Public Health Insurance Plan

DOUG MILLS/THE NEW YORK TIMES

...plan to address the doctors.
 said, "Health care reform is as important to us as it is to him," Dr. Nielsen said. "We will be engaged in discussions in a constructive way. But we absolutely oppose government control of health care decisions or mandatory physician participation in any insurance plan."
 said, Mr. Obama's trip recalls a speech to the A.M.A. in Chicago on June 13, 1993, by Hillary Rodham Clinton. She proposed "a new bargain" in which the White House would limit malpractice lawsuits and free doctors from

...onerous rules if doctors supported her effort to overhaul the health care system.
 The association agrees with Mr. Obama on some points. It says that individuals and families who can afford coverage should be required to obtain it.
 Like Mr. Obama, the association wants Congress to cut payments to private Medicare Advantage plans. The White House says Medicare pays the private plans 14 percent more than it would cost the government to care for the same people in traditional Medicare.

Sinn Féin

Thank You for attending the forum today. We hope you find it interesting and informative. Sinn Fein is dedicated to achieving an end to partition and the establishment of a united and free Ireland. We know others hold the same vision.

In every area that affects the life and well-being of the Irish people, be it the economy, education, health, democratic governance or social interaction, a united Ireland makes sense. That is why it was essential that the legitimacy of reunification was asserted in the Good Friday Agreement as well as the means by which it can happen.

We believe that the time is now for the real work on unification to start; the discussions, planning and initiatives to bring the reality of unity about. That is the purpose of this forum. In the main we hope that you leave here with ideas and initiatives that you will share with others and put into action.

We ask that Irish unity is placed at the top of Irish America's agenda. Irish America has helped bring us this far on the road to peace and unity. It is achievable, desirable and we believe inevitable. But it needs to be planned for and worked towards in an organized way.

We call on you as Ireland has called on you before, join with us in this great task and complete the journey to peace and justice in an independent, united Ireland.
