Footnote: Political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act means any activity which the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

Building Relations with Conservatives in Washington
Proposal an Initial Introductory Visit to Washington DC

The purpose of this initial visit to Washington DC will be to introduce the RPU and the AU think tank to senior Republican leaders and officials as a first step in building ongoing relations between the two sides. This initial visit will set the stage for an extended program in Washington DC by the RPU and AU aimed at generating active support on the foundations of mutual political philosophies, interests and cooperation, as well as demonstrated credibility. Ongoing cooperation will be possible to the extent that the RPU and AU are able to articulate their positions clearly, as well as articulate the ways in which they wish to engage the RPUS.

Proposed Timing: 22-23 September 2005

Proposed Meetings: - Ken Mehlman
Chairman, Republican National Committee
- Senator John McCain
Chairman, International Republican Institute
- Lorne Craner
President, International Republican Institute
- Senator Richard Lugar
Chairman, Senate Foreign Relations Committee
- Congressman Henry Hyde
Chairman, House Committee on International Relations
- Dick Cheney
Vice President
- The Heritage Foundation

A luncheon with senior figures to discuss a possible program of seminars co-sponsored by Heritage and the Ukraine Republican Party or Alternative Ukraine think tank.

Themes of interest might include:

- Democratization in Ukraine and the CIS
- Fighting corruption in Ukraine and the CIS
- Creating a business-friendly environment in Ukraine and the CIS
