PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

Field Marshal Khalifa Haftar
State of Libya

Attention: Mr. Belkasem Khalifa Belkasem Omar, Advisor

Subject: Engagement Agreement

Dear Field Marshal Haftar:

The firms of Lanny J. Davis & Associates ("Davis") and The Livingston Group ("Livingston") ("the Davis-Livingston Team") respectfully thank you for your consideration of the following terms of engagement.

Terms of Engagement:

Field Marshal Khalifa Haftar (hereafter, "the Client") affirms by the signature of his advisor acceptance of the terms of engagement outlined by the Davis-Livingston Team. By this signature the Client also affirms that the engagement agreement and associated fees are duly authorized and lawful in accordance with Libyan and US statutes.

Effective Date of Agreement

- A. The engagement will commence upon receipt by wire transfer of the fees as outlined in this agreement under "Fee Structure."
- B. This date will be reflected in our registration with the US Department of Justice under the Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA).
- C. This date initiates our engagement for Phase I, "High Level Visit to Washington, DC" which will be followed immediately by Phase II, "Ongoing Representation" upon agreement of both parties.

Phase I – High Level Visit to Washington, DC

- A. Phase I of the engagement agreement will extend over a period of six (6) months. The mission of the Davis-Livingston Team is to prepare and support a high level visit by the Client.

- B. The purpose of the visit is to introduce the Client to US officials in the US Government and to advocate for the December 24, 2021 elections in Libya.
- C. The Davis-Livingston Team will use best efforts to arrange meetings for the Client with (1) senior officials in the Biden Administration, including in the White House and the US Departments of Defense and State; (2) key members of the US Congress, including among the House and Senate leadership and the Committees on Foreign Affairs/Relations, Defense, and Appropriations; and (3) select policy and opinion-makers within key US think tanks and institutes, such as the Center for American Progress and the US Institute of Peace. All meetings will be arranged with consideration of diplomatic protocol. The Team will also provide a combination of policy and legal services to in support of the engagement.
- D. The objective is for the meetings to take place during a period of three days in or around the Washington, DC metropolitan area. The Davis-Livingston Team will advise on the specific US officials to be met, dates and times, and duration of all meetings.
- E. Estimated out-of-pocket expenses to support the Client's visit will be invoiced and paid by the Client during the Client's visit to Washington, DC. These necessary expenses may include but not be limited to hotel, ground transportation, and briefing books prepared by the Davis-Livingston Team.
- F. In support of the visit, the Davis-Livingston team will draft a background paper and talking points to be pre-approved and used by the Client and the Team in advance and during the high level visit. The background paper will include facts on the Client and the elections process in Libya. It will also list reasons why the US Government (USG) should provide additional political, diplomatic, and economic support to the extent possible to enhance the future of a unified Libya under a democratic system of government governed by the rule of law.

Phase II – Ongoing Representation

- A. Phase II of the engagement agreement will commence under an annual contract. The mission of the Davis-Livingston Team will be to support the continued enhancement of the US-Libya relationship.
- B. Prior to the conclusion of Phase I, the Client will meet with the Davis-Livingston Team to agree on the requisite terms, fees, and conditions for extending the engagement agreement under an annual contract.

Representation Team

- A. The Davis-Livingston Team will be directed by Lanny J. Davis, founder and sole-owner of Lanny J. Davis & Associates and by former Congressman Robert "Bob" L. Livingston, Founding Partner of The Livingston Group. See enclosed firm and personal bios for background.
- B. Messrs. Davis and Livingston will actively provide strategic and technical government relations counsel and outreach with support from senior members of their firms, including J. Allen Martin, Managing Partner and Cathryn Kingsbury, International Practice Area Director of The Livingston Group. The team will also include Michael D. Laba, Managing Director of Rawlings International Advisory Group who will serve as a liaison with Client representatives and Samuel Omwenga who, along with Mr. Laba, will provide support for the high level visit and ongoing representation.

Fee Structure

- A. For Phase I, the Client agrees to pay the Davis-Livingston Team a fee of $160,000 USD per month for a period of six (6) months.
- B. Advance payment by wire transfer of $160,000 USD for the first month of the engagement period is requested upon signing of the engagement agreement. Wiring instructions will be provided upon signing of this agreement.
- C. This engagement agreement shall only become effective upon receipt of wire transfer of the first month payment. Upon receipt, the Davis-Livingston team will register with the US Department of Justice under FARA.
- D. Estimated out-of-pocket expenses to support the engagement under Phase I will be invoiced and paid by the Client. As detailed under Phase I, "High Level Visit to Washington, DC", these necessary expenses may include but not be limited to hotel, ground transportation, and briefing books prepared by the Davis-Livingston Team. Estimated out-of-pocket expenses may also include travel expenses for members of the Davis-Livingston Team to meet with the Client and Client representatives in advance of and/or following the high level visit to Washington, DC. These expenses are separate from the representation fees detailed above.

Additional Terms and Conditions

- A. Upon signing of the engagement agreement, we kindly request certification of the source of funds for the monthly retainer for the six (6) month contract. See enclosed certification form.

- B. Enclosed are additional terms and conditions of Lanny J. Davis & Associates that are applicable to Davis' retention by the Client for the provision of legal services and other advice in support of the legal services.
- C. Upon agreement of the Client, media services will be provided by Lanny J. Davis & Associates for an additional fee. The Davis-Livingston Team will recommend media services, as needed, if it will enhance the representation effort and advance the Client's mission in Washington, DC.

The Davis-Livingston Team is available to you to discuss any questions you may have regarding this agreement. Upon approval of the engagement agreement, please return a signed copy.

Thank you for this opportunity to provide government relations representation and counsel in support of your objectives in Washington, DC. We look forward to working with you and your representatives.

Sincerely,

Lanny J. Davis

Additional Terms and Conditions

Additional Terms and Conditions pursuant to engagement agreement for legal services with Lanny J. Davis & Associates (LJDA), Washington DC.

Fees for a monthly period shall be deemed fully earned upon the first day of such monthly period. Attorneys who receive payments in advance of earning their fees are required to place the payments in trust accounts for their clients' benefits until the fees have been earned. Because you agree that LJDA shall have earned its fee on the first day of a monthly period, you understand that your fees shall be paid directly into LJDA's operating account and not into any trust account unless you pay for a monthly period before that period begins. If at any time you wish to pay fees for a monthly period in advance of the first day of such period, please let us know and we will provide you the wiring instructions for our client trust account so that we may keep such advance payment in such account until the first day of the applicable monthly period.

Notwithstanding that fees shall be deemed earned upon the first day of the applicable monthly period, LJDA shall be obligated to perform the services retained hereunder and, if LJDA does not perform such services, the Client shall be entitled to a refund of the fees paid for the period in which LJDA did not perform such services.

In addition to the fees, LJDA charges for travel expenses and authorized costs and disbursements that LJDA incurs in connection with rendering its services. Expenses and disbursements incurred will be billed in monthly statements that are payable upon receipt. Notwithstanding the foregoing, unless special arrangements are made, fees and expenses of third parties may be billed directly to the Client.

The Client shall pay the fees and expenses by wire in accordance with the wiring instructions set forth on Exhibit A of this letter.

Since LJDA the law firm will be acting at your direction as attorneys, you agree to indemnify and hold us and our agents and assigns harmless with respect to any claims or actions arising out of the work performed as authorized by the Client, including (without limitation) claims, actions, or subpoenas or document or testimonial requests for libel, slander, defamation, invasion of rights of privacy, or litigation-related discovery arising out of our work on the Matter where we have acted in good faith and in accordance with your instructions; it being understood and agreed that this indemnity shall not extend to any claims or actions where we have acted contrary to your instructions or otherwise have acted with gross negligence. The indemnification obligation includes your commitment to pay promptly all legal fees incurred by LJDA or any of its partners, employees, or affiliates arising from such subpoenas, legal claims, or actions.

LJDA's agreement to represent the Client is conditioned upon the understanding and Client's agreement that LJDA is free to represent any entities or individuals, and to take positions adverse to the Client, in any matters that do not involve the same factual and legal issues as matters for which the Client has retained us and that do not involve any confidential information we obtained from the Client. The Client understands that, while LJDA may obtain confidential information from other clients that may be of interest to the Client, LJDA cannot share such information with the Client.

You agree that all disputes under this agreement (including, without limitation, the indemnification provisions) shall be determined by an expedited, binding arbitration under the rules of the American Arbitration Association, with such arbitration to occur in Washington, DC and with all awards of the arbitrator to be enforceable in the US District Court for the District of Columbia. Any disputes under this agreement shall be governed by the laws of the District of Columbia.

Certification

I certify that the source of funds to pay for the contract with the Davis-Livingston Team is not from any foreign government and is entirely from lawful sources at my disposal to contract with the Davis-Livingston Team and collaborating entities to provide lobbying services in the United States.

Upon certification, please return a signed copy.

LANNY J. DAVIS

Founder and Sole-Owner

Lanny J. Davis & Associates

Although a Democrat, Lanny J. Davis has friends on both sides of the aisle. During the Clinton administration, Mr. Davis served as special counsel to President Bill Clinton and was a spokesperson for the President and the White House on matters concerning campaign finance investigations and other legal issues. In 2005 President George W. Bush appointed Mr. Davis to serve on the five-member Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board, created by the U.S. Congress as part of the 2005 Intelligence Reform Act. In that capacity, he received the highest level security clearances so that he could be fully briefed and “read in” to the various anti-terrorist surveillance and financial tracking programs at the highest classified level.

Before his tenure as special counsel to President Clinton, Mr. Davis was a commercial, antitrust, government contracts and False Claims Act litigator (both in defense as well as plaintiff). He has argued numerous appellate cases in the U.S. courts of appeals.

Mr. Davis has participated in national, state and local politics for almost 30 years. He has served three terms (1980 to 1992) on the Democratic National Committee representing the state of Maryland, and during that period he served on the DNC Executive Committee and as chairman of the Eastern Region Caucus. In Montgomery County, Maryland, he served as chairman of the Washington Suburban Transit Commission.

Mr. Davis has authored several books and lectured throughout the United States and Europe on various political issues. Two of these books, [Scandal: How “Gotcha” Politics Is Destroying America], and [Truth To Tell: Tell It Early, Tell It All, Tell It Yourself: Notes from My White House Education], are featured on this website. Between 1990 and 1996, he was a bimonthly commentator on Maryland politics for WAMU-88.5/FM, a Washington, D.C. local affiliate of National Public Radio. He has been a regular television commentator and has been a political and legal analyst for MSNBC, CNN, CNBC and network TV news programs and has published numerous op-ed/analysis pieces in the New York Times, the Wall Street Journal, the Washington Post and other national publications. He is currently a contributor to Fox News.

Mr. Davis graduated from Yale Law School, where he won the prestigious Thurman Arnold Moot Court prize and served on the Yale Law Journal. A graduate of Yale University for his undergraduate studies as well, he served as chairman of the Yale Daily News. Mr. Davis is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and Connecticut and before the Supreme Court of the United States and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

Robert L. Livingston
Founding Partner
The Livingston Group

A distinguished former Republican Member of Congress from Louisiana, Robert L. Livingston is a Founding Partner of The Livingston Group.

Congressman Livingston was elected to the US House of Representatives in a special election in 1977 and was re-elected to 11 successive two-year terms. Throughout most of his two-decade tenure in Congress, he served as a member of the Appropriations Committee, and for the maximum period of six years, he served on the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence. From 1995 through 1998, as the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, he shepherded 13 appropriations bills through the legislative process. At the start of the 105th Congress in 1997, Mr. Livingston chaired the bipartisan ethics reform task force, where he was responsible for reshaping the House ethics rules. He was chosen by his peers to serve as Speaker-designate for the 106th Congress. Mr. Livingston established The Livingston Group in 1999.

Prior to serving in Congress, Mr. Livingston practiced law in both public and private fields. As Assistant United States Attorney from 1970-1973, he served as Deputy Chief of the Criminal Division of the US Attorney's Office in New Orleans. He was honored as an outstanding Assistant US Attorney shortly before his departure from the position. His experience also includes serving as Chief Special Prosecutor and Chief of the Armed Robbery Division of the New Orleans Parish District Attorney's Office (1974-1975), and Chief Prosecutor for the Organized Crime Unit of the Louisiana Attorney General's Office (1975-1976).

Mr. Livingston earned both a Bachelor of Arts and Juris Doctorate degrees from Tulane University, and is a graduate of the Loyola University Institute of Politics. In 1981, he received an honorary doctorate from Our Lady of Holy Cross College in New Orleans, and in 1990, an honorary Order of the Coif from the Tulane Law School. He served on active duty with the US Navy from 1961-1963, and received an honorable discharge from the US Navy Reserve in 1967.

Mr. Livingston is active in the community and has served as a member of various boards of advisors and directors for numerous organizations and efforts. His recently published memoir, The Windmill Chaser, is receiving enthusiastic acclaim.
