Kurdistan Regional Government	12/15/2022	Instagram	Social Media Post	KRG Representation celebrates Kurdish-American partnership in Nashville Nashville, Tennessee, USA (us.gov.krd) @ The Kurdistan Regional Government's diplomatic mission in the United States paid tribute to the US-Kurdistan partnership, to Nashville, and to the Kurdish-Americans who have made the city and the state of Tennessee their home. The KRG Representation, based in Washington DC, hosted a reception in Nashville yesterday, Tuesday, December 13, which was attended by city officials, Tennessee state officials, representatives of the Sister Cities of Nashville, the US State Department, and representatives of the Kurdish-American community. KRG Envoy Bayan Sami Abdul Rahman said, 'It was an honor to host the reception in Little Kurdistan, as Nashville is known. We are proud of the Kurdish-American community here and the way they have been embraced by Nashville city and the state of Tennessee. We wanted to also celebrate the US-Kurdistan partnership as well, which is now in its third decade and encompasses not only security but also economic and cultural ties. This reception was a small way of celebrating our friendship.' The reception was attended by John Cooper, Mayor of the Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County. Vice Mayor Jim Shulman, members of Nashville Metro Council, US State Department and congressional officials, and the President and members of the Sister Cities of Nashville. Members and organizations of the Kurdish-American community joined the reception, including the Tennessee Kurdish Community Council, the Salahadeen Center, Kurdish Professionals, Effendi Foundation, business owners, artists, and academics. Mayor Cooper, Gregory Sullivan from the State Department and Judge Patricia Cotterell delivered remarks at the reception. He said, 'I am grateful to have you
