Traffic Lights in the City of Hamilton. At most intersections where there are traffic lights, pedestrians do not have the right of way on the crossing except when the green pedestrian light is showing. Pedestrian must push button on light pole for pedestrian green light. For the convenience of the blind, a bell will ring when the pedestrian light turns green. At other pedestrian crossings throughout the Island (marked by zebra stripes across the road), pedestrians do have the right of way and motorised traffic must stop in deference to pedestrians.

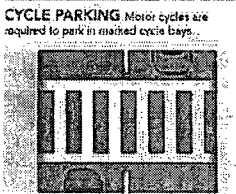

Some Important Traffic Signs

ROUNDABOUTS Traffic procedure: give way to traffic on immediate right.

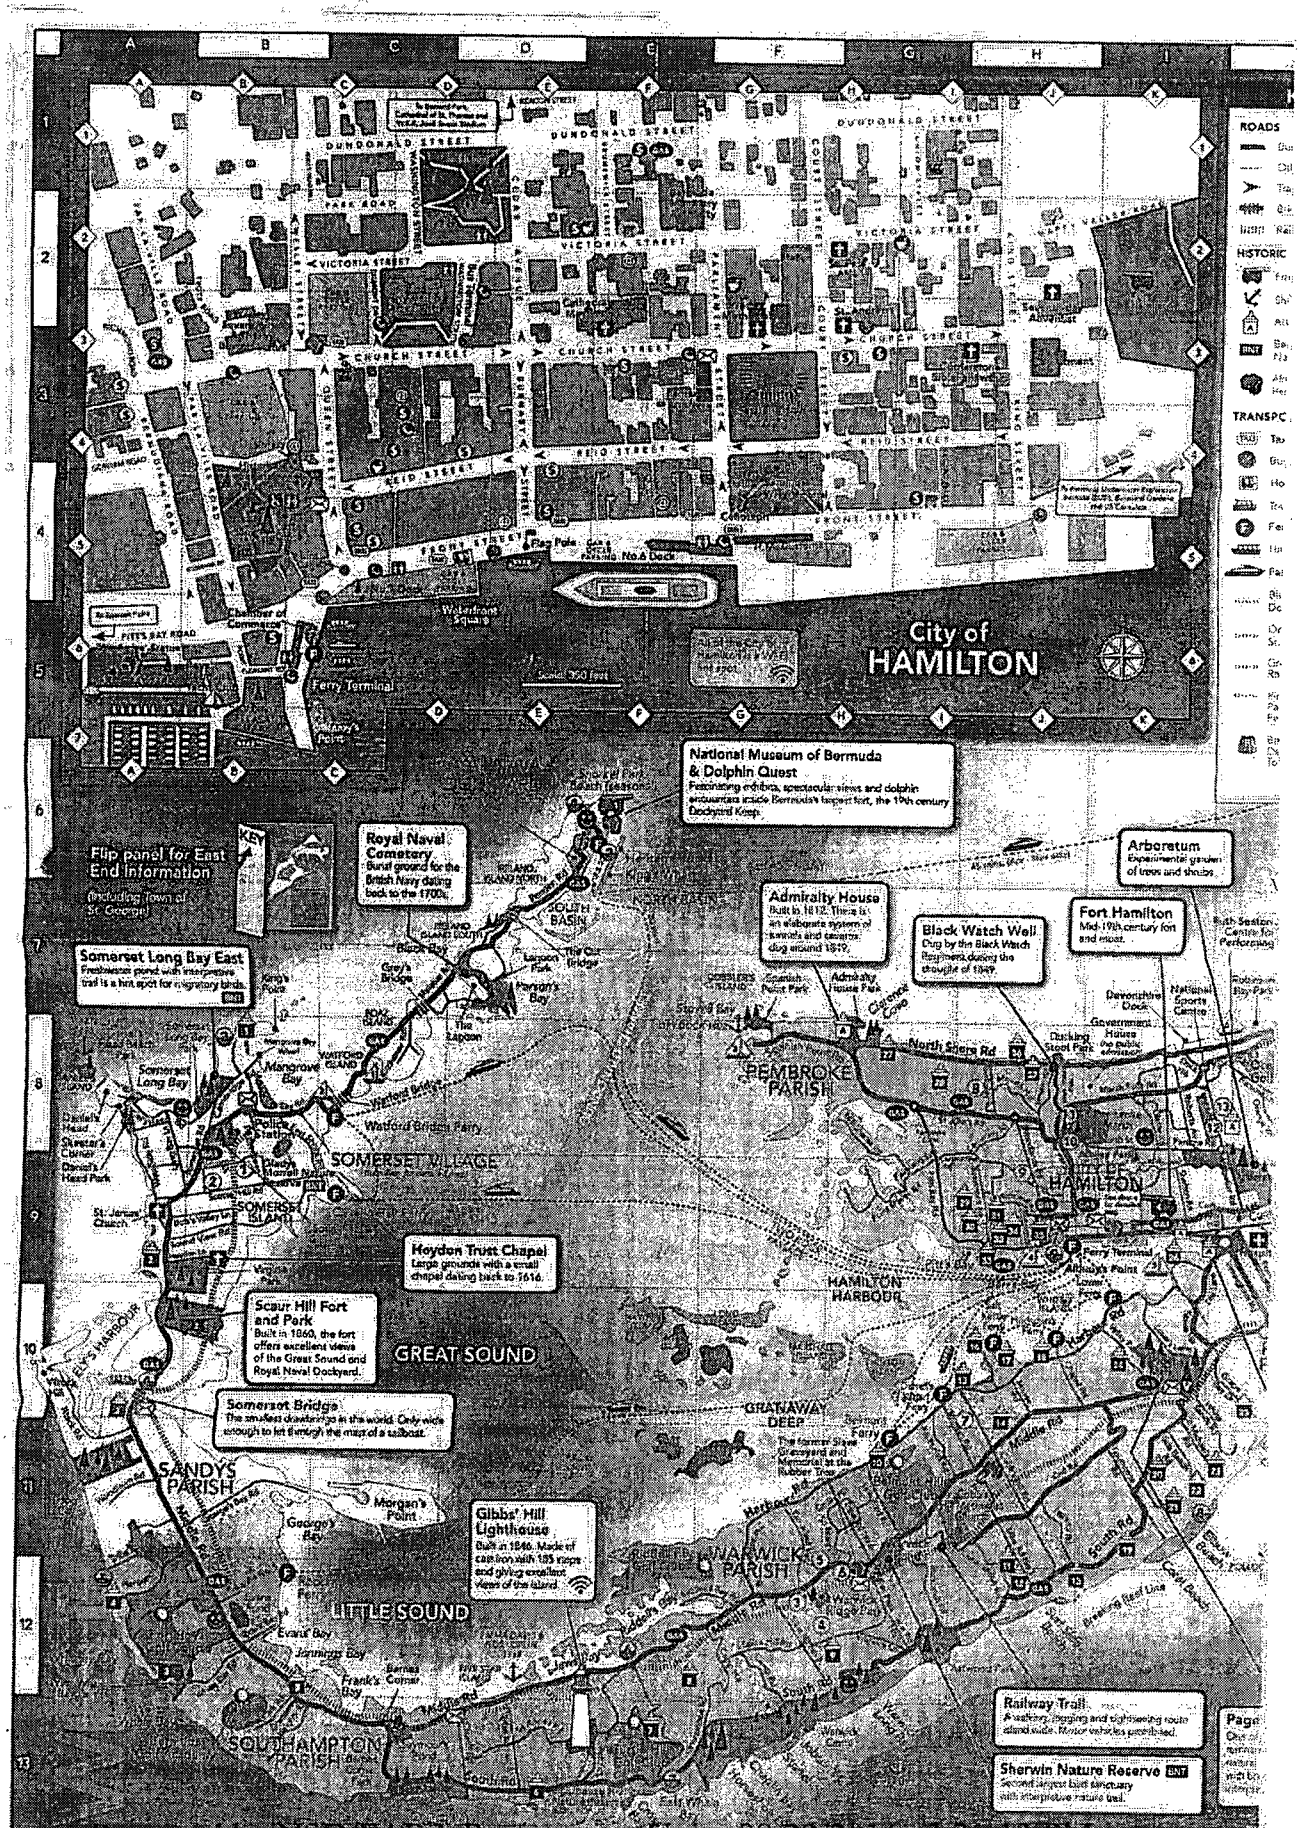

CYCLE PARKING Motor cycles are required to park in marked cycle bays.

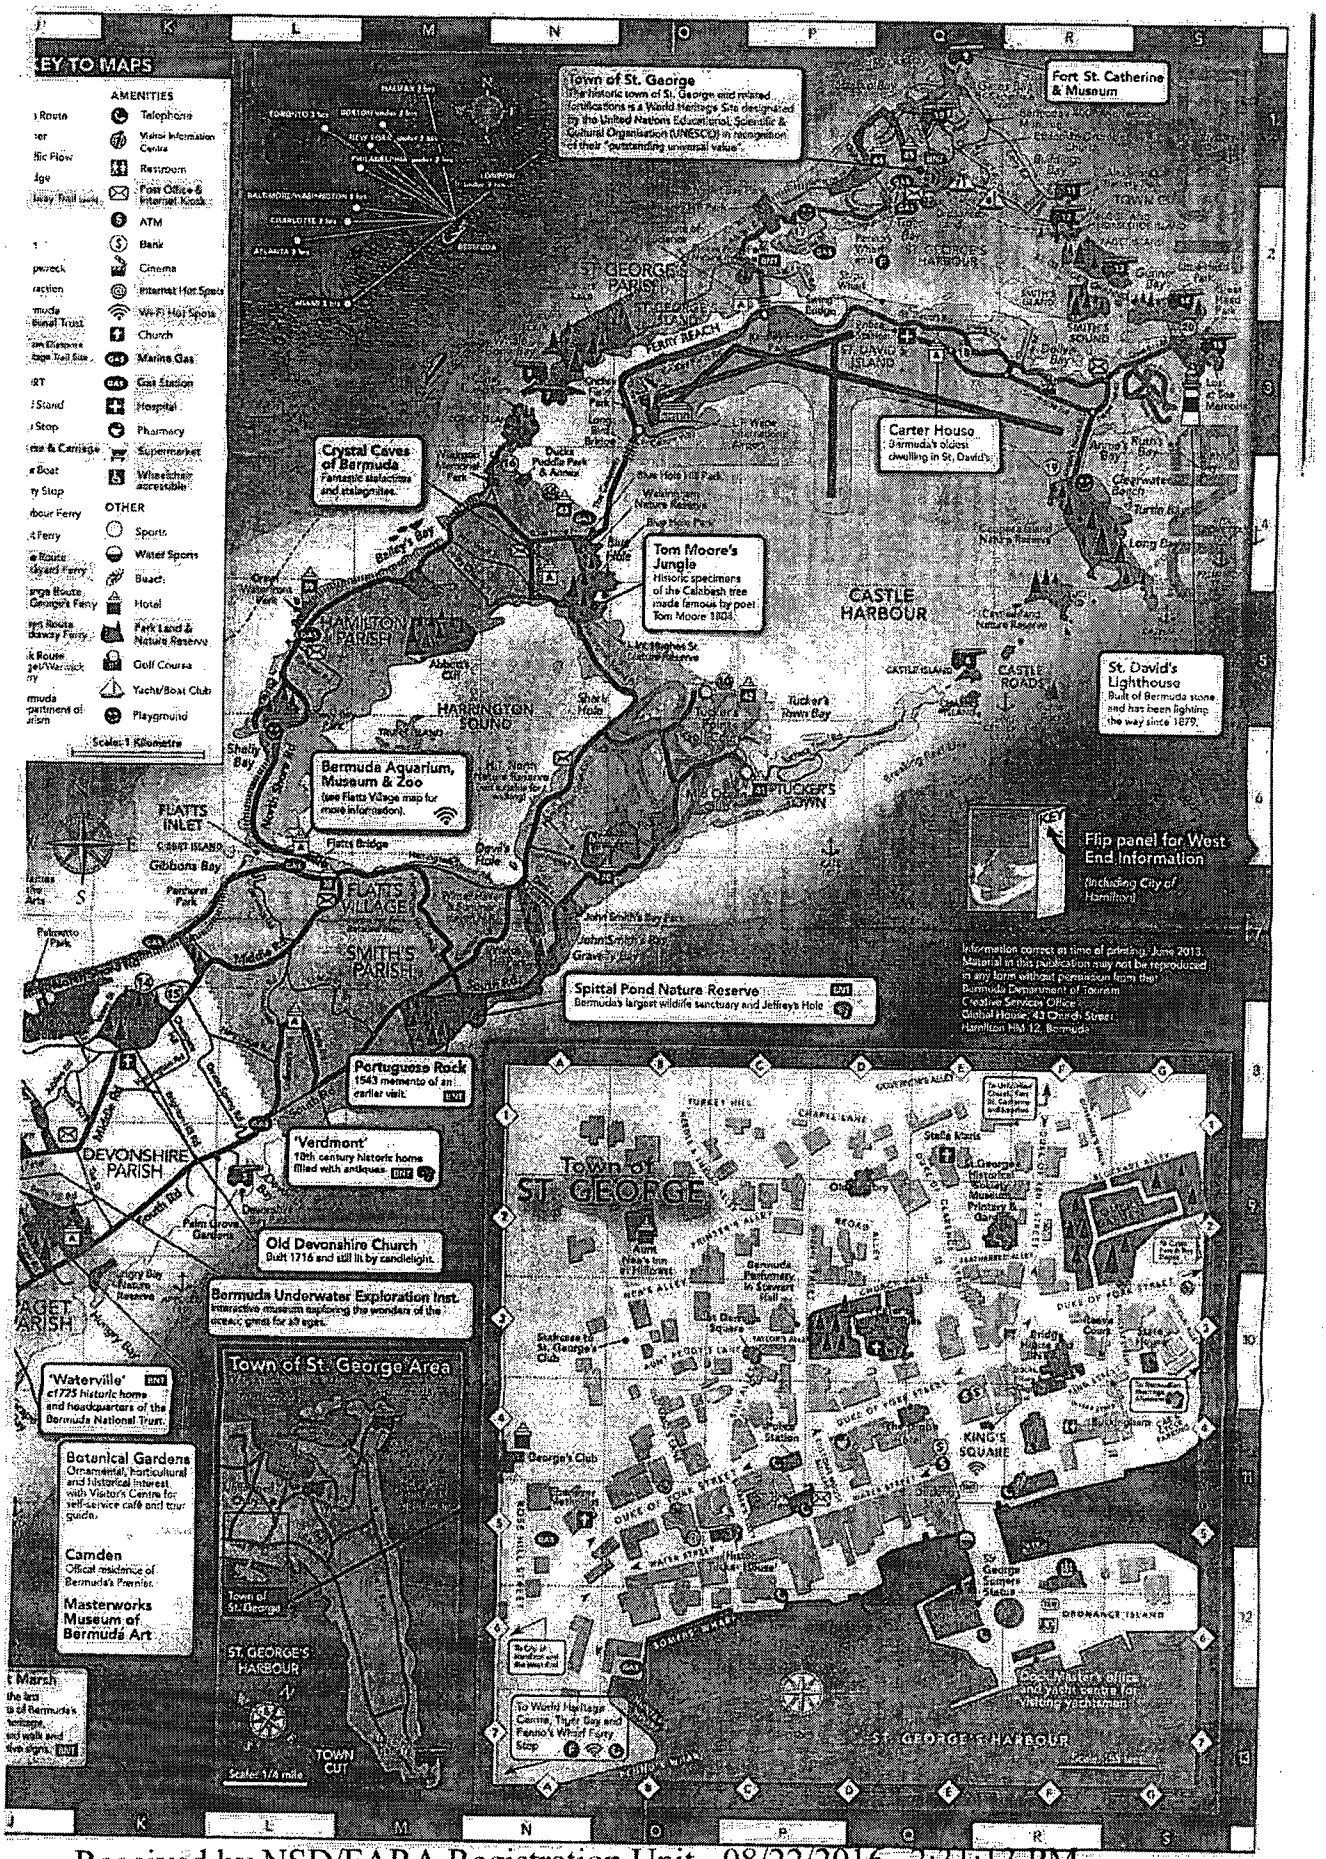

PEDESTRIAN CROSSING Look before stepping out on crosswalk.

MISUSE OF DRUGS ACT

Importation of, possession of, or dealing with unlawful drugs (including marijuana) is an offence. Anyone contravening this Act may be imprisoned or fined heavily, or both. The Government of Bermuda is very concerned about the scourge of drugs and the negative impact it can have on the community. The laws in Bermuda pertaining to the importation of drugs are designed to protect the local people as well as the visitor. We urge visitors not to try to import into these islands any drugs, or any uncustomed goods for that matter, as such action could cause embarrassment at Bermuda's L.F. Wade International Airport or seaports and ruin what should be the start of a very enjoyable holiday. The penalties for smuggling are severe.

Note: Under the Revenue Act Customs Officers may, if they have reasonable cause to suspect the importation of drugs, conduct personal body searches for drugs and other uncustomed goods. Visitors may import doctor prescribed medicines in quantities sufficient for their stay.

FIREARMS ACT

The importation of any firearm, part of a firearm or ammunition into Bermuda is forbidden, except under the authority of a licence granted by the Commissioner of Police. Such a permit will not ordinarily be granted except to visiting rifle club members attending a sports meeting. Spearguns and a variety of weapons are treated as firearms, but antique weapons manufactured over 100 years ago can be imported if the importer can show they are antique. For yachtsmen, under the terms of this Act, a Very pistol or signal gun are classed as firearms.

It is a serious criminal offence to import firearms or ammunition into Bermuda without a licence, and anyone seeking to do so may be imprisoned or fined.

CLIMATE

Bermuda is a sub-tropical island about 650 miles (1046 kilometres) east of Cape Hatteras, North Carolina. The Gulf Stream which flows between Bermuda and the North American continent provides the Island with two seasons, Spring and Summer, neither being too hot or too cold.

Weather Observations Average conditions.
Source: Bermuda Weather Service.

Bermuda has no rainy season as such and there is no normal month of excess rain. Showers may be heavy at times but the skies usually clear quickly. The weather does not often interfere with the enjoyment of outdoor sports and recreation. Summer temperatures prevail from May to mid-November, with the warmest weather in July, August and September.

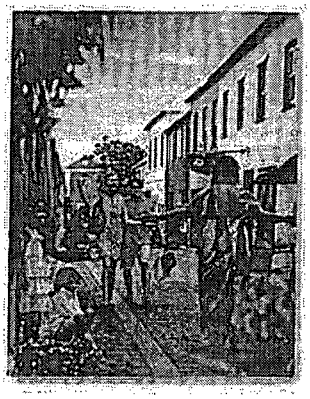

The thermometer rarely rises above 85° F (29.5°C) – perfect for swimming and all water sports. The monthly average relative humidity ranges between 70% and 85%. There is nearly always a cool breeze at night and all accommodations have air-conditioners or ceiling fans. Spring-like temperatures give us cooler weather from mid-December to late March, with average high temperatures near 68° F (20°C). The months of December and January provide ideal conditions for scuba diving and golf.

Changes of Season: from mid-November through December and late March through April, either Spring or Summer weather may occur and visitors should be prepared for both.

The threat from hurricanes cannot be discounted, but since Bermuda is a small target most storms brush by and only bring highwinds and some surf. For climatological information visit www.weather.bm.

CLOTHING

The atmosphere in Bermuda's visitor accommodations, and indeed of Bermuda itself, is one of British reserve and dignified informality. Therefore, there are certain 'customs of dress' which you will want to know.

Dress Code As a rule of thumb, dress conservatively. Bathing suits, abbreviated tops and short shorts are not acceptable except at beaches and pools. There are no nude or semi-nude beaches. In public (including public areas of hotels) beach wear must be covered. Bare feet are not acceptable anywhere in public.

Casual Sportswear is acceptable in restaurants at lunch time but some restaurants and nightclubs in and out of hotels may request gentlemen to wear a jacket and tie in the evenings. It is best to check on dress requirements when making reservations as most places do have casual evenings periodically.

Formal Dress is not necessary except for specific personal needs. Tuxedos, morning suits and evening tails may be rented, but accessories must be purchased.

Warmer Months from May to mid-November. Summer-weight sports clothes, swimsuits, a raincoat or light weight wind breaker. Evenings – casual elegant cottons: ladies, light dressy sweater or wrap and cocktail-type outfits; gentlemen, a sports jacket and tie.

Cooler Months from December to late March. Light woollens or fall-weight casuals, sweaters, raincoat and warmer jacket, wind breaker or coat, with swimsuit for warmer days. Evenings – casual elegant, lightweight woollens; ladies, dressier sweater or wrap and cocktail-type outfits; gentlemen, a suit or sports jacket and tie.

Changes of Season from mid-November through December and late-March through April. Either Spring or Summer weather may occur and a combination of the two above suggestions should be ideal.

SHOPPING

Shopping is excellent and interesting in Bermuda. You'll find a great variety of imported merchandise such as French perfumes, English bone china, Swiss watches, Danish silver and jewellery, cameras, Irish linen, Scottish tweeds, Italian silks, cashmere sweaters, leather goods, liquor and liqueurs, and dozens of other intriguing values.

There are lots of Bermuda-made articles including handcrafts, pottery, cedarware, blown glass, fashions and paintings by local artists. Browsing through picturesque shops will bring surprises, good values and many souvenirs. Bathing suits, sports clothes and sun straws are other good buys and perhaps more fun to get while you're in Bermuda.

VISITORS' DUTY FREE ALLOWANCES: USA, CANADA AND UK

Visitors to Bermuda are permitted to take back merchandise, duty free.

US Customs and Border Protection has a preclearance facility in the L.F. Wade International Airport. All passengers departing to the US must fill out written declaration forms in Bermuda before clearing US Customs and Border Protection. These forms are available at travel agencies and airlines at the L.F. Wade International Airport in Bermuda.

US Citizens' Allowance (visit www.cbp.gov/xp/cgov/travel) $800 after 48 hours and every 30 days (exemption includes 200 cigarettes, 100 non-Cuban cigars).

Canadian Citizens' Allowance (visit www.cbsa-asfc.gc.ca) $200 after 24 hours any time, $400 after 48 hours any time or 7 days any time.

UK Citizens' Allowance (visit www.hmrc.gov.uk) £390 – Full value will be charged on goods over this value.

Note: Plant materials which will propagate are not permitted entry without prior permission from your own country. Also, it is advisable to check your own liquor laws before coming to Bermuda.

Remember, there is nothing to stop anyone from buying more than their duty free allowance. The duty you pay is often very reasonable and makes it worthwhile.

Bermuda's Next Chapter

For over four centuries, the mystique that is Bermuda has been evolving, with each generation adding its own tales to the story. Now there's an exciting new chapter being written as Bermuda becomes Home of the 35th America's Cup.

In June 2017 the best sailors in the world will convene in Bermuda for the 35th America's Cup, presented by Louis Vuitton. The pinnacle of international sailing, the America's Cup has generated intense excitement-and fierce rivalries- for more than 160 years. Now, for the first time, this premier event will take place in Bermuda an island founded on a legacy of sailing.

Bermuda will also host the Louis Vuitton America's Cup World Series race event October 16-18, 2015. The World Series is the first stage of competition when all of the America's Cup teams compete hoping to earn points that will advance them to the Finals in 2017.

Bermuda's sailing legacy is integral to the history of our island. We were founded in 1609 by the surviving sailors of the shipwrecked Sea Venture, and sailing is how we have thrived. In fact, Bermudians invented the Bermuda rig, which is still used in 95% of all sailing yachts today.

Location and Geography

While many believe Bermuda to be part of the Caribbean, the island actually rests 774 miles south east of New York, in an astoundingly beautiful stretch of the Atlantic.

All of Bermuda fits in a cozy 21 square miles (54 sq km)

We boast 75 miles (120km) of dramatic coastline

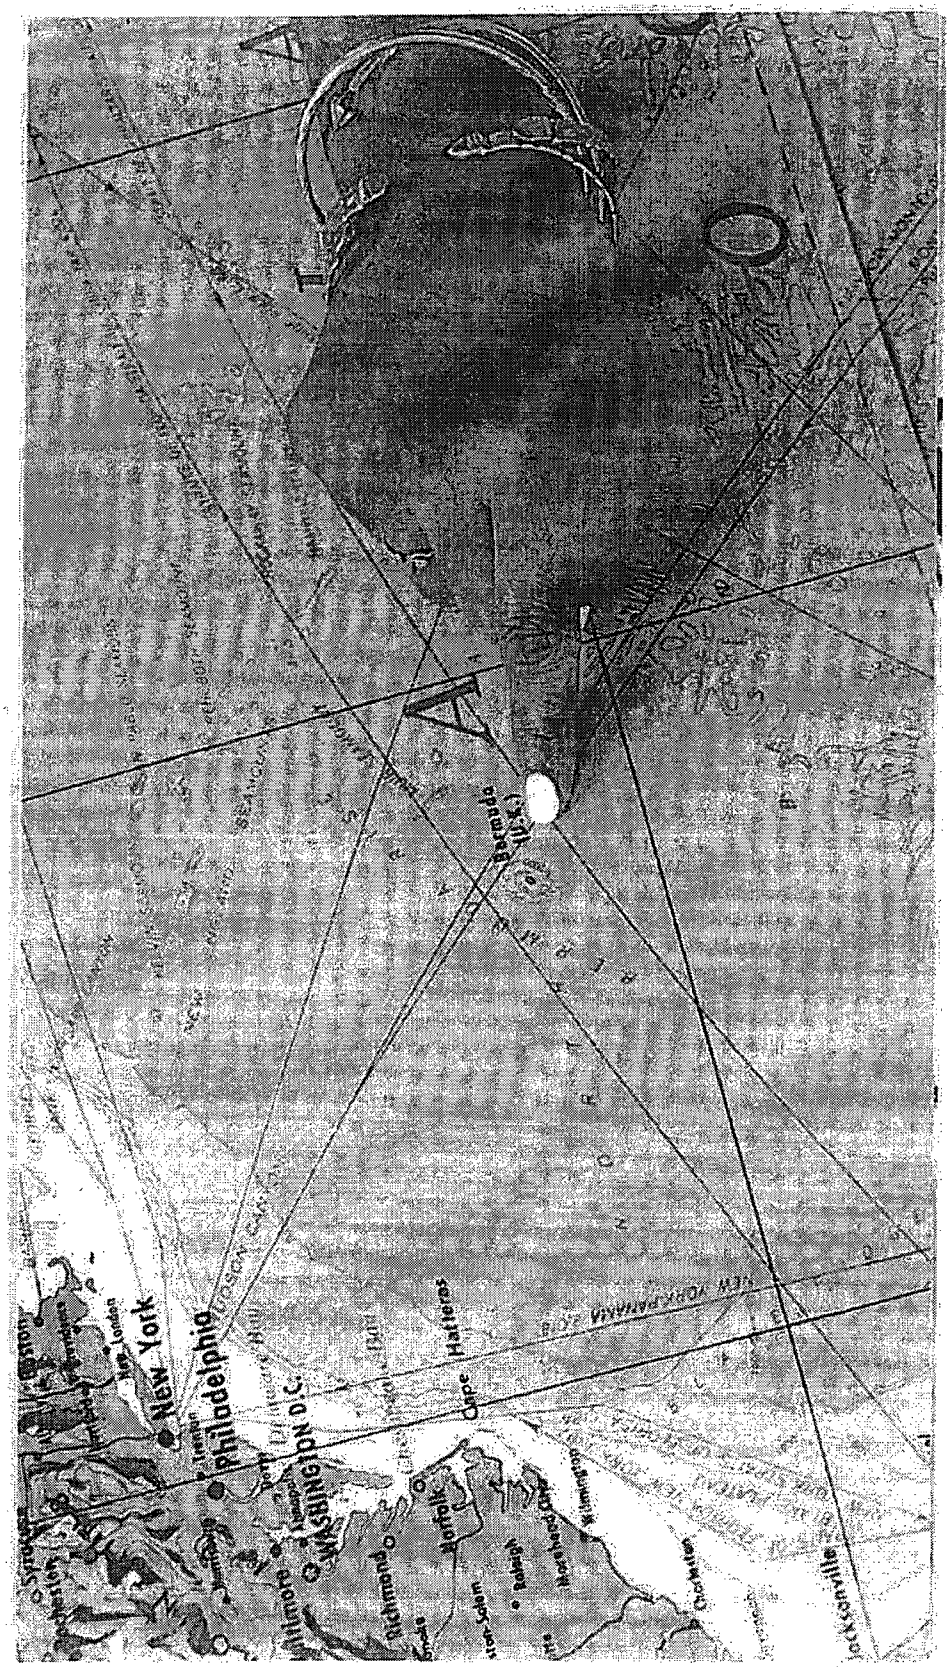

Bermuda may seem like one continuous landmass to visitors, but is actually made up of 181 islands, islets and rocks. Most of these are uninhabited, but eight of the larger ones are linked by bridges and one causeway that form a subtropical paradise visitors cannot resist

Our unique location in the Atlantic provides us with an extraordinary pleasant climate that rarely sees extremes of either hot or cold

The island's pink beaches are actually a combination of crushed coral, calcium carbonate and the shells of tiny single-celled animals called Foraminifera

18 Holes placed perilously close to the ocean heighten the challenge at this golf course. Since 1922, golfers have marveled at the accuracy requirements of this picturesque tight course designed by Devereux Emmet. The course is built on a 600 acre peninsula with water in view on many holes. These scenic links provide the golfer with a magnificent challenge for his or her game and camera.

A Satisfying Food Culture

A BLENDED HERITAGE AND ACCESS TO PRIME SEAFOOD DEFINE BERMUDA'S CULINARY TRADITIONS.

The flavours of Bermuda blend culinary influences, ingredients and techniques from the British, Portuguese, Caribbean and West African. The result of this unique cultural mix is Bermudian cuisine. Fish is a staple – especially wahoo and rockfish, but also mahi mahi, yellowfin tuna and snapper. Experience a "catch and cook," where you go fishing with locals, clean and cook your catch, and then dive into a delicious, satisfying feast. On land, Bermuda's food is equally fresh: gardens, markets and farms supply produce and all-natural meat and poultry. Traditional dishes include the codfish breakfast (boiled cod, potatoes and onions served with sliced banana, hard-boiled egg and avocado), fish chowder, fish sandwiches, spiny lobster and rum cake. Our renowned chefs are masters at putting inventive twists on the classics. Sample their work while enjoying our famous cocktails: the Dark 'n Stormy® and Rum Swizzle. Be sure to check out food events, including Restaurant Weeks in January/February and the City Food Festival in April.

Blushing Beaches

THE ISLAND IS HOME TO DOZENS OF BEACHES, MANY OF THEM TOP-RATED. HERE ARE A FEW HIGHLIGHTS, FROM SWEEPING CRESCENTS OF PINK SAND TO SECLUDED, ROCKY COVES.

HORSESHOE BAY
South Shore, Southampton

Set foot on Horseshoe Bay and you'll realize why it's such a celebrated beach. The long, wide ribbon of pink sand makes it a popular choice any time of year. In the summer, lifeguards patrol and the nearby Beach House offers snacks, rentals and changing facilities.

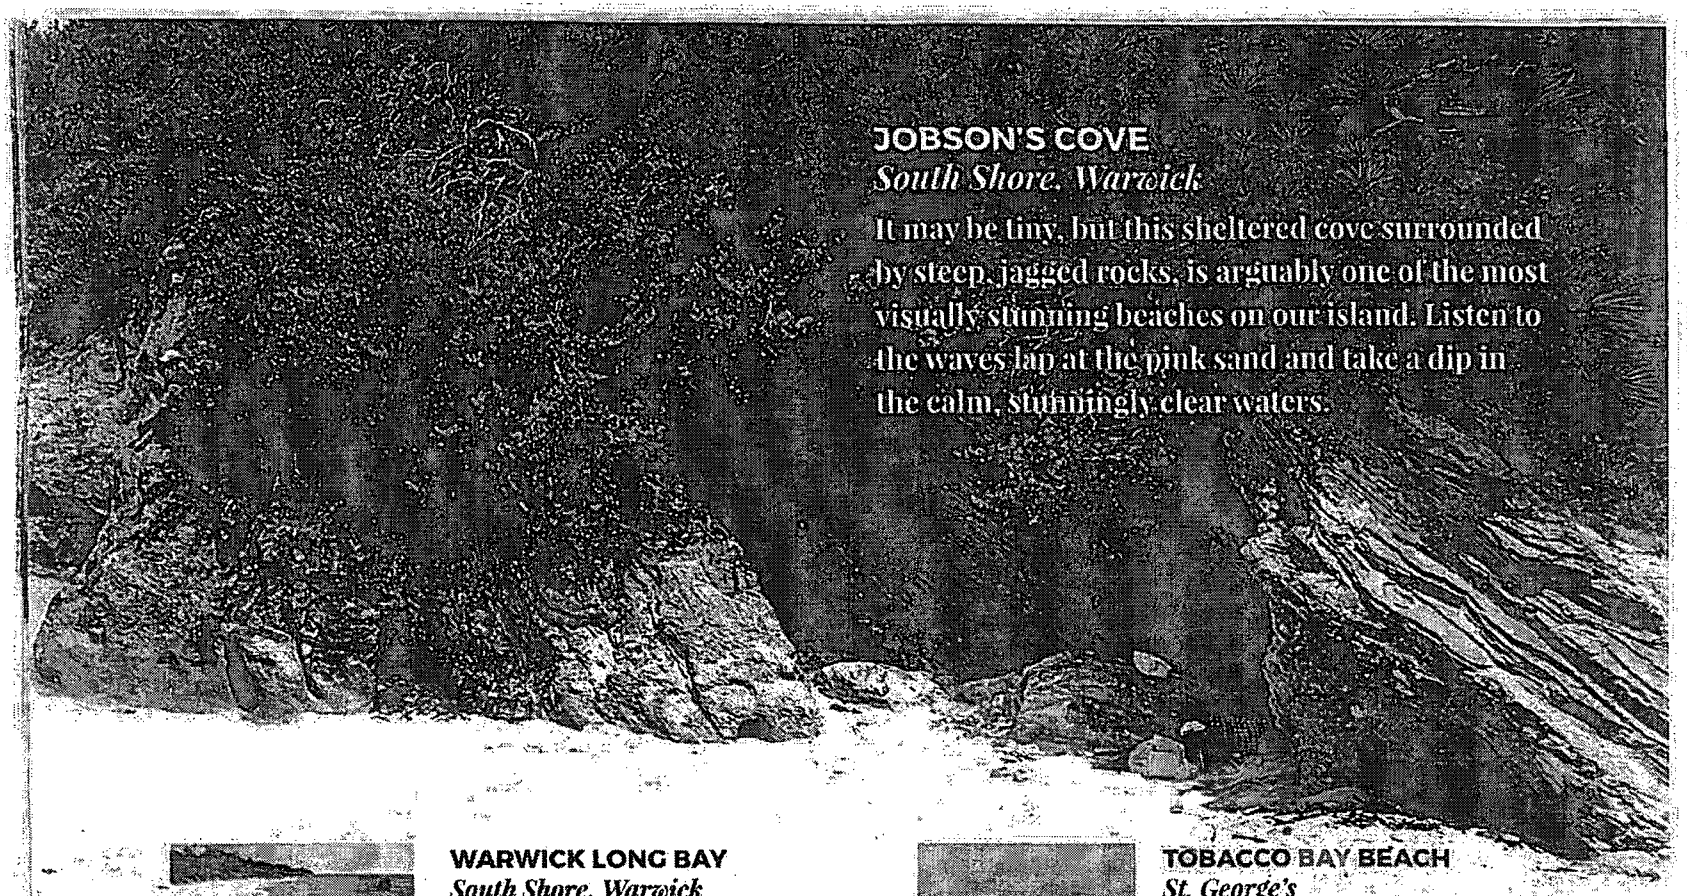

CLEARWATER BEACH & TURTLE BAY
St. David's Island, St. George's

These two spacious, sandy beaches are ideal for families and parties. Enjoy nature trails, playground equipment and views of outer islands reserved for wildlife. A convenient beach house is open during summer.

JOBSON'S COVE
South Shore, Warwick

It may be tiny, but this sheltered cove surrounded by steep, jagged rocks, is arguably one of the most visually stunning beaches on our island. Listen to the waves lap at the pink sand and take a dip in the calm, stunningly clear waters.

WARWICK LONG BAY
South Shore, Warwick

Warwick Long Bay, Bermuda's longest shoreline, offers an idyllic 0.8 km / 0.5 mile stretch of sand against a backdrop of scrubland and coastal grasses. Just offshore, a jagged coral island floats above the water. Public restrooms are available here.

TOBACCO BAY BEACH
St. George's

Clear, shallow waters make this beach perfect for families and inexperienced swimmers. It's also an excellent spot for snorkelling. Rocks surround the bay, attracting blue angelfish and four-eyed butterfly fish. Soak up our island vibe at one of the regular bonfire parties.

BERMUDA

Although 'La Bermuda' appeared on a map of the world as early as 1511, it was known to early explorers as 'The Isle of Devils'. Many a Spanish galleon plying the routes from Cartagena to Cadiz foundered upon the reefs surrounding Bermuda. Survivors brought home tales of terror, shrieking phantasms and mysterious storms.

Bermuda was eventually settled by a fortuitous accident. The Sea Venture, bound for the struggling colony Jamestown, Virginia, under the command of Admiral Sir George Somers, wrecked here in 1609 in "a dreadful storme...an Hell of Darkness", wrote a member of the Sea Venture in his diary. The shipwrecked adventurers found Bermuda anything but forbidding. Eventually, most of them pressed on to Virginia, but for Bermuda it was the beginning of settlement.

Bermuda is a sub-tropical archipelago warmed by the Gulf Stream. Legend has it that there are 365 islands, one for each day of the year, but in truth it is comprised of 181 named islands, islets and rocks. It has been a destination for the pleasure bound ever since Princess Louise set foot here over a century ago. Bermuda lies just 650 miles off the coast of North Carolina and is easily reached in two hours from the East Coast cities of New York, Boston, Washington D.C. and Charlotte, NC. It is two and a half hours from Atlanta and Toronto and seven hours from London, England.

American humorist Mark Twain, a frequent visitor to Bermuda, may have been correct when he claimed that it was the "right country for a jaded man to loaf in". It would take great determination, however, to resist all there is to do in Bermuda.

CAPTURE

BERMUDA

BERMUDA RANKS as one of the more remote islands in the world, it is either second or third in the list—a point for discussion with those 'Tommy-know-it-alls' who enjoy a good debate. Certainly, it is one of the most beautiful places in the world; those from all walks of life have confirmed this point since the late 18th century, when Bermuda began attracting visitors to our far-flung shores.

The Island is located in the Atlantic Ocean on the same latitude as Cape Hatteras, North Carolina, just 650 miles off the Eastern seaboard. Warmed by the waters of the Gulf Stream, Bermuda is a sub-tropical island with lush vegetation; the seasonal rainfall and a stable water table provide sufficient water to support a relatively dense growth accented by splashes of glorious colour.

In the beginning, Bermuda was a farming and fishing community, well known for its exports of the Easter Lily and the Bermuda onion. This lucrative trade came to an end in the 1930's. However, Bermudians are enterprising and resilient; everything we build, make or create performs a double duty; even our outgoing nature is a direct spin-off from our isolation.

We enjoy a good time and some say we are born entertainers: we love an audience. Street festivals are a weekly event in the summer; the friendly atmosphere is truly contagious. The venues hosting these events are significant areas that you will likely become familiar with during your daytime sightseeing and shopping activities as they are transformed to the lively street festivals in the evening and include the Royal Naval Dockyard in the west end of the Island, the Town of St. George in the east end and the City of Hamilton, our capital city. Get into the rhythm and beat of Calypso, Reggae, Jazz and African dance groups while you take in the music, art, food and fun. Review the schedule for these street festivals in the Bermuda Department of Tourism's brochure available island-wide or check your concierge or the Visitor Information Centres for details.

During the festive holiday season, visitors will be spoiled for choices, a slate of sporting events fill the days and cultural events dominate in the evenings. Talent is never in short supply—we may be small, but we are good. Dates for voice and music recitals are dotted throughout the holiday calendar. And, the new wave of youthful playwrights and actors inject a fresh 'buzz' and energy into this vibrant cultural scene.

The New Year makes its entrance to exuberant fanfare. From end to end the Island celebrates the countdown to the midnight hour. Step out in old St. George's, party on Front Street in the City of Hamilton or join the festivities at one of our premier hotels. The night is built around great music, lively entertainment and our own brand of fun. The sunrise send off is an island tradition: a hearty breakfast of codfish, potatoes with a side of bananas—Bermuda's favourite since the early 1600's.

Wake up to a Bermuda-full day and watch the Island arise—it is a chocolate box scene that owes much to the Island's architecture. The white roofs are a work of art and a practical water catchment for household water that are kept white and clean; the rainwater runs off into the gutters, down into a tank or cistern under the building which also acts as a solid base for a solidly built structure.

Architects and builders take pride in continuing our architectural legacy. The handsome details of eyebrows, shutters, hipped roofs and welcoming arms steps are not just so many 'frills' on the birthday cake but are necessary to alleviate the wear and tear of our sub-tropical climate.

The Bermuda National Trust's museum houses and other 'show' houses are a 'must see' for anyone interested in the Island's architecture. Because shipwrights built the first houses and did not know how to construct ceilings, the roof was exposed and had supporting beams, a method of construction that is still popular. One of the best and oldest examples of an 'open beamed' ceiling is St. Peter's, Their Majesties Chappell in St. George's—the oldest Anglican church in continuous use outside of the British Isles.

Back then, slaves and free Blacks had an important part in building our early rambling homes. Many were taught their trade by travelling master craftsmen from overseas who left the cornerstone of a design legacy behind. The well-trained Bermuda slaves and indentured servants became master builders who were a valuable asset to their owners. After Emancipation in 1834, the free men filled paid positions in growing local industries. It was a time of great change for Bermuda as well as a time of economic growth.

There is a long and full story to be recounted here. The Bermudian masters were often very wealthy; they owned ships and sailed up and down the Atlantic coast with a crew that included their own slaves. The slaves that remained here at home worked the owner's land, planting bananas, potatoes, corn, pumpkins and onions. Other slaves were sent down to Turks and Caicos Islands to work the salt mines—then a highly lucrative business for their masters.

Bermuda's African Diaspora Heritage Trail (ADHT) is an officially designated UNESCO Slave Route; it plays an extraordinary role in conserving and celebrating the origins of African descent, culture and history in Bermuda. There are more than fourteen sites across the Island that are suitably marked. Visitors should visit them to appreciate the story of our past and to better understand our Island today.

EVENTS
& ENTERTAINMENT

FOR SOME PEOPLE, one of the best things Bermuda has to offer is the opportunity to do nothing. Breakfast, a morning exploring the Town of St. George, a languid lunch, an afternoon at the beach and then a beautiful dinner overlooking the ocean. A stroll to wind down the day—what could be a greater contrast to the stress-driven life? Others, however, are not happy unless they're in motion more or less all the live-long day. For them, Bermuda is a great place too.

Here are the highlights of our busy, busy year: in January and February, the Bermuda Festival of the Performing Arts brings some of the world's greatest actors, musicians and entertainers to the Island. The Bermuda Regional Bridge Tournament and the Bermuda Marathon Weekend keep the Island buzzing.

In March, we host the Bermuda International Film Festival and a visit from the Harvard Hasty Pudding Theatricals troupe. In April, don't miss our Easter kite-flying and the three-day Agricultural Exhibition.

May is Heritage Month. We have a one-day Open House and Garden Party, an End-to-End Walk, a Bermuda Day Parade and endless festivities.

June sees the Queen's Birthday Parade and the Native Bermuda Festival. July is famous worldwide for Cup Match, the two-day cricket match and endless party that defines our island home (some years held early August).

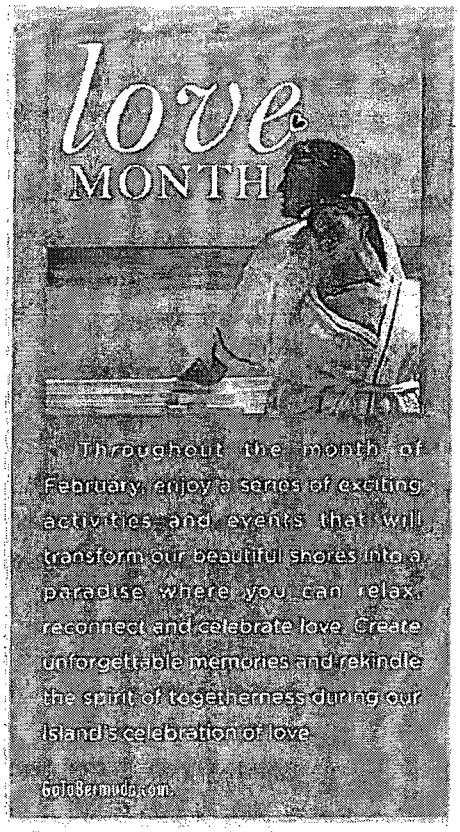

In August, as you'd expect, we're on the water. The Non-Mariners' Race is a fun event, as are the more upright Bermuda fitted dinghy races ending the month with a sand sculpting competition. The fun and excitement continues in September with numerous golf tournaments.

October brings the PGA Grand Slam of Golf and the Argo Group Gold Cup Yacht Match Racing. In November, we host the World Rugby Classic, the SheRox Triathlon and the Goslings Invitational. The Bermuda Goodwill Golf Tournament kicks off December. Christmas in Bermuda is a magical time with all sorts of seasonal events including a boat parade and sensational New Year's Eve activities in both the Town of St. George and City of Hamilton.

So much to do, so little time!

PRISTINE
GOLF COURSES

For nearly a century, Bermuda has been well established as a golfer's paradise—our golf courses have been the winter home to thousands of visitors particularly from the United States, Canada, Great Britain and Europe. Today, with the growth of the cruise industry in the summer the Bermuda golf season is truly year round.

To complement our twelve month golf season, Bermuda has seven outstanding golf courses: Port Royal, Turtle Hill, Riddell's Bay, Belmont Hills, Ocean View, Mid Ocean Club and Tucker's Point, together with a fine driving range facility, the Bermuda Golf Academy. Each course offers varying degrees of difficulty but all of our golf courses can claim that they offer the most spectacular views available anywhere to enjoy. Moreover, Bermuda remains in the forefront within the golfing world and has played host to the prestigious professional golf season finale seen by millions around the world—the PGA Grand Slam of Golf at Port Royal Golf Course, featuring the winners of the four major championships: the Masters, US Open, British Open and the PGA Championship of the golf year. Ironically, Bermuda was a pioneer in the world of televised golf when the Mid Ocean Club hosted the prestigious World Championship Golf Series in 1959, the infamous match between Sam Snead and Mason Rudolph.

In recent years, the majority of Bermuda's golf courses have invested millions of dollars upgrading. The outstanding golf course architect Roger Rulewich not only upgraded Tucker's Point Club from the world famous Castle Harbour, he also remodelled Port Royal, the Robert Trent Jones Sr. masterpiece that he presided over in 1970. In addition, the Mid Ocean Club invested significantly in its golf course in recent years, as did Belmont Hills whose 5,500 yard course Par 70 underwent a transformation to create target golf and undulating greens that make shot selection, course management and putting a premium. Bermuda's oldest golf course is Riddell's Bay, a classic seaside layout with a Scottish flavour. Turtle Hill is considered the finest Par 3 course anywhere and the government owned Ocean View Golf Course is an historic 9-hole golf course considered a national treasure.

Bermuda's championship golf courses Port Royal Golf Course, Mid Ocean Club and Tucker's Point in their present and previous forms, are world class golf facilities who have played host to the greats of the game past and present.

We invite you to come visit Bermuda and play our wide variety of pristine golf courses with spectacular views that will make your golf experience memorable.

BLUSHING

BEACHES

NORTH, SOUTH, EAST, WEST Bermuda's countless beaches dot the coast line, the sands varying in colour form soft white to blushing pink. Many of them, particularly on the South Shore, allow easy access to the reef line, making them ideal for scuba diving and snorkelling since the reef is home to a myriad of colourful fish. Beaches range from tiny, picturesque coves, ideal for young or inexperienced swimmers and for romantic moonlight picnics, to long stretches of creamy pink sands framed by dramatic formations of limestone rock. The ocean's colours are a profusion of contrasts and a continual challenge to artists longing to capture the constant play of light and shadow. On bright, sunny days you'll see the ocean's emeralds and turquoises, sapphires and diamonds, but in the half light of early morning you'll see soft shimmering silk meeting the horizon in a shroud of mist. And from February to October watch out for beautiful longtail birds swooping in and out of the coastline's cliffs.

Spend a day at the beach and you'll be joining the locals in one of their most loved activities. Traditionally, they start their swimming season on the May 24 public holiday. But during the cooler months of November through April the water is still temperate.

HOW TO GET THERE

You can hire a motor scooter, take a taxi, ferry or the bus since many bus stops are near the beaches. The bus and ferry schedules are available island wide, and they are also found in the telephone directory.

SAFETY TIPS

Some of the South Shore beaches are occasionally subject to rip tides. Should you be caught in one, do not try to cross it. Instead, let the current carry you and swim parallel to the shore so that you can catch the waves that will take you back to the shore. Watch out for beach flags. A white one means a lifeguard is on duty. A red one means the currents are too dangerous for safe swimming. A yellow one warns of the need for caution in heavy surf.

Do not swim alone, especially on the South Shore beaches.

ETIQUETTE No nude swimming or sunbathing is allowed on any of Bermuda's public beaches. For an up-to-date listing of our pink sand beaches, please visit GoToBermuda.com/what-to-do/activities/beaches/

WEST WHALE BAY BEACH

SOUTH SHORE, SOUTHAMPTON

West Whale Bay Beach has a fitting name because in April you may see humpback whales migrating north to their summer feeding grounds. The large grassy area behind the beach is an ideal spot to enjoy a stunning ocean sunset. Locals frequently use West Whale Bay for shore fishing.

CHURCH BAY

SOUTH SHORE, SOUTHAMPTON

Church Bay arguably offers the best snorkelling experience since a large variety of fish can be seen in and around the boiler reefs.

HORSESHOE BAY

SOUTH SHORE, SOUTHAMPTON

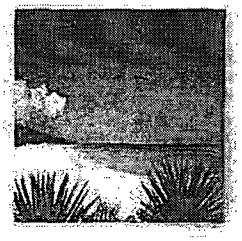

Once you set foot on Horseshoe Bay you will realize why it is our most celebrated beach. The long, sweeping crescent of pink sand makes it a popular choice any time of year. During the summer months, lifeguards patrol and the nearby Beach House offers snacks, rentals and changing facilities.

JOBSON'S COVE

SOUTH SHORE, WARWICK

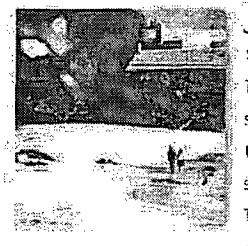

Jobson's Cove may be tiny, but this sheltered cove, surrounded by steep, jagged rocks, is arguably one of the most visually stunning beaches on our island. Take a moment to listen to the waves lap at the pink sand and put your feet in the calm, stunningly clear waters.

WARWICK LONG BAY

SOUTH SHORE, WARWICK

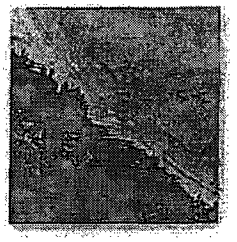

Warwick Long Bay boasts an .8km / .5 mile stretch of sand against a backdrop of scrubland and coastal grasses. Just offshore, a jagged coral island floats above the water. There are also public restrooms here.

JOHN SMITH'S BAY

SOUTH SHORE, SMITH'S PARISH

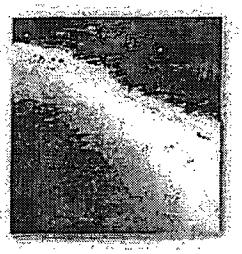

This superb beach is long, flat and boasts the pale pink sand that makes our South Shore so famous. During the summer months, lifeguards patrol the shore and soft drinks and snacks are often available for purchase. There are public toilets on site.

SHELLY BAY

NORTH SHORE, HAMILTON PARISH

You will discover calm waters and soft pink sand at this attractive beach. Trees line the beach offering shelter from the sun. The water is very shallow, even at high tide, making it perfect for children. A refurbished children's playground makes Shelly Bay an ideal spot for a full day of activities near the water.

CLEARWATER BEACH & TURTLE BAY

ST. DAVID'S ISLAND, ST. GEORGE'S

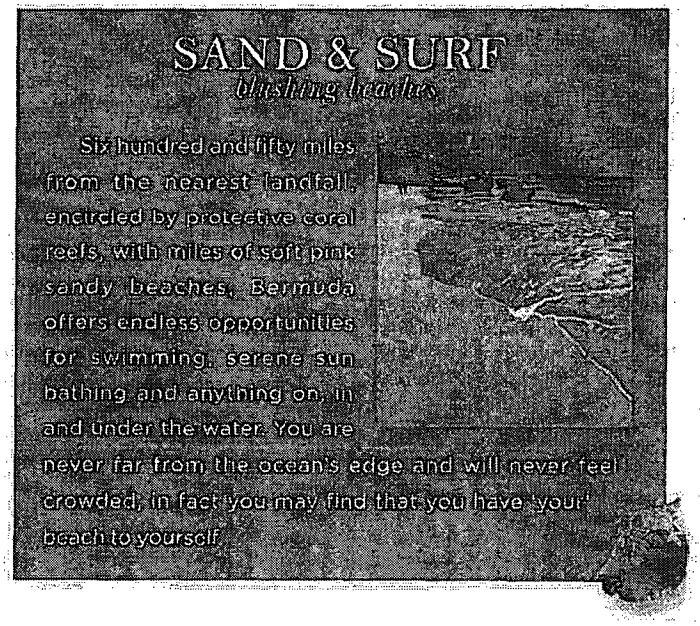

The spaciousness of these two sandy beaches are ideal for families and parties. The 36-acre public park features nature trails, playground equipment and views of some outer islands reserved for wildlife. A beach house, open during the summer months, provides additional convenience.

TOBACCO BAY

ST. GEORGE'S

Perfect for families and inexperienced swimmers because of its shallow waters, this beach is also excellent for snorkelling. Sergeant majors, blue angels, four-eyed butterfly fish and wrasse glide around the rocks surrounding the bay. During the summer months, the Beach House offers snacks, rentals and changing facilities.

TRANSPORTATION

GETTING AROUND BERMUDA is easy and fun, with a range of choices available. Buses, mini-buses, ferries and taxis are in service year-round and cover the Island. Visitors can rent motor-scooters or bicycles (which some of us still call pedal bikes or pushbikes) and even a horse and carriage, if the mood so takes them. Maps and timetables of the bus and ferry routes are widely available; don't go out without one!

Walking is the best way to gain a real sense of what Bermuda and its people are like. You can go at your own pace and stop wherever you please, discovering the Island as you go.

Our pink buses are plentiful and frequent; they cover the Island. Bus stops and shelters are marked at the side of the road by pink poles (for journeys into the City of Hamilton) or blue poles (for outward journeys). Buses operate on 11 routes, through 14 zones.

You can pay as you board, in which case the exact cash fare is required. Tickets and tokens are available, as are Transportation Passes which offer reduced fares and can be bought for one, two, three, four or seven consecutive days of unlimited travel on all buses and ferries.

Mini-buses go where the passengers want them to.

Our three ferry routes provide an enchanting way of seeing Bermuda before deciding which parts of the Island to explore. Ferries that wend their way around the Island cruise to and from the Ferry Terminal in the heart of the City of Hamilton. You'll need a ticket, a token or a Transportation Pass, since cash is not accepted.

Four- or six-seater taxis can be hired all over the Island, 24 hours a day. They're easiest to find outside the larger hotels or elsewhere in the City of Hamilton, the Town of St. George or the Royal Naval Dockyard. All our taxis are metered by law. They can be hired for a specific journey or as tour vehicles. Our taxi drivers are one of Bermuda's most precious assets. They know everything about the Island, old and new. They'll knowledgeably answer any question you ask them, on any subject.

Drive-yourself rental cars are not available. Visitors over the age of 18 may rent motor-scooters (mopeds). A driver's licence is not required. Cycle liveries abound, offering single-seat or two-seater vehicles. The daily rental fee includes insurance, a helmet (which all riders must wear, securely fastened), a lock, a full tank of gas and even a map of the Island.

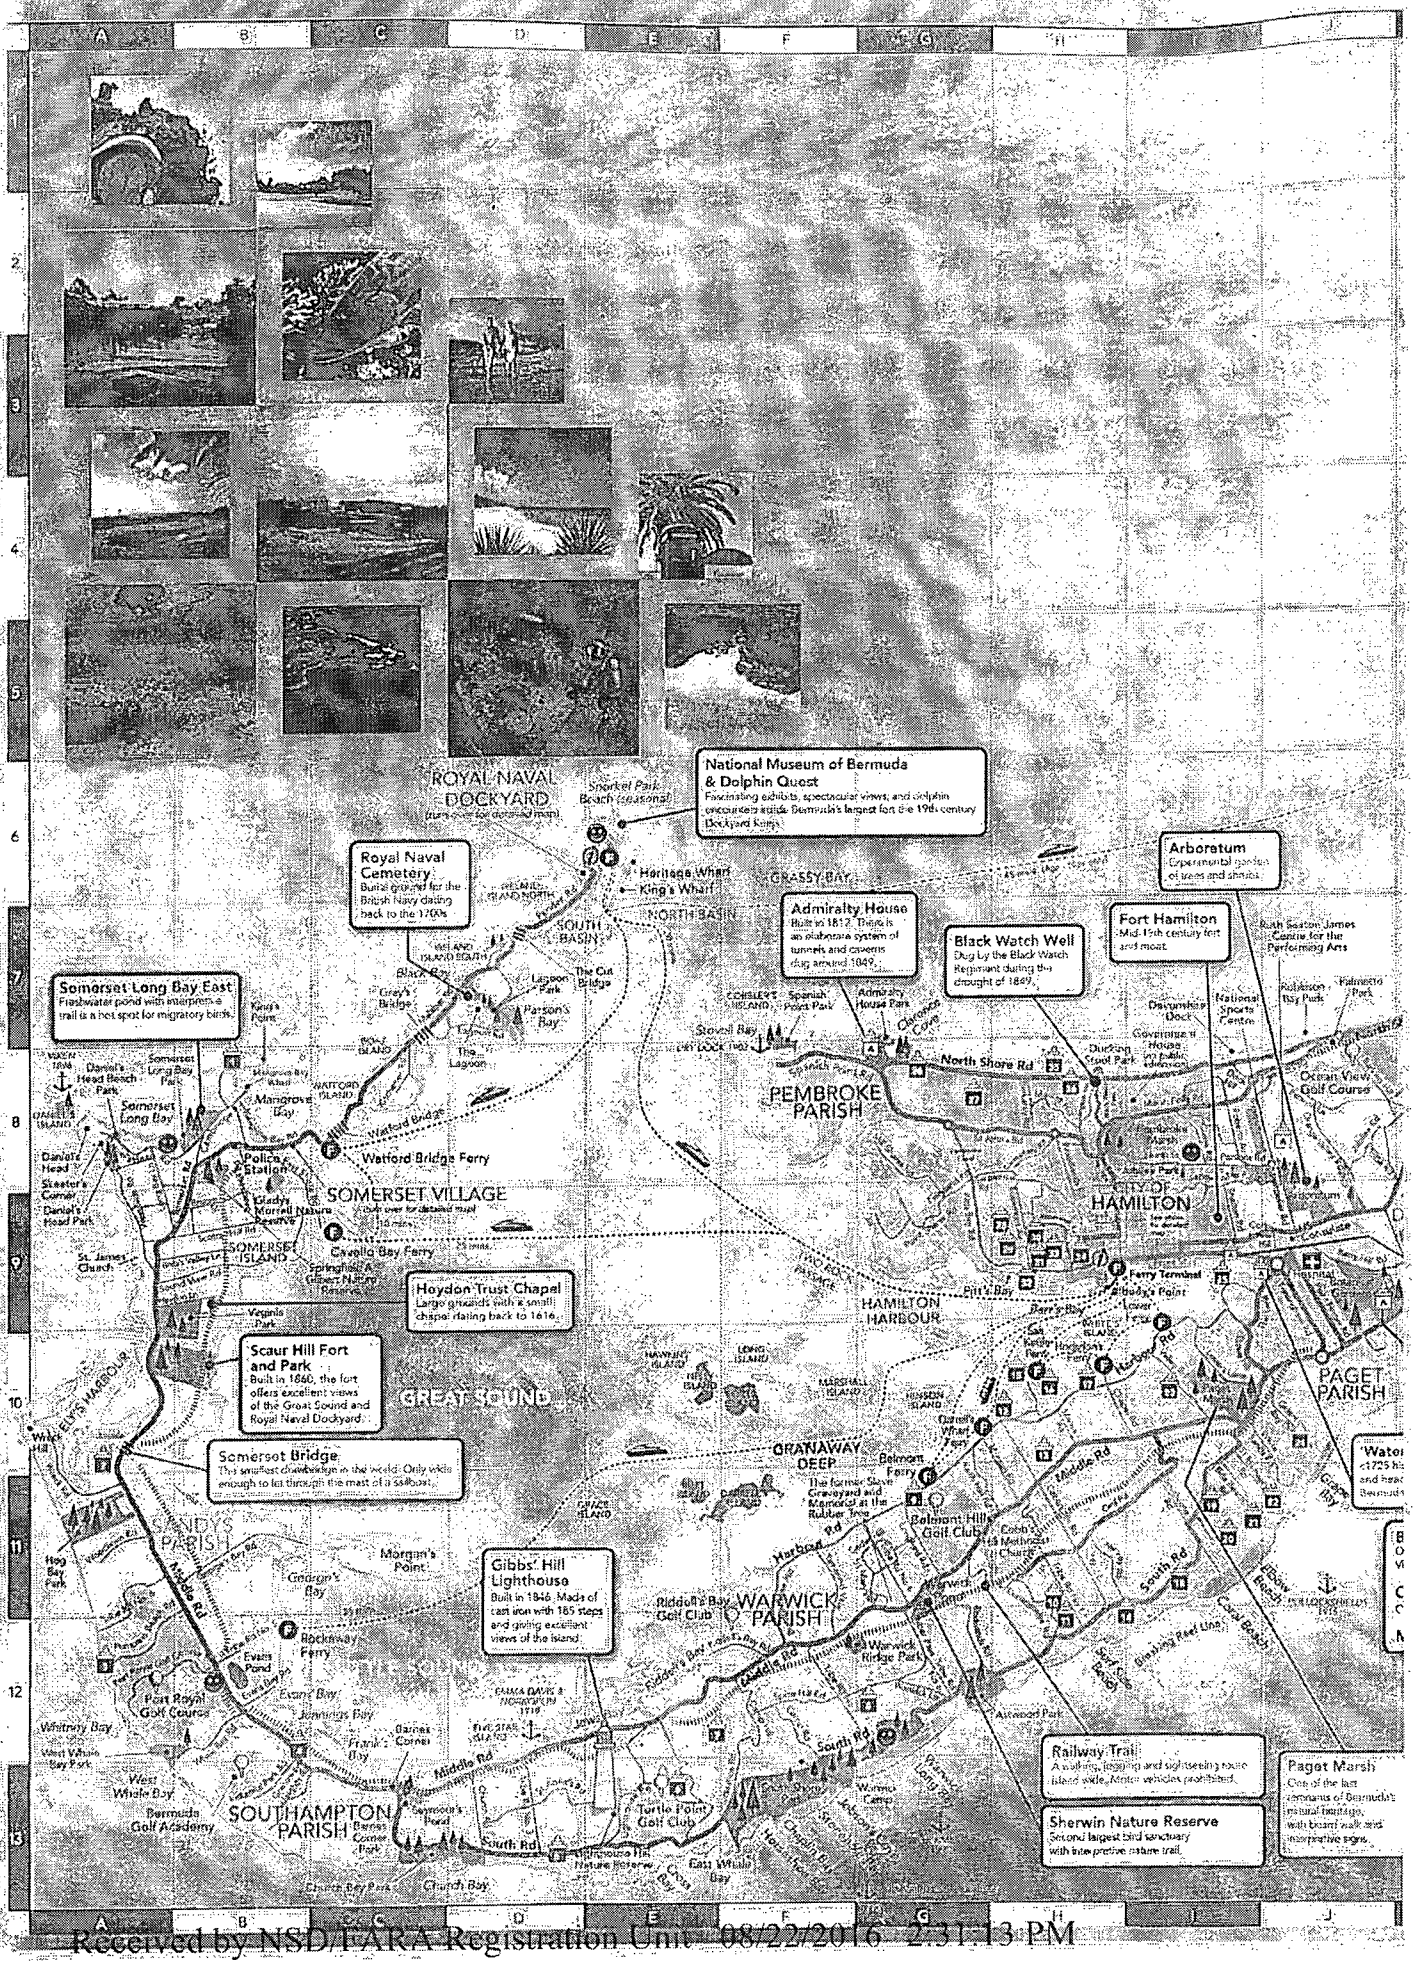

Details on all these modes of transportation are available at your guest house or hotel, or at the Visitor Information Centres located in the City of Hamilton, Town of St. George and the Royal Naval Dockyard.

We drive on the left and we drive slowly. There's a 20 mph (35 kph) speed limit everywhere, less in the city and towns.

A tip, if you're driving a rental cycle: don't look back. Our drivers are used to motor-scooters and can tell from the red licence plate when a visitor is driving. They'll take extra care. At roundabouts (which you might call traffic circles), priority is given to the person on your right.

WATERSPORTS

FISHING, DIVING & YACHTING

ON OUR ISLAND you are never more than a deep breath away from our beloved ocean. During season after season of amazing fishing to thrilling aquatic adventures such as parasailing, diving and waterskiing, we are very adept at making the most of our brilliant blue waters.

FISHING

It's probably no coincidence that Bermuda is shaped like a fish-hook. The waters around the Island offer some of the best fishing in the world. There's nothing more relaxing than a day's fishing on the Island's shoreline or dock fishing. We also offer outstanding reef and bonefishing; the latter is a summer pastime.

Charter boats will supply everything you need for the day. Arrangements should be made in advance with the captains and it's a good idea to book well ahead, since the charter boats are in big demand.

YACHTING

Given Bermuda's relatively small size and the vastness of the surrounding Atlantic Ocean, it is no surprise that Bermudians are equally at home on the water and the land. "Messing about in boats" is one of the most pleasurable ways to spend time in Bermuda. Boats under sail or motor power are available for hire. Larger boats can be chartered with a captain on board, while visitors may skipper their own smaller inshore vessels. Other boat cruises consist of sightseeing, catamaran sailing, glass bottom boat trips and sunset or evening cruises.

The highlight of the Bermuda yachting calendar is the biennial Newport to Bermuda race held on even numbered years when a fleet of more than 150 vessels race to Bermuda from Rhode Island. In odd numbered years, the race is from Marion to Bermuda. In 1906, three boats under 40 feet in length started the inaugural Newport to Bermuda race and two finished what was the first ocean race for amateur sailors in normal boats. The 'Thrash to the Onion Patch' (bermudarace.com) has since inspired other long-distance races and has over the years attracted thousands of boats crewed by some tens of thousands of men and women, who have raced to our beautiful Island. The annual Argo Group Gold Cup, hosted in October by the Royal Bermuda Yacht Club (bermudagoldcup.com), is the ultimate match race, yachting event featuring international one design craft competing for the oldest match-racing trophy in the world.

The Bermuda calendar is full of other open ocean yachting, single-handed, team and match race sailing events from April to October. The Royal Hamilton Amateur Dinghy Club, the Royal Bermuda Yacht Club, the Spanish Point Boat Club and the St. George's Dinghy & Sports Club host these events and offer reciprocal facilities to members of similar clubs worldwide.

DIVING

Bermuda is famous as a world-class diving venue, year-round. The crystal-clear waters surrounding the Island make the sub-aquatic realm every bit as accessible as that above it. For certified divers we have the best wreck diving in the Atlantic.

The undersea world of reefs, caverns and shipwrecks, many are in shallow water, represent more than five centuries of nautical history, teem with marine life due to the healthy reef system and are a major attraction.

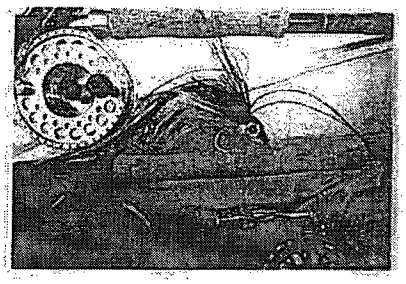

From beginners to seasoned SCUBA veterans, Bermuda welcomes those keen to enjoy both the SNUBA and SCUBA experience. Our PADI SCUBA centres are among the best in the world. The peak diving season runs from March to November, although some operate year-round. Most of the large hotels have their own SCUBA centres.

Non-swimmers can also enjoy the world beneath the waves through the wonders of helmet diving, also known as bell diving. Enjoy a walk along the ocean floor between vibrant coral reefs while breathing through an air hose connected to the helmet. Come face to face with fish and marine life as you experience the other-worldliness of life underwater.

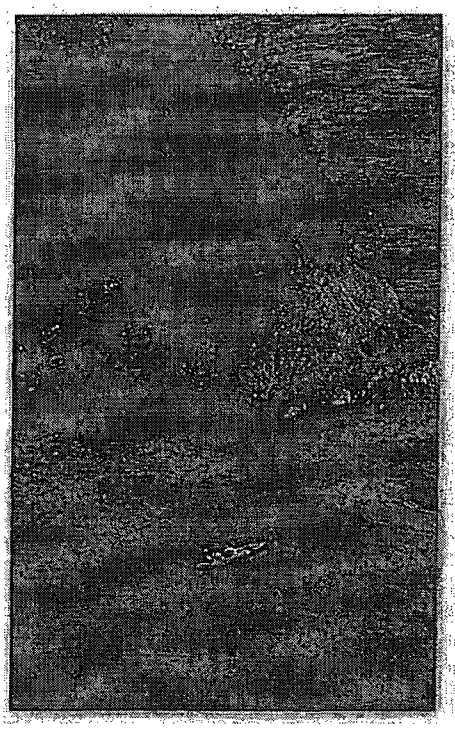

OTHER WATERSPORTS

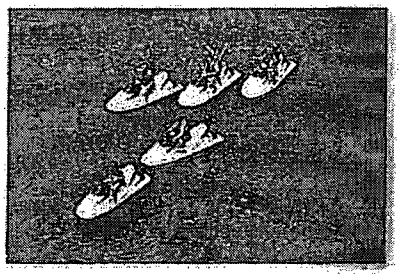

Snorkelling in Bermuda's clear waters is great fun, anywhere, any time. All you need is a mask and snorkel. Go with family or friends, or take one of the tours organised by Bermudians who know our waters like the back of their hands.

Any number of other water-based activities are waiting for you, including stand-up paddle boarding and kite surfing. Parasailing affords a bird's-eye view from as high as 300 feet. It's an extraordinary experience that anyone can enjoy. You can take off and land without getting wet, if you prefer that to the splashdown that some find exhilarating.

Kayaking has become a popular way of exploring Bermuda's many outlying islands. Rent the kayak, paddles and safety equipment and take off to enjoy panoramic views of Bermuda, or discover a beach all your own.

FULL OF SURPRISES—that's a shopping excursion in Bermuda. It can take you all over the Island: City of Hamilton, St George's, Royal Naval Dockyard and plenty of stops off the beaten track in between! It's a great way to discover Bermuda and how it inspires the creativity of its people.

Hamilton offers visitors a new and different shopping experience. The retail scene was once one of big shops; today the image is one of a vibrant variety. The shops are smaller, the boutiques are interesting and there are hidden corner stores which never fail to have just the right quirky fashion to appeal to the savvy dresser.

Front Street is the 'high' street of Hamilton and the colourful shop fronts make a bright promenade where discerning shoppers can browse through stores with carefully chosen merchandise imported from Europe's leading manufacturers: fine china and crystal, quality linens, elegant timepieces and jewellery are still the top sellers. Three long-standing liquor merchants offer great prices on wines and spirits—especially Bermuda rum! Collectors of African art should head for the Crisson Hind Gallery, where the work is sure to impress.

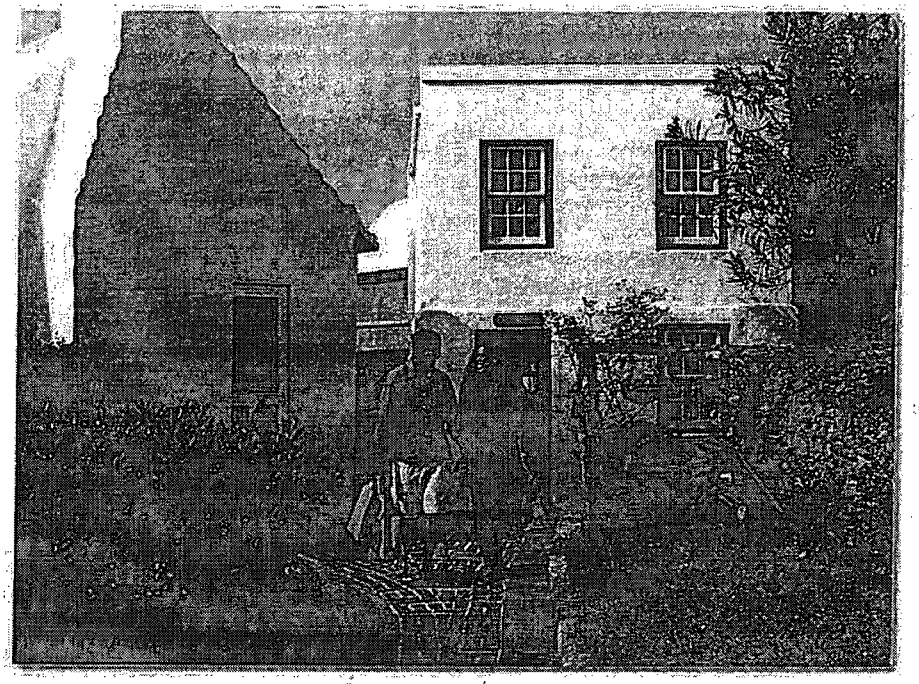

Take a detour from Front Street into the bustle of Reid and Queen Streets and the scene changes. These two streets boast both classy and funky boutiques, not to mention an everything-under-one-roof department store with a very impressive range of fragrances. Delve into Washington Mall off Reid Street and its sister mall, Washington Mall 3, opened with the main access off Church Street for everything from the essential and practical to the fun and frivolous. While you are in the area follow any of the well-turned out locals to one of city's notable and numerous beauty salons.

North Hamilton is regaining its distinction for its ethnic eateries and its shops. Original African imports such as tribal drums, instruments, masks and sculptures share space with fabrics in glorious regional patterns, as does brilliant coloured jewellery and finely tooled leather accessories and sandals.

A visit to Bermuda is not complete without a gentle stroll browsing through the old Town of St George. Once the capital of Bermuda and now a UNESCO World Heritage Site, St. George has a sleepy feel, but as you meander through the square and alleys, you'll be intrigued by the town's small, quaint souvenir and clothes shops, hairdressers and spa, tiny bookstore, artist studios and galleries that are all tucked in amongst historic homes, buildings and walk ways.

At the busier west end of the Island, the Royal Naval Dockyard's Clocktower Mall is a must for recreational shoppers. The Mall houses small branches of Hamilton department stores, art and craft stores attractive gift shops, as well as fashion clothing, jewellery and accessory boutiques. You can shop and then drop in at the Mall's world famous Haggen Dazs ice-cream parlour for well-deserved refreshment.

It's a short distance to the east side of the Dockyard. A bustling marina and working boatyards line the way to old naval storehouses, now studios for artisans offering a wealth of handmade creative arts and crafts, 'Made in Bermuda'. What more memorable souvenirs can you take home with you?

The best showcases for Bermuda-made arts and crafts are the local galleries: the Bermuda Arts Centre at Dockyard, the Bermuda Society of Arts, Masterworks Museum of Bermuda Art and the Bermuda Craft Market all have regularly changing schedules of shows and exhibits. The Bermuda National Gallery in City Hall & Arts Centre in Hamilton hosts visiting international exhibits, a complement to their permanent collection which includes important Bermudian paintings and furniture.

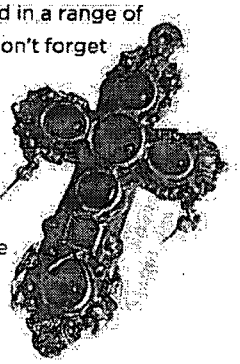

A number of resident working artists have their studios in the Bermuda Arts Centre at Dockyard—another west end highlight. Venture around the corner and step into the vast hall of Dockyard Glassworks where hot furnaced and flameworked glass, fused glass jewellery and glass beads are all produced; stay a while and watch a demonstration of glass blowing. Take home your personal favourite, one that reflects Bermuda's natural light and vibrancy. Next door at Bermuda Clayworks, featuring renowned potter Jon Faulkner, you can look on while potters work and then you can buy their contemporary hand thrown designs.

There are some smaller galleries and studios located across the Island, these are listed in the telephone directory's Yellow Pages and an enterprising guide or a knowledgeable taxi driver can map out a day-long tour with stops at these artists' studios. Before setting out, keep a broad mind on what exactly constitutes a 'studio', as artists in Bermuda can work in uncommon locations and it is best to call ahead to confirm their availability.

Local writers add an important layer to the cultural 'products' of the Island, their books are available in bookstores, gift shops and from the writers directly as often they are the featured evening guests during hotels' 'Bermuda Nights'. Children's books top the list of 'best sellers' and the lead characters are often popular locals: tree frogs, colourful fish, gombeys and birds. Take home gifts could include volumes on local flora and fauna, scientific expeditions or our maritime history, or what about a novel based on the lives of the Island's pirates and buccaneers? And, there's that well-known work, 'The Tempest', by Mr. Shakespeare.

The collection of coffee table books covers virtually all aspects of Bermudian life: personalities, homes and gardens, ship building and sailing from days gone by to nowadays. Turn the pages of any of these magnificent tomes and 'visit' the Island again and again from the comfort of your armchair at home.

Throughout Bermuda you'll come across fragrant, local favourites to take home as reminders of your island vacation: a spoonful of Bermuda honey to sweeten your days, a bottle of peppery sherry condiment to add a special zip to your choice homemade dishes, a phial of newly refined Bermuda perfumes to capture the essence of the Island in a range of exotic fragrances, and don't forget a delicious rum cake!

Every excursion to Bermuda brings its rewards. The rewards are as varied as the clouds in our sky.

TASTE
— OF BERMUDA —

FOOD IS INTEGRAL to the pleasure of a Bermuda vacation. Good food—along with famous Bermudian sociability—is being served island-wide and end-to-end in fine, world-class restaurants, convivial pubs, casual cafés and coffee shops as well as in mobile carts parked in just the right places.

Flavours in Bermuda range from the truly international to the traditionally local and reflect the genuine diversity and cosmopolitanism of both the Island's resident population and its visitors. French, Italian, British, American, Caribbean, Portuguese, North African, Indian and Far Eastern influences all infuse Bermuda's cuisine and can spice up your vacation with deliciously tempting variety.

A recent count revealed more than 150 eating places in Bermuda. Those listed below are arranged according to cuisine, convenience, ambience, after work and after hours, etc. However, it would be impossible to cite every island establishment and we all know that sometimes the most satisfying experiences come from simply following the crowd and, of course, your nose.

FINE DINING

Fine dining and elegant surroundings make it a pleasure to dress up and have always been available in Bermuda's hotels. That tradition continues at Fairmont Hotels' Waterlot Inn in Southampton and Harley's in Hamilton. The Point at Rosewood Tucker's Point, Beau Rivage at Newstead Belmont Hills and Ocean Echo at The Reefs are equally fine choices. The latter two restaurants offer the bonus of exceptional views—the one overlooks Hamilton Harbour, the other its own South Shore beach. And speaking of views, those from Blû Bar and Grill at Belmont Hills are awesome, especially at night.

Naturally, fine dining can also be found in the City of Hamilton and its environs. On Front Street, there is Port O' Call, popular with local businessmen and politicians and the recently opened RED, which highlights quality meat and fish infused with your choice from the flavours of various great cuisines. Just off Front Street there is Little Venice, the doyenne of Bermuda's Italian restaurants. For groups and special occasions, the Venetian takes this restaurant's fine dining experience to the waters of Hamilton Harbour. Call ahead to reserve cocktail or dinner cruises.

Just west of central Hamilton, Harry's and Harry's Bar at The Waterfront has a sophisticated menu offered alongside Hamilton Harbour. For fine dining in a Bermuda garden setting, try romantic Ascot's on Rosemont Avenue, Pembroke. At the eastern perimeter of Hamilton, the Harbourfront Restaurant at the Bermuda Underwater Exploration Institute offers a fine dining experience at its Sushi Bar, new wine showroom and newly-renovated outdoor terrace overlooking Hamilton Harbour at picturesque Foot of the Lane. Tom Moore's Tavern, named after the Irish poet reputed to have stayed in this landmark house, is a long-established restaurant that merits a trip eastward.

SEAFOOD

From our famous fish chowder, codfish cakes and seasonal lobster to refined interpretations, seafood is—as expected—a staple in Bermuda's restaurants. Here are a few spots—from east to west and in all price ranges—at which you can enjoy seafood.

At the Royal Naval Dockyard in the Island's west end, try Freeport Seafood Restaurant and Bar and/or Bone Fish Bar & Grill. In the City of Hamilton Barracuda Grill and the Lobster Pot are well-established choices that continue to please.

Some restaurants noted for seafood also offer ambience or atmosphere that vies with the excellence of the main course. Lido at Elbow Beach in Paget complements its gourmet entrees with sunset views of one of the most famous beaches in Bermuda—and the world. In St. George's, at Wahoo's, a lively clientele regularly spills out onto the old town's charming Water Street. The menu is reasonably priced and the fish tacos outstanding. Across the harbour, the Black Horse Tavern is famous for local seafood dishes.

THE PUB SCENE

Pubs serving a wide selection of beers, wine and spirits together with a sociable buzz and 'pub food'—shepherd's pie, bangers and mash, fish and chips and the like—abound in this British colony. Hamilton's Hog Penny Pub and the Swizzle Inn in Bailey's Bay are fixtures that have been continuously serving locals and visitors for generations, as has the White Horse Tavern on the waterfront at King's Square, St. George's.

Other worthy pubs in or near the City of Hamilton include the Robin Hood Pub & Restaurant, Docksider Pub & Restaurant and Flanagan's Irish Pub & Outback Sports Bar. The latter goes all out to celebrate St. Patrick's Day!

A ten-minute drive eastwards from the City of Hamilton, North Rock Brewing Co. is proud of its beer and ale selection and the food is good, too. Travelling westwards, Henry VIII Restaurant and Pub is where to find the beef and other hearty pub fare. Not too far away, Swizzle Inn has opened a branch of its original pub in this area close to some of Bermuda's best-known beaches, including Horseshoe Beach and Warwick Long Bay. At the Royal Naval Dockyard—that imposing reminder of the British navy's presence in Bermuda—the Frog & Onion Pub adds the ambience of historic architecture to its popular menu items.

CAFÉS, BISTROS AND GRILLS

Cafés, bistros and restaurants featuring lighter yet sophisticated food in a relaxed atmosphere have sprung up everywhere in recent years. In Hamilton, you'll find these restaurants on main routes like Front Street or narrow, vehicle-free walkways such as Chancery Lane. Bistro J on charming Chancery Lane provides a menu that changes daily and a casual, intimate setting. By contrast, on busy Front Street at Muse you can people watch street-side or get away from the crowd on a rooftop terrace. Bolero Brasserie combines innovative Mediterranean-inspired cuisine and views of Hamilton Harbour at its second-floor restaurant overlooking Front Street Victoria Grill, located off Victoria Street not far from the Bus Terminal, is winning praise for its extensive and fairly priced wine list and a menu that highlights dishes from the Southeastern U.S.

No list of cafés could be complete without popular Rustico in Flatts Village across from the Bermuda Aquarium, Museum & Zoo. This always-crowded restaurant serves Italian food and is known for its thin-crust pizzas.

COFFEE SHOPS AND DINER TYPES

For reasonable prices, no frills atmosphere, efficient service and down-to-earth food, coffee shops and diners are a sure bet. The venerable Spot Restaurant on Burnaby Street in the City of Hamilton, The Paraquet on South Road in Paget and the Speciality Inn at Collector's Hill in Smith's Parish exemplify the home-spun type and have been in business for years.

Common Ground in Chancery Lane has a young vibe and is one of the best places in town for made-to-order sandwiches and home-baked sweets. Its walls are decorated with Bermudiah art that is mostly available for purchase. Funky Tribe Road Kitchen at the eastern end of Reid Street also offers a wide variety of homemade sweet and savoury treats, which are baked on the premises by the owner-chef and her staff.

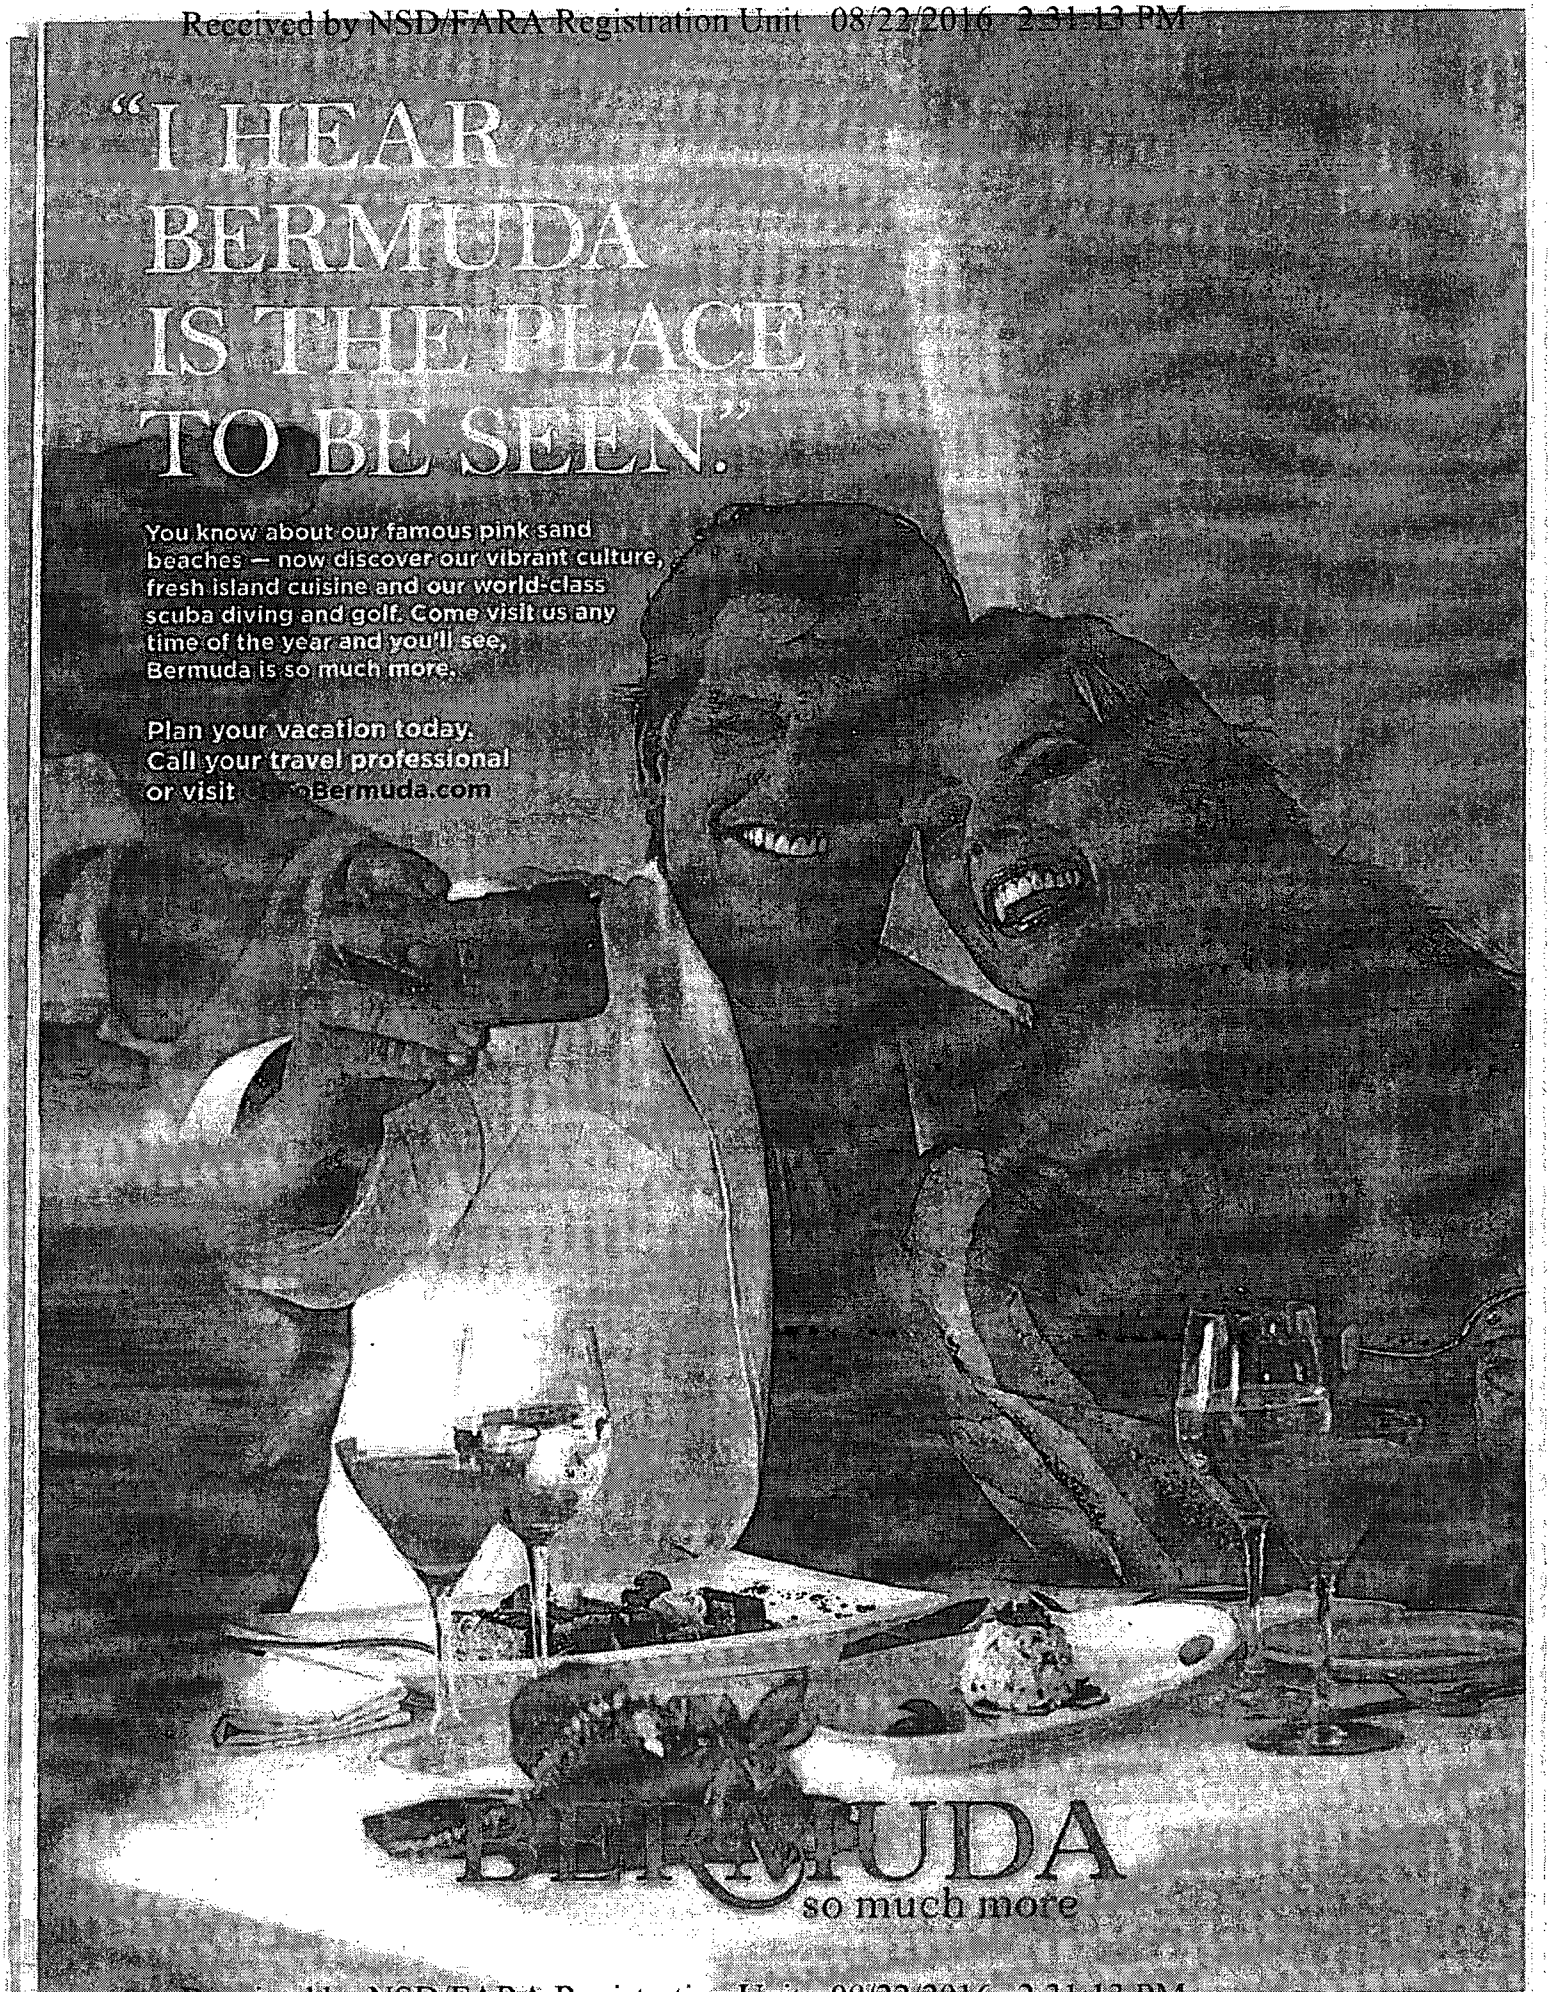

With its stuffed sofas and casual ambience, Rock Island Coffee on Reid Street is an inviting spot for reading the daily news over a great cup of coffee, which not surprisingly is the café's specialty.

FAST AND FASTER FOOD

Can't wait to get out and see the sights? No problem. There are plenty of take-away options, including virtually all coffee shops and even many sit-down restaurants. And, the City of Hamilton's supermarkets all have salad bars that cater to the busy workers who help keep Bermuda thriving.

Among supermarkets, Miles to Go draws on the estimable reputation of its parent, Miles Market at The Waterfront, to make take-out a treat for discerning palates. In fact, if you intend to return for one of their delectable sweets or gourmet coffees, you can eat your take-out at one of the outdoor tables.

Lemon Tree Café, conveniently located on Queen Street a few steps up from Front Street, has substantive, made-to-order sandwiches and has won Best-of-Bermuda in the Deli Take Out category. You can take your food to the outside patio or go a few more steps into lush Queen Elizabeth Park.

At lunchtime, strategically located mobile wagons have been providing stand-up service for years—long before the current fad for truck food. The oldest is DeGraff's Lunch Counter at the North Corner of City Hall parking lot. If you happen to note the 1939 date on the 'wagon', Mr. DeGraff might tell you that he inherited the business from his father, who, before cars, operated it from a horse-and-buggy. Order a fishcake-on-a-bun—a house specialty—and Mr. DeGraff might also tell you about the changing taste in toppings for this Bermudian favourite.

At the South Corner of City Hall parking lot, at the Little Mexico wagon, the Mexican-born wife of a Bermudian offers meat, fish or vegetarian burritos, flautas, tacos and more with the authentic style of her culture. In Queen Elizabeth Park, Winky Dinky Hot Dog specialises in this favourite staple and knocks it out of the park.

All of the above operate during normal business hours but down by the ferry dock Smokin' Barrel, which specializes in saucy grilled meats, also re-opens for evening convenience...on weekdays until 10:00 p.m. and Fridays and Saturday until 1:00 a.m.

INTERNATONAL CUISINE

The numerous nationalities now residing in Bermuda have led to an exciting—and very welcome—diversity in Bermudian restaurants and even in Bermudian supermarkets. Portuguese influence is so ingrained that it can't truly be classified as international. Few Bermudian kitchens are without a version of Portuguese red bean soup spiked with spicy chorizo. However, Café Acoreano, opposite the bus terminal, honors the heritage with traditional breads, cakes and that ethereal donut, the malassada.

Italian restaurants in all price ranges are threaded throughout the Island and feature the food of various Italian regions, from north to south. Sul Verde at Rosewood Tucker's Point is the newest addition to the family of Italian restaurants. Appropriately enough, given its location in the golf clubhouse, Sul Verde is an osteria starring rustic Italian fare—including an antipasti buffet—that will please the whole family.

Sushi is currently the rage in Bermuda and can be found in the gamut of eating establishments from the upscale to the modest—and, in fact, even at Hamilton's Marketplace Supermarket! Extensive sushi selections are available amidst elegant décor and surroundings at Blû Bar and Grill at Belmont Hills, the Harbourfront Restaurant and L'Oriental above Little Venice on Bermudiana Road, Hamilton. In addition to sushi, the latter restaurant serves Chinese food, including dimsum.

Classic French cuisine in a classy Bermudian setting is the star at Beau Rivage at Newstead Belmont Hills.

Indian food—an especially popular choice with expat Britons—can be found at Indigo in Flatts Village and in North Hamilton at House of India where a variety of vegetarian options are available. Middle Eastern food and exotic ambience flavour Front Street's Café Cairo, which serves Moroccan tagines, kebabs and other exotic favourites until the wee hours of the morning.

FAMILY FRIENDLY AND FAMILY FARE

Children are welcome everywhere and many restaurants in Bermuda will make every effort to cater to their palates. Even so, Bermudian children—who, of course, are always well behaved—have their favourites. On the weekends especially, children of all ages gather for pizza at La Trattoria Restaurant and Pizzeria in Washington Lane or at Portofino's on Bermudiana Road. No doubt recently opened Azu Beastro at the Bermuda Aquarium, Museum & Zoo in Flatts Village is destined to be added to the list of family favourites.

For reasonable prices and the everyday choices that children love, try The Paraquet near Elbow Beach in Paget or Speciality Inn on South Road in Smith's Parish.

SUNDAY BRUNCH

The numerous establishments offering Sunday brunch confirm Bermudians' love of this leisurely feast at which diners make their own selections from a tempting buffet or order from a specially designed brunch menu. Prices vary so it's best to check ahead. Visitors wishing to share the brunch experience should be aware that on special occasions—Mother's Day, Father's Day and holidays—tables sell quickly and should be booked in advance. In the City of Hamilton, Bouchee on Pitt's Bay Road, near the Hamilton Fairmont Princess, offers a reasonably priced breakfast every day and brunch—from a select menu—all weekend. The Fairmont

Princess offers a substantial brunch at its Harley's restaurant. Fairmont Southampton's Windows on the Sound also serves brunch on Sunday.

West of the City of Hamilton, Fourways Inn and Henry VIII have long been known for their sumptuous buffet brunches. Among the eastern parishes, Grotto Bay Beach Resort and Landfall Restaurant draw the crowds. The latter restaurant serves local favourites and impressive views of the North Shore marine scene.

For brunch with a twist, try the Jazz Brunch at Bermuda's pronouncedly French restaurant, Beau Rivage at Newstead Belmont Hills.

AFTERNOON TEA

After all, we are a British colony! Have a sweet—and savoury—time at either of the Fairmont hotels. Full afternoon teas are served in the Fairmont's Heritage Court in Hamilton and Jasmine Lounge in Southampton.

Fittingly, at the Royal Naval Dockyard in the Island's western end, The Dockyard Pastry Shop offers an authentic English tea complete with scones and clotted cream. In St. George's, the eastern end's World Heritage site, Sweet P's full tea is an elegant affair offered in the garden of the Bermuda Perfumery, a listed eighteenth century house. Call to reserve.

AFTER WORK AND AFTER HOURS

Come five o'clock on Friday afternoon the workweek finishes and weekend socialising begins. Many restaurants, pubs and bars celebrate with specifically designated Happy Hours. The following is but a sample of the establishments that attract a faithful clientele which shows up after work in search of friends, light fare and a sip or two.

The Lemon Tree Café, a casual locale known for its sandwiches during the workday, has a DJ and dancing at its popular happy hour, which actually lasts until midnight.

The harbour-side terrace of Fairmont's Hamilton Princess hotel, an early venue for a social trend that has exploded, continues to be a popular happy hour spot. Nearby, at the terrace and cocktail lounge of Harry's Bar and Restaurant, Martini Madness and a bar food menu is on offer from 5:00 p.m to 10:00 p.m. Meanwhile, Port O' Call on Front Street beckons a corporate crowd to its happy hour.

On the opposite side of Hamilton Harbour, Beau Rivage at Newstead Belmont Hills offers happy hour and great views of a lit-up the City of Hamilton from its terrace. For convenience and safety, it also offers a water shuttle from Hamilton on the half hour between 5 :00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m.

At the Harbourfront a reasonably priced sushi happy hour is offered Monday through Friday from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Sushi is also the theme of happy hour at Blû Bar and Grill where sparkling nighttime views of the Great Sound are free.

Most restaurants in Bermuda stop serving food by 10:00 p.m. or 11 :00 p.m. However, there are a few good options conveniently located along Front Street On Fridays and Saturdays, mobile Smokin' Barrel is open until 1:00 a.m. The always lively Bermuda Bistro at the Beach—actually Front Street—is open seven days a week and serves drinks until 3:00 a.m. and food until midnight. Café Cairo, which attracts a young crowd, is open and serving food until 3:00 a.m. every day but Sunday.

AMBIENCE

Bermudians feel fortunate to have a beautiful built and natural environment surrounding them on a daily basis, and year round. However, numerous restaurants—some already cited—go the extra mile to put ambience on the menu alongside fine food. A few eating places also offer unique environments and are also worth exploring.

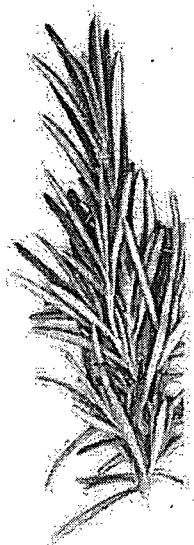

At the beach, there's Mickey's Beach Bar & Bistro situated right on fabulous Elbow Beach and The Reef's Coconuts where food and drink are served almost literally on the rocks.

At the eastern end of the Island, Blackbeard's Hide Out overlooks Achilles Bay and is next to Gates Bay, where the Island's first visitors arrived off the shipwrecked Sea Venture—not quite a cruise ship. Near the Island's western end, The Dining Room at Gibbs Hill Lighthouse, Southampton can boast that it is the only restaurant in proximity to sweeping, panoramic views of the entire island.

There are a couple of other eating places that also offer ambience that is quite unique. For a quick bite while you contemplate both art and nature, consider Homer's Café at Masterworks in the Botanical Gardens. The café is named after famed American artist Winslow Homer who visited Bermuda in 1899 and is represented in the gallery's collection. At Azu Beastro in the Bermuda Aquarium, Museum & Zoo you can't feed the animals but you can certainly hear and see them as you take a break between exhibits.

So, enjoy your visit to Bermuda and Bon Appetit!

PICTURE
—PERFECT WEDDINGS—

IMAGINE SAYING 'I DO' on a cliff overlooking the ocean with the sound of the surf caressing the shore. Or, how about exchanging your vows on a stretch of pink sand as the sunlight glints off the water behind you? Bermuda is consistently voted among the world's leading wedding destinations and it's easy to see why. Each year hundreds of brides and grooms are attracted by the Island's beautiful beaches, exotic gardens and historic buildings. More than half of the weddings that take place each year involve couples from overseas who want to tie the knot in this island paradise.

One of the best things about getting married in Bermuda is that it's relatively easy for visitors. The rules governing marriage in Bermuda are straightforward and there is no residency requirement. In order to obtain a marriage licence, a couple must file a Notice of Intended Marriage form, along with the required fee, with the Registrar General. The Registrar's office then arranges for the notice to be published in two local newspapers. If there is no objection, the Registrar will issue the marriage licence, which is valid for three months, on the 15th day after application. Once you have obtained your licence, the fun really begins as preparations get underway for your big day. With so many beautiful venues for your wedding ceremony and reception the only problem you'll experience is choosing just one!

If the thought of planning your big day is overwhelming, why not contact one of the Island's professional wedding planners? From applying for the marriage licence to arranging a photographer, they will take the hassle out of the organisation, leaving you to relax and enjoy your wedding in paradise.

Civil wedding ceremonies are held in the Marriage Room of the Registry—an intimate room where an ocean view mural and vases of tropical flowers create the impression of being outdoors. For those who prefer to take advantage of Bermuda's glorious climate, the Island's laws also allow weddings in public places. These include beaches, parks, the grounds of an historic house or one of Bermuda's many hotels.

Bermuda boasts more churches per square mile than any other country so there are plenty of religious venues to choose from, some of which are hundreds of years old. The clergy of several faiths including Anglican, Methodist, Presbyterian and

Couples who kiss under our moongates—the wedding-band shaped arches found in gardens all over the island—will, according to local legend, be assured a long and happy life together.

cedar sapling

Traditionally, Bermudians serve two cakes at their weddings, one for the bride and one for the groom. Both cakes are adorned with tiny cedar saplings that the couple may plant somewhere special on the island to embody their growing love.

horse&buggy

Travelling from your wedding ceremony to the reception in a romantic horse-drawn carriage is a time-honoured island tradition.

A.M.E. are happy to perform outdoor wedding ceremonies but all Catholic marriages must take place in a church. However, Catholics who do not normally reside in Bermuda cannot be married in a Catholic church except under exceptional circumstances such as those who have family ties on the Island or have lived there previously.

To make your day even more memorable, why not adopt one of Bermuda's wedding traditions, which have been followed by brides and grooms on the Island for decades. With no car hire on the Island, brides and grooms often follow the example of local couples who travel to and from their wedding by horse-drawn carriage. A traditional Bermuda surrey with a uniformed driver at the reins will ensure that the bride arrives in style and also provides a perfect photo opportunity.

It is also traditional for both bride and groom to have their own wedding cake. The groom's is a plain pound cake decorated with gold leaf to symbolize wealth. The bride's cake is usually a tiered fruitcake, representing fertility. It is decorated with silver leaf representing purity and a miniature cedar sapling. Cedar trees once covered the Island until they were decimated by disease in the 20th century. Newlyweds can do their part to help re-grow the cedar population by planting the tree from the cake after the reception. Tradition dictates that the sapling is planted in a secret location and, according to local legend, the marriage will flourish as the tree grows.

The distinctive Bermudian moongates are seen throughout the Island and play a key role in marriages. The moongate originated in China but the design was brought to Bermuda by a sea captain in the 1860s. It was quickly adopted by other Bermudians and has become a symbol of the Island. According to tradition, couples make a wish as they walk hand-in-hand through the moongate and are granted happiness and good fortune during their marriage. Of course, moongates also provide a stunning backdrop for photographs.

With dozens of restaurants and hotels, Bermuda offers a plethora of reception venues. Many of the Island's hotels specialise in weddings and offer packages that include both the reception and honeymoon accommodation. If you're looking for something out of the ordinary, why not hold your reception in the grounds of one of the Island's historic buildings such as 'Waterville', 'Verdmont' or the Commissioner's House at the National Museum of Bermuda incorporating the Bermuda Maritime Museum? Whether you have 20 guests or 200, you are sure to find the perfect location.

Once the formalities are over you can relax and enjoy your honeymoon. You may even wish to slip away to the beach straight after the ceremony. Some couples choose to be pampered at one of the Island's hotels while others opt to get away from it all at a traditional cottage colony.

When it comes to your wedding and honeymoon, whatever your choice, you can be sure of a warm welcome in Bermuda and wonderful memories that will last a lifetime.

WHEN TO MARRY

With no rainy season to speak of and temperatures averaging 80°F / 29°C from April to October and 70°F / 21°C from November to March, it is always a brilliant time of year to wed on our Island.

DESTINATION

HONEYMOON

AZURE WATERS, pink sand shores and that special local charm—it's understandable why generations and generations of newlyweds have flocked to Bermuda. Whether it's traditional 'Honeymooners' or the growing trend of 'Mini-Mooners', 'The Jewel of the Atlantic' offers a unique experience for those wanting the ultimate romantic getaway.

With Bermuda's proximity to North America, couples can enjoy the sun, surf and sand over a long weekend or extend their stay to experience all the Island has to offer. Bermuda is located in the North Atlantic, 650 miles east of North Carolina and is less than two hours by air from most US eastern cities.

Bermudians are known for their warm and friendly personalities greeting friends and strangers alike with a 'Good morning' or 'Good afternoon'. They are more than happy to personalize the numerous island activities for newlyweds in order to create an amorous adventure that couples will want to revisit every anniversary. Private guided tours are offered either by taxi or on foot. Drive down windy roads lined with pastel houses or stroll the railroad trails to see the Island's lush flora, including the flowering hibiscus and Bermuda Cedar. Sunset or sunrise walks around Spitall Pond Nature Reserve can also be arranged —include a picnic to fully take in the beauty of the area.

Bermuda is rich in culture, breathtaking views and a deep rooted history with strong ties to Britain and the US. Couples can walk arm in arm down the cobblestone streets of the Town of St. George, which some historians determine to be the oldest continually inhabited English Town in the New World. History buffs can tour the UNESCO World Heritage Site before venturing to Martello Tower and Tom Moore's Jungle. Historic forts and homes are sprinkled around the Island and give visitors an insight of old Bermuda. After learning about Bermuda's nautical past at the National Museum of Bermuda located in the Royal Naval Dockyard, couples can share a playful swim with the dolphins at Dolphin Quest.

Dolphins aren't the only animals couples can interact with. Prior to the advent of the motor car, horses were the main means of transport around the Island. Today couples can enjoy a romantic horse and carriage ride through the streets of downtown Hamilton and surrounding area while sipping a glass of bubbly. Or, many couples prefer to take the reins—a sunset horseback ride along the countless trails and beaches is a perfect way to build up an appetite en route to a romantic picnic for two.

The beauty and natural wonder of the archipelago of 181 islands, inlets and rocks that comprise the island can only be truly appreciated along the coastline. Couples can zip through the crystal blue waters on jet skis and explore caves and hidden coves or captain a Boston whaler and anchor in Paradise Lakes. What's more romantic than a sunset cruise? Lounge on a 40 foot sailboat, sip champagne and enjoy a catered meal under the starry ocean sky—captain included. Or, thrill seeking couples can venture onto a high-speed catamaran tour of the Island.

Dive into the water, either by snorkelling or scuba diving. Grabbing a mask and some fins is the most exciting way to experience the beauty of the coral reefs or to explore one of the numerous shipwrecks. Church and Tobacco Bay are prime locations for snorkellers to get an up close look of marine life and a number of dive operators offer private scuba dives to the various wreck sites.

For the athletically inclined, couples can choose between parasailing, paddle boarding, wake boarding and water skiing. For those keener to stick to the pristine shores, couple's tennis lessons are offered at most clubs. Or, tee off and enjoy the stunning views at Port Royal Golf Course, which is home to the PGA Grand Slam. Newlyweds who climb the 185 steps to the top of the Gibb's Hill Lighthouse are rewarded with a breathtaking panoramic view of the Island. A perfect spot to share a magical moment.

As Bermudians like to say, 'Just Down De Road' from the Gibb's Hill Lighthouse is the Fairmont Southampton's Willowstream Spa, a relaxing and soothing sanctuary. Newly married husbands and wives can pamper one another with mud, masks and baths complete with a side-by-side massage. Indulging in some wine and cheese poolside or relaxing in the couple's lounge is a perfect way to end this intimate experience. For those feeling a little more adventurous, Grotto Bay Beach Resort & Tennis Club offers private massages in the property's 500, 000+ year old cave.

Foodies will not be disappointed with over one hundred restaurants to tantalize their taste buds. Cambridge Beaches offers a special way to experience a piece of paradise—a private candlelit dinner on the beach. A menu is designed specifically for a loving couple's palate and a personalized butler is on hand to top up champagne flutes.

Many of the Island's luxury hotels and resorts cater specifically to honeymooners and will set the mood by welcoming guests with champagne, roses and chocolate covered strawberries.

Private cottages with ocean breezes nestled by the beach at Mandarin Oriental's idyllic Elbow Beach, Bermuda will make newlyweds believe they are alone on this island oasis. Couples can be pampered with daily in-room breakfast, private candlelit dinners and a couple's massage.

Finish the trip on a spiritual note by visiting one of the local churches for a blessing. Bermuda has one of the highest number of churches per capita in the world. Two popular choices with newlyweds are Heydon Trust Chapel built in the 1600's, Bermuda's smallest church, and St. Peter's, Their Majesties Chappell, which is the oldest Anglican church in the New World.

A Bermudian honeymoon is not considered complete without a visit through a moongate. Thought to be a good luck charm for newlyweds, local legend states a couple will experience a happy and fulfilling life together when they share a kiss underneath a moongate. Hold hands, make a wish and enjoy a prosperous and joyful start to your new life together!
