights of Fraser Island are included.

Tours depart from Hervey Bay each Tuesday and Friday, with a 16 passenger limit, thus ensuring up-close-and-personal attention. Breakfasts, lunches and dinners are included, as is an extensive touring program of beautiful Fraser Island. There are picnics, swimming, bush walking and eco experiences like no other.

Freeflying in Queensland

Adventure flights for thrill seekers

Just to the north of Brisbane the thrill of a lifetime awaits. It's an adventure of which most can only dream.

But now it's reality time, with raw beginners experiencing the rudiments of flight in flight training centres at Caboolture airport and Redcliffe aerodrome.

Whether it is a training exercise or just a one-off adventure, dreamers take to the air in Airborne Microlight Trikes (more widely known as powered hang gliders), or Skyfox Gazelle fixed wing aircraft.

Buckle up and reach for the sky on a thrill seeking adventure flight over the Sunshine Coast, the Moreton Islands and the Glass House Mountains.

Off Road Rush, Gold Coast

Suit up, strap yourself in and whoooooom!

Having moved from Port Douglas, Off Road Rush is now in the thrill business on Queensland's Gold Coast. This is the ultimate experience in off-road-racing, a true adrenalin rush. It's raw power and you're in the driver's seat.

Wide suspension makes these racing buggies extremely safe enabling drivers to do what other racing cars can't offer - getting sideways and airborne!

Even rank amateur drivers get the full extent of the thrill as they race around corners, fly over jumps, and do some incredible maneuvers. www.offroadrush.com.au

Queensland's World Heritage sites

From primeval forests to pristine white sands, from tranquil waters teeming with life to the fossil tracks of ancient time, Queensland's World Heritage-listed sites provide a richness of experience for visitors to Queensland.

Almost 80 years ago it would have taken days to reach Lamington National Park, one of Queensland's five World Heritage-Listed Areas, nestled in the mountains of the Gold Coast Hinterland.

The last part of the journey to Lamington would have been by horseback up rugged trails. Now, instead of two days it takes less than two hours from Brisbane or the Gold Coast to begin to experience the tumbling waterfalls, wildflower heaths, tall open forests, picturesque creeks, varied wildlife and some of the best bushwalking along the Queensland-New South Wales border ranges.

The park's beautiful rainforests include the largest subtropical rainforest remnant in the world and are home to an incredible variety of wildlife including rare and threatened plants and animals. There is no better place to go fauna and flora spotting, hiking or learning about the rich exploration history of the park.

For thousands of years, Aboriginal people lived in and visited these mountains. Now there are cozy mountain retreats – the O'Reilly family established a guesthouse near the park in 1926 and founding members of the National Parks Association of Queensland built Binna Burra Lodge next to the park in the 1930s. www.oreillys.com.au or www.binnaburralodge.com.au

Further north and off Queensland's south coast is the largest sand island in the world.

The World Heritage-listed Fraser Island stretches over 120km with long uninterrupted white beaches flanked by strikingly coloured sand cliffs as well as majestic tall rainforests and numerous freshwater lakes of crystal clear waters. Scenic four wheel drive circuits and walking tracks take in some of the largest of the lakes.

A place of exceptional beauty, Fraser Island is 45 minutes by air and four hours by car from Brisbane. Called K'gari by its Aboriginal inhabitants after an ancient spirit who helped make this part of the world, the island reveals Aboriginal occupation of at least 5000 years.

In 1836 a number of survivors of the wrecked ship 'Stirling Castle' lived for about six weeks on the island before being rescued. During these six weeks, hostility and aggression developed between the Europeans and the Aborigines. One of the survivors was the wife of the captain of the Stirling Castle, Eliza Fraser, after whom Europeans named the island.

Almost 170 years later, Fraser Island is now home to Kingfisher Bay Resort, a four star, international standard, fully integrated eco-resort with backpacker accommodation also available.
www.kingfisherbay.com

Camping is also one of the most popular ways to explore Fraser Island with camping tours available. Fraser Island is also famous for its fishing.

Just north of Fraser Island begins the world's largest World Heritage Area, the Great Barrier Reef, extending 2000km and covering an area greater than Italy.

It is the world's most extensive coral reef system and one of the world's richest areas in terms of faunal diversity.

With an ocean varying in hue from blue to turquoise to green, its many island resorts offer swimming, surfing, snorkeling, sailing, fishing and bushwalking.

At Heron Island, a true coral cay off the coast from Gladstone 530kms north of Brisbane, you can swim straight off the beach to an endless garden of coral where the waters are literally teeming with beautifully coloured fish and marine life with some of the best scuba and skin diving in the world as well as the opportunity for turtle watching.

www.heronisland.com

Lying between Townsville and Cooktown on the north-east coast of Queensland, the World Heritage Listed Wet Tropics of Queensland is 900,000 hectares of spectacular scenery and rugged topography with fast-flowing rivers, deep gorges and numerous waterfalls which provide the only habitat for numerous rare species of both plants and animals.

Showcasing the major stages in the earth's evolutionary history, the Wet Tropics' mountain summits offer expansive vistas of undisturbed rainforests with the rare combination of fringing coral reefs and rainforest coastline in the Cape Tribulation region found nowhere else in Australia.

There are about 150 managed walks in the Wet Tropics, ranging from short, popular boardwalks with visitor facilities to long distance treks with overnight camping. Go walking, and enjoy spectacular scenery, swim in the waterholes and experience the wide range of Wet Tropics environments while learning about its plants and animals.

Located 90 minutes drive north of the cosmopolitan city of Cairns and in this, the world's oldest living rainforest, is the Daintree Eco Lodge & Spa with 15 quality villas giving guests the opportunity to be at one with nature while also all the creature comforts of a boutique retreat. www.daintree-ecolodge.com.au.

If your looking to stay where the rainforest meets the reef. Coconut Beach Rainforest Lodge is just the ticket. www.coconutbeach.com.au

To the west is the World Heritage-listed Australian Fossil Mammal Site at Riversleigh with its exceptional and extensive fossil deposits.

Encased in hard, rough limestone and formed in lime-rich freshwater pools, they span at least 20 million years.

Riversleigh can be reached from Mt Isa, the Oasis of the Outback 1829kms from Brisbane and 883kms, which offers numerous accommodation options.

A range of camping sites, accommodation and facilities is located only 50kms away at Adels Grove, a former miners homestead situated adjacent to Lawn Hill National Park. There are many activities to choose from in the vicinity including fishing, canoeing, swimming, walking and bird watching. Tours are also taken out to the fossil fields.

Queensland – Learning with fun

Learning has never been so much fun when you holiday in Queensland.

The deep rumble coming from the didgeridoo has become a unique refrain for the spiritual Dreamtime and a 1000-generation old culture. Learning to play the ancient Aboriginal instrument is just one of the many experiences that visitors to Queensland can enjoy during their visit.

Whether it is flying through the sky on a trapeze, riding the waves rolling toward Queensland's world famous beaches or diving beneath the sea among coral teeming with marine life, tourists can take away from their holiday in Queensland new skills as well as wonderful memories.

At the Tjapukai Aboriginal Cultural Park at Kuranda near Cairns, a 40,000 year old culture is showcased. www.tjapukai.com.au

Guests can interact with members of the Aboriginal community where they learn how to throw spears and boomerangs as well as how to play a didgeridoo. And throughout Queensland there are many opportunities to learn about native "Bush Tucker" and the natural medicines that have supported Indigenous cultures for centuries.

You can even take a canoe ride through a tranquil lagoon or learn to craft spears and catch fish in the traditional way

Why not join a turtle rescue expedition to Western Cape York to help free sea turtles from the deadly "ghost nets", the abandoned fishing nets that trap and drown them in the Gulf of Carpentaria?
www.seaturtlescapeyork.com.au

If your looking for more modern craft than a canoe to master, there are many opportunities along the Queensland coast to learn to sail. In the Whitsundays on the Great Barrier Reef, ProSail helps you explore idyllic worlds no cruise ship can visit. Sail among the 74 islands as you learn the skills of mastering both the waves and wind.

www.prosail.com.au

For the even more adventurous, why not take to the skies with the Quasar Flying Trapeze team who instruct guests on a variety of incredible aerial and ground acts. Tourists at Mudjimba, a surf beach near the mouth of the Maroochy River on the Sunshine Coast north of Brisbane, have the opportunity to participate in a circus performance under the tutorage of the troupe. Everyone can enjoy the thrill of flying through the air and have the chance to experience the excitement of the circus. www.trapeze.gearzone.com.au

Surfing is an iconic part of the Queensland lifestyle. And there are many surf schools on the Sunshine Coast where can learn to surf like a true professional. On the Gold Coast and its famous Surfers Paradise, you can learn at surfing legend and world title winner Cheyne Horan's School of Surf with surfing lessons to master both the theory as well as the technical side of surfing. Choose between either beginner lessons right through to a Diploma of Sport in Surfing – coaching, development and management.
www.cheynehoran.com.au/schoolofsurf.html

If you are more interested in what is below the waves, there are many chances to learn scuba diving during your stay in Queensland. The Great Barrier Reef supports the greatest concentration of life on the planet including 1500 species of fish, 350 different corals, 4000 species of mollusks and 10,000 species of sponges. And of course there is the larger marine life that you may encounter. A variety of sharks inhabit the reef and there are dolphins, turtles, dugongs, manta rays, and seasonal sightings of migrating whales.
www.dive-queensland.com.au

Away from the water, your adventure can start in the kitchen where you can reach your culinary potential at Brisbane's trendy James St Cooking School. From barbequing to breadmaking, cake decorating to knife skills, pasta sauces to market discovery tours, cooking is brought to life. Purpose built kitchens are geared for traditional demonstration classes, but hands-on practical classes and a wide range of other formats.

www.jamesstcookingschool.com.au

On the Sunshine Coast try the hands-on experience of creating food designed for fresh, fast and fabulous entertaining in Thai cooking classes at the well-known Spirit House.

www.spirithouse.com.au

For a different kind of hands-on experience, head to the bush at Winton in central western Queensland and take part in the largest excavation of dinosaur material ever attempted on Australian soil at the "Elliot" dig. Australia's largest dinosaur 'Elliot' was discovered here by grazier and fossil enthusiast David Elliot in 1999 and since then this site has produced many unique, never seen before dinosaur bones.

Learning has never been so much fun when you holiday in Queensland. You can venture off by yourself or take advantage of the many tour options available with experienced guides proud to show you the best that Queensland has to offer from the reef to the outback and help you explore and learn about its history and its modern lifestyle.

Art classes in paradise

PALM COVE, QUEENSLAND, AUSTRALIA: Palm Cove's spectacular canvas of turquoise waters and palm-fringed shores has inspired a new offering for visitors to this tropical haven in the form of art classes at the magnificent Outrigger Beach Club & Spa.

Like acclaimed French-artist Paul Gauguin who took inspiration from his Tahitian wonderland, so too are holidaymakers flocking to Palm Cove.

Respected local artist, Tracie Worth is running the daytime classes at the spacious open-air gallery at the Bella Baci restaurant within the resort.

Nestled amongst the resort's giant Melaleuca trees that jut out proudly from holes cut into the timber decks, art students are fast discovering their creative sides.

An Expressionist artist for 25 years, Tracie's work adorns the walls of homes and commercial buildings around the world and she is drawing on her extensive experience, to tap into the hidden creative talents of students from all walks of life.

"People from all age groups are taking classes and at the end of their stay, they proudly display their art to the many people strolling past," Tracie said. "I also display a number of original art pieces during the classes which can be purchased by the public."

Each class caters for up to four students and runs for three hours between 10am and 1pm.

Tracie said she was pleasantly surprised how quickly the classes have taken off since she started them in August. "It must be Palm Cove's ambience that instantly relaxes visitors, which can be clearly seen in their paintings," she added. "The quality of the work being created is a definite indicator that students are in a relaxed state-of-mind."

General Manager of Outrigger Beach Club & Spa, Murray Worthington said that the hotel had plans to feature a dedicated exhibition area within the resort's grounds for guests to display their paintings, which they can then take home.

"Over the longer term, we may look at introducing an Annual Art Awards for the best work of the year," he added.

Mr Worthington said Tracie's talents were also available to Outrigger's meetings and conference market as a breakout activity with a twist.

"Tracie can provide giant canvases for whole conference delegations to work on," he said. "At the end of the conference, Tracie will arrange for the finished canvas to be shipped to the businesses to display in their offices."

A three-hour session including tuition and materials costs AUD$125.00. Outrigger Beach Club & Spa is offering a special Colours of the Cove package package for just AUD$775* per person, twin-share which includes one art class, three nights accommodation in a lagoon spa room and daily full breakfasts.

Bookings can be made through travel wholesalers and agents, or by contacting the resort direct on +61 7 4059 9200, emailing beachclub@outrigger.com.au

* Offer is valid until March 31, 2006 and is subject to availability with blackout periods applying.

Some of Queensland's Many Characters

Within a coo-ee of Croc Hunter Steve Irwin's cries of "Crikey" are a cast of fellow Queensland identities who show how diverse the characters are that make up a holiday experience in the Sunshine State.

Outback Aussie Tours' Alan Smith

In Central Queensland they claim Alan Smith has been roaming this country almost as long as the dinosaurs whose fossils are the highlight of his Outback Aussie Tours which include Winton, Longreach and Hughenden.

Alan, a fully accredited Savannah Guides operator, has a lifetime of tales to tell visitors of this fascinating and historical part of Queensland.

And he admits that he sometimes does get overcome with passion while explaining about the wildlife and flora of the Outback.

"I do get a bit excited at times while on tours but the guests seem to find that infectious – at least after the initial shock," Alan laughs.

Alan's mission is to help people to see, feel, taste, smell and actually experience Queensland's Outback, with a vision to communicate the story of the land and its people.

www.queenslandholidays.com.au/outback/outback-aussie-tours-and-travel/index.cfm

Les Gibson of Munbah Cultural Tours, Tropical North Queensland

To the north at Hopevale towards the tip of Cape York, about 50 kms north of Cooktown, Les Gibson also has the history of Queensland ingrained in his soul.

In 1770, his Guugu Yimithirr people supplied stranded James Cook and his crew with fresh meat, fish and other staples while the great English explorer repaired his ship the Endeavour.

Now Les operates Munbah, a beach shack where visitors can choose from spear-fishing, bush tucker foraging to traditional art classes with Les' wife Marie.

And Les is always keen to share his knowledge of bush tucker and medicine even with the occasionally cautious visitor.

"Getta whiff of this," offers Les, first taking a sample inhalation himself, "this'll clear ya out!" as he opens his hands to reveal a mangled mass of ants and leaves. www.monolith.com.au/munbah

Steve Clausen entertains on Queensland Rail's Sunlander

Entertaining passengers on Queensland Rail's premium Sunlander service between Brisbane and Cairns, Steve Clausen's unique usage of the English language and colourful colloquialisms allow him to reveal the culture and history of Australia with his extensive repertoire of Australian ballads.

Steve says he relishes his role as a musical guide for visitors to Queensland.

"It gives me the chance to meet new and interesting people, share cultures and experiences and – occasionally – form lasting friendships," Steve says. "Not a bad job, really!"

Shane O'Reilly of the pioneering O'Reilly Family, Gold Coast Hinterland

Shane O'Reilly, managing director of O'Reilly's Guesthouse at Mt Lamington in the Gold Coast hinterland, also has a tale of history to tell.

It was almost 70 years ago in 1937 when bushman Shane's great-uncle Bernard O'Reilly went looking in thick rainforest for a Stinson aircraft that went missing in the Border Ranges a week beforehand during a regular flight from Brisbane to Sydney. Amazingly, he found two men alive and the story of the rescue has become Gold Coast folklore.

The guesthouse founded by the O'Reilly family at Mt Lamington is also legendary for fine food and family-inspired hospitality nestled in World Heritage-listed wilderness.

"Maybe it has been the luck of the Irish when people think of the struggles we had at the beginning and how far we have come especially now with our own vineyard," Shane says.

"But the important thing has been to preserve our family identity which is so much a part of everything we do here."
www.oreillys.com.au

Michael Ward from Tamborine Mountain Distillery, Gold Coast Hinterland

Nearby, on top of the hill at North Tamborine, former ladies hairdresser and icecream salesman Michael Ward is the latest hero of Queensland's rising wine and spirit industry.

Michael and his wife Alla own the Tamborine Mountain Distillery which won silver at the International Wine and Spirit Competition for their citrus liqueur, limoncello, and have bronze medals for their honey vodka and mint coconut ice liqueur.

"When we won all these awards they wanted me to put on a penguin suit and fly to England - bollocks to that - is what I told them down the phone," Michael says.

"With me what you see is what you get whether it's the shorts with a hole in them or a few dreadlocks - I don't care because Queenslanders are a pretty laid back lot".

Michael can tell a story with the best of them and his product knowledge in itself draws in those keen to learn about their award winning liqueurs and spirits.

Reefworld's 'reef rat' Nev Kelly, Whitsundays

More than 70km off the Whitsunday Coast at central Queensland, Nev Kelly doesn't mind being dubbed a "reef rat". Nev works and lives on a floating pontoon on the edge of Hardy Reef in the Great Barrier Reef.

"It's my backyard and people have a great time playing in it," he says of his home Reefworld.

Celebrities like Rob Lowe, Olympians such as Cathy Freeman and the richest man of earth, Bill Gates, have all visited Nev's backyard to enjoy snorkeling, scuba diving and coral viewing.

And with Reefsleeper, tourists also have the opportunity to stay the night. www.fantasea.com.au/reefsleeper.htm

Klaas and Elke Kooij of Champagne Sailing Cruises, Gold Coast

After sailing the world, Klaas and Elke Kooij arrived from the Netherlands in their 16m sailing cruiser HEIKE on the Gold Coast and now tourists can also experience the beautiful, relaxed and unique pleasure of calm water or ocean sailing.

"People love to hear our tale of adventure while at the same time enjoying champagne cruising on the foredeck and watching a spectacular sunset over the water to the mountains and the lights come on in the Surfers Paradise high-rise buildings," says Elke.

"Often they are trying to escape even if it is only from the rat-race for a short time and it is wonderful to see them become so relaxed." www.gldoz.com/champagne

Gold Coast Surf Coach Brad Holmes

Brad Holmes's life is also entwined with the water as a surf coach on the Gold Coast. For the past five years, he has also been teaching the disabled to surf, embracing the possible rather than focusing on limitations.

"For all my students I teach them how the sea works and how to work within the sea – I love to see my students achieve in their own right," he says.

"And that is the key to why I coach – each student teaches me something as well."

Head further south to enjoy pleasures of the senses. Phoenician Spa Retreat is a haven in downtown Broadbeach within the Phoenician Resort Apartments' complex.

A Roman Spa Bath, inspired by the ancients, leads to cedarwood saunas, a moist Eucalyptus-infused steam room and cool plunge pool. Just feel the goodness of a Sea Science Warp formulated with Spirulina, Melissa, Hyssop and Red Clove for intense cleansing and purifying; the Moor Mud Wrap packed with minerals and the comfort of a herbal wrap with Calendula, Comfrey, Peppermint and Lavender.

Body scrubs are almost good enough to eat with soft walnut granules mixed with coconut-based cream and treatments based on the traditional Ayurvedic principles where aromatic oil is poured over the forehead, an excellent tonic for the nervous system. www.phoenician.com.au

Royal Pines Resort at Ashmore is widely known as a golfing destination with the Gold Coast's only 27-hole composite course. The Resort Day Spa is also developing fans with a multi-jet hydrotherapy spa bath, vichy shower, signature treatments and hairdressing. Try the Salt, Sugar and Spice one-hour exfoliation and hydration.

Work up a sweat at extensive sports facilities first to get the toxins out – Royal Pines offers seven tennis courts, a health club with gym and lap pool, bikes and jogging areas. www.royalpines.com.au

Pampering doesn't have to be self-indulgent. Peace, time for reflection and spiritual growth are necessities in the modern age.

Finding your own space and peace can be as simple as casting a line off a fishing platform and watching the reflections of the Nerang River.

Or, stocking up on hand-made natural beauty products at Gold Coast's major shopping precincts or markets and lavishing aloe creams, mud packs and healthful scrubs for a do-it-yourself cleanse.

Nourish the body with fresh produce, seafood and fruit grown locally on the Gold Coast. Fresh juice bars are abundant – a carrot, beetroot and ginger combination kick-starts the metabolism.

Gold Coast is easily accessible from international and Australian destinations. Gold Coast Airport operates international and domestic services with leading airlines including Qantas, Australian Airlines, Pacific Blue, Freedom Air, Jetstar and Virgin Blue. www.goldcoastairport.com.au Brisbane's international and domestic airports are only an hour to the north. Queensland Rail operates rail links between Brisbane and the Gold Coast while the Pacific Motorway is an eight-lane highway linking Gold Coast north.

Golf on Australia's Gold Coast

Visit Australia's Gold Coast and you're spoilt for choice – the biggest decision is arranging your holiday schedule to select which golf course to play.

A balmy year-round climate means winter is an ideal time to hit the fairways.

For decades, Australia's Gold Coast has welcomed thousands of visitors a year. The emerging business tourism market has further cemented the region's title as "Australia's Golf Coast".

Here's a quick rundown of some of the region's championship, resort, public and private courses.

There's freedom to be as serious or easy-going as you want – take a beginners' class, bring your own clubs or hire equipment. Be challenged by courses designed by the world's champions or equate golf with relaxation at a luxurious property with spas and massage.

Your Very Gold Coast golf getaway can be Very Relaxing, Very Active or just Very Rewarding.

Start a golf odyssey around 45 minutes north of central Gold Coast. Brookwater Golf Club is nestled amongst rolling hills in a natural bushland setting.

The Greg Norman-designed championship course has won accolades including consistent top five ratings by publications such as Golf Australia and Australian Golf Digest. See if you agree with the experts when you conquer the par 72 layout over 6505m.

Recognise the classic hallmarks of Greg Norman designs with signature bunkering and a thoughtful integration of existing flora over the course which has two nine-hole loops. www.brookwatergolf.com

You could meet some of Australia's most famous faces at Gainsborough Greens set in 230 hectares of natural beauty.

Here you may well catch a glimpse of Eastern Grey Kangaroos, the Purple Swamphen or even the harmless south-east Queensland Carpet Snake. The course offers the chance to unwind against the beauty of Australian native flora.

www.gainsboroughgreens.com.au

Prestigious northern Gold Coast suburbs showcase a feast of courses at upmarket resorts and properties. What's on the menu?

Sanctuary Cove's award-winning The Palms course is open daily. Use global positioning satellite carts to pinpoint your shots as you drive the ball across the 5833m course with a par 71 and a rating of 70.

Sanctuary Cove's private course, The Pines, is Australia's only Arnold Palmer signature course rated as one of the nation's most challenging. Home to two SKINS tournaments, The Pines is carved through 101 hectares of pine forest over 6681 metres with an AGU rating of 76. You can play when you stay at Hyatt Regency Sanctuary Cove.

Spot kangaroos on The Pines or know that you're following in the footsteps of great players who have tested their skills here – Laura Davies, Tom Watson, Adam Scott and John Daly.

Sanctuary Cove Golf Academy offers a range of tuition packages. Director Steve Darmody is one of only a handful of master club fitters in the world. Current packages include golf coaching, computer analysis, accommodation and a soothing remedial massage. www.sanctuarycove.com

Nearby Hope Island Resort's links-style course was designed by five-times British Open champion Peter Thomson through the team of Thomson, Wolveridge and Perrett. The course has an AGU rating of 74 with an extensive practice facility of putting greens, a driving range and chipping green with bunkers. Resident golf professional Peter Coté has an AAA ranking by the Australian PGA – the highest ranking attainable so you'd better listen to what he says! www.hir.com.au

Leafy suburb Parkwood's 18-hole par 72 course welcomes all levels of play. Take a beginners class or book children to the kids' classes. There's also a pool and tennis court. www.parkwoodgc.com.au

A visit to the Gold Coast may just entice you to become a permanent resident or frequent visitor. If so, then premier private course Arundel Hills Country Club may beckon. The State of the Art Recreation Centre near the Clubhouse is open daily for members and visitors – relax with yoga, saunas and spas, aerobics or Microfit fitness assessments. www.arundelhillscc.com.au

Central areas of the Gold Coast encompass a plethora of golf courses. Play a different course every day. Luxury is assured – operators offer helicopter connections, golf tours or limousine transfers between facilities.

Be pampered at golf resort spas, stay on a luxurious accommodation such as The Lodge @ the glades with 19 luxurious, self-contained executive apartments. www.thegladeslodge.com.au

Life was meant to be easy.

Royal Pines is one of the largest resorts in Queensland and home to the region's only 27-hole composite course. The course has been central to women's golf as home to the ANZ Ladies Masters. This year's event pitted veteran Karrie Webb against 19-year-old Japanese sensation Ai Miyazato and the teenager came out the winner.

Variety is the spice of life. So you'll feel refreshed with the ever-changing combination of course profiles – Aroona (Running Water) framed by the flowing waters of the Nerang River; Binnowee (Green Place) with lush native vegetation and the manicured gardens of the Eastside residential precinct; and Wangara (West Wind) shaped around natural land formations with undulating greens and less-forgiving waterways.

Golf is only the beginning at this Ashmore property. Play one of seven tennis courts, embrace the inner – and fitter you – on the jogging track, stretch out in the large outdoor pool or 25m heated lap pool or flex the muscles on the driving range.

www.royalpines.com.au

Jack Nicklaus is a legend and Lakelands Golf Club is legendary. Australia's only Jack Nicklaus signature course (par 72) has five tee markers from 6492m (black) through to 4685m (yellow). The ClubCorp property offers the Pinehurst Advantage School with PGA Teacher of the Year (1999 and 2003) Mark Gibson.

www.lakelandsgolfclub.com.au

Another leading player, Graham Marsh, is behind the design of Palm Meadows Golf Course close to the Nerang River. Here's a course to challenge your golfing prowess with water impacts on 14 holes and 82 sand bunkers over the par 72, 18-hole course. Dine at The Lakeview Restaurant or head to the Japanese style bathhouse. www.palmmeadows.com.au

Marsh and Watson are behind Robina Woods' design over 65 hectares of fairways and lakes. www.robinawoods.au-golf.net while The Colonial Golf Course (previously Paradise Springs) offers an international standard on this par 72 course of 6424m. www.the-colonial.au-golf.net

For the golf-obsessed, sunset doesn't spell the end of that extra drive. Emerald Lakes Golf Club is the only 36-hole golf course on the Gold Coast with golf under lights – play until 9.30pm seven days a week.

Host to the annual Queensland PGA Championship, the course is the centrepiece of the $750m Emerald Lakes residential development. The Graham Marsh championship course is characterised by expansive fairways, pristine waterways and scenic hinterland backdrops.

Floodlights are installed on the back nine holes creating a par 36 floodlit game. More than 30 drive range bays and two chipping and putting short game areas means you'll not jostling too close to neighbouring golfers. www.emeraldakes.com.au

If you've become accustomed to palatial opulence, then The Villa may hold the trump card. The former private mansion is available for private or conference group hire. A personal caddy service, custom designed three-seat carts with built-in mini bars are just the start.

With exclusive use of The Villa you'll access boardrooms, billiards room, an indoor swimming pool with a formal lunch or gourmet picnic hamper delivered to your buggy. www.thevilla.net.au

And for golf widows – or widowers – there's plenty of inducements to fun with some of Australia's largest and most exciting shopping precincts, wineries, spas and luxurious health clubs and of course, kilometres of sandy open beaches.

Gold Coast's diverse ecology means you can visit World Heritage Listed rainforest, play golf and be back to ocean views and nightlife within the day.

Gold Coast Airport offers international and domestic flights. Carriers include Pacific Blue, Freedom Air, Qantas, Australian Airlines, Jetstar and Virgin Blue.
www.goldcoastairport.com.au or www.flygoldcoast.com.au

Brisbane Airport is within one hour to the north via the Pacific Motorway or Queensland Rail links.

Resistance is useless – you'll have to book your Gold Coast visit once you view Gold Coast Tourism's VeryGC website: www.VeryGC.com

Golf specific information can also be found on Gold Coast Golf Group's website: www.golfonthegoldcoast.com

Townsville does it for divers

Home to the one of the world's best wreck dives, tropical Townsville is a hotspot for those keen to check out the underwater scene.

The Yongala Wreck and Wheeler's Reef are the diving drawcards, and the north Queensland city also offers plenty of après dive experiences, great value accommodation and a year round summer climate to round off the perfect diving holiday.

Located approximately 89km southeast of Townsville, the Yongala Wreck is Australia's most popular dive and one of the world's top 10.

Undiscovered for almost half a century, the coral-encrusted structure attracts a prolific variety of colourful marine life and is an unforgettable swim for novice and experienced divers alike.

Adrenalin Dive (www.adrenalindive.com.au) is one of the local companies specialising in dives to the wreck. The trip out to the Yongala site includes a three hour boat cruise sailing by Magnetic Island, historic lighthouses and the bird colonies of Cape Bowling Green.

Adrenalin Dive owner Paul Crocombe said the wreck offered some of the best dives in the world and some of the cheapest diving around.

"There's always something new to see at Yongala and that's what makes it such a unique experience," said Paul. "Some of the highlights of the wreck would definitely be the toilets and the port holes, which are a window into the marine life."

The perfectly circular Wheeler Reef provides another world-class diving experience a little closer to shore. With almost two square kilometres of crevasses to explore, this isolated reef is surrounded by beautiful white sand stretching into the depths of the Coral Sea. There are spectacular displays of tropical marine life and coral structures for divers to explore as they swim amongst giant morays or reef sharks on this truly magical reef.

Wheeler Reef is also rated as one of the best night dives on the Great Barrier Reef as an array of crustaceans, bull rays, white-tip sharks and eels are all on view.

Townsville diving cruises vary in length from one day to a week, and range in price from $74 to $645. The longer trips combine visits further offshore to the Great Barrier Reef and others head into the Coral Sea.

Magnetic Island is another popular diving destination easily accessible from Townsville. A 25-minute catamaran ride from the mainland will take you to this World Heritage-listed paradise where you can dive straight off the shore.

Other operators in the region offer a complete range of dive experiences.

Barrier Reef Dive Cruise & Travel (www.divecruisetravel.com) offers one-day outer Barrier Reef dive and snorkel trips as well as three-day live-aboard experiences and PADI courses. They also offer white-water rafting on the mighty Tully River.

Specialising in extended diving trips to the Outer Barrier Reef and the Historic SS Yongala Wreck, Pro Dive Townsville (www.prodivetownsville.com.au) also offers a full range of dive courses, from Open Water to Instructor.

Remote Area Dive (www.remoteareadive.com) offers an experience combining diver training with camping safaris on remote, secluded islands and the pristine beaches of Bowen. Focussing on personalised classes, student to instructor ratios are kept to a maximum of five to one.

Great beaches, snorkelling and diving are all on offer with Sunferries, Sunsea Cruises and Sunsea Dive. Lounge on the deck on your way to the Great Barrier Reef with a marine biologist on board.

Family-owned Tropical Diving (www.tropicaldiving.com.au) operates day and live-aboard diving and snorkelling trips to some of the most pristine reefs around. They also have a great variety of PADI courses available.

In less than 40 minutes, Yongala Dive (www.yongaladive.com.au) will transport you to the SS Yongala Wreck - check out the amazing array of sea life and artefacts.

Raising the bar in Brisbane

Cheers to the Belgian Beer Café and the Story Bridge Hotel on their wins in the recent 2005 Australian Hoteliers Awards. They are just the top of the keg when it comes to brilliant bars in Brisbane.

The winners

The Belgian Beer Café Brussels, winner of the Australian Hoteliers Best Bar Presentation and Service Award, is home to one of Brisbane's few inner city beer gardens. Tempt your taste buds at this Edward Street favourite with a great selection of beer including draught, trappist, Belgian and Abbey Ales and fruit beers – apple, strawberry and passionfruit to name a few.

The Story Bridge Hotel, winner of the Best Redeveloped Hotel Award, has undergone a multi-million-dollar facelift. With one of the most unusual locations in the world – under a major city bridge – the hotel is a firm favourite with locals and visitors alike. The refurbishment breathed new life into a WWII bomb shelter, which now houses the popular Shelter Bar, a top spot for a casual meal or drink.

Most alluring

The Lure Lounge at The Coro, Milton, does just that! Be tempted by the bold interior design – it matches with the new look of this now stunning building – and enjoy a cocktail or two, or pre-dinner drinks before savouring the seafood for which the Coro has been famous since the 1970s. Stunning architectural style and amazing lighting have brought the Coro back into everyone's mind.

Watt's the fuss about

The Park Lounge @ Watt enjoys one of the most stunning outlooks in Brisbane. Situated in the Powerhouse on the river at inner city New Farm, it offers one of the best water views around, day and night, and is the perfect place to chill out over a quiet drink and delicious dinner. Great music, stylish surrounds and the river make it well worth the visit.

Rise and shine

The Sunbar, on Brunswick Street in Fortitude Valley, is the place to be seen when the sun sets. Chill out in the restaurant, bar or lounge, sample the extensive wine list, sip a cocktail or relax over a coffee. Open 'til 2am, the Sunbar is an ideal place to meet at night when the sun goes down, or to escape the sun's rays during the day.

Dance grooves

Wanting a bar where you can kick your heels up? Try Barsoma in the (Fortitude) Valley. Work up a thirst with dance lessons in "Salsasoma" and "Funksoma", which are on offer during the week. Come back on the weekend and practice those new dance moves while listening to the visiting DJ and drinking one of their signature cocktails.

Jorge on George

Jorge on George Street in the city is the perfect spot to unwind over a few drinks and enjoy a meal, after a busy day in the office. The central city location allows for easy access after work and it's the perfect meeting place on the weekend before heading out. The Raspberry Vasper cocktail – a mixture of Absolut Raspberry, South Gin & Aperol – makes a great starter.

How zen

Overlooking Anzac and Post Office Squares, the relaxing atmosphere of the Zen Bar provides a great escape from office politics. Whether you're drinking a classic like a whiskey sour, or a deluxe cocktail (Quintessence is a favourite) you're sure to return to work with an enlightened attitude.

On your mark, get set, GO!

Brisbane's premier sports bar, Adrenalin in Charlotte Street, is a great spot to catch a game on any one of the numerous televisions or for a little celebrity spotting as it's a popular watering hole for sports stars for a victory drink after local games. Grab a group of friends for a drink and soak up the atmosphere or challenge them to game of pool and let your competitive side come to the fore.

Rhythm and blues

If you've got the blues or just feel like listening to some, the Bowery bar is the place to get down. Hit a high note with one of their sensational cocktails or kick back and listen to the various jazz acts or DJ's. Located on Ann Street in the V(Fortitude) Valley, the Bowery Bar offers the perfect setting for all cool cats to chill out.

Get your crew together

It's been labelled "the smartest thing to happen to Brisbane in a long time" by reviewers and continues to pull in a strong crowd since its 2003 opening. Wine lovers will adore the Cru Wine Bar with its extensive range of wine, from Australia, New Zealand and France. There's also an extensive cocktail. Grab a crew of your friends and visit this bustling James Street, Fortitude Valley bar.

Fringe benefits

There's no standing on the outer at the Fringe Bar in Fortitude Valley. It's a top spot to catch live local acts on a Thursday or getting "locked in" between 3am and 5am every Friday and Saturday night.

For more information on these and other hot bars and visit www.ourbrisbane.com.au or call 3006 6200.
