(See Rule 100(a)(9)). A registrant who represents more than one foreign principal is required to list in the statements he files under the Act only those principals for whom he is not entitled to claim exemption under Section 3 of the Act. (See Rule 208.)

<sup>3</sup> The Exhibit A, which is filed on Form NSD-3, sets forth the information required to be disclosed concerning each foreign principal.

<sup>4</sup> The Exhibit B, which is filed on Form NSD-4, sets forth the information concerning the agreement or understanding between the registrant and the foreign principal.

III - ACTIVITIES

11. During this 6 month reporting period, have you engaged in any activities for or rendered any services to any foreign principal named in Items 7, 8, or 9 of this statement? Yes  No

If yes, identify each foreign principal and describe in full detail your activities and services:

12. During this 6 month reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity<sup>5</sup> as defined below? Yes  No

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail all such political activity, indicating, among other things, the relations, interests and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If the registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures or radio and TV broadcasts, give details as to dates, places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter.

I was contacted by US News and World Report reporter Paul Shinkman via Twitter initially then by phone April 6, 2018 to discuss my assessment of Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman's visit to the United States. The reporter quoted me in an article that appeared the same day.

I was contacted by Christian Science Reporter Taylor Luck on March 16, 2018 to discuss my view of the visit of Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman to the US. The reporter quoted me in an article that appeared on March 16.

13. In addition to the above described activities, if any, have you engaged in activity on your own behalf which benefits your foreign principal(s)? Yes  No

If yes, describe fully.

I continued to write a weekly column for the Saudi daily Arab News. I also wrote an opinion piece about Saudi Arabia's counterterrorism campaign that was published by the Middle East Institute on March 20, 2018. Although these activities could potentially benefit the foreign principal, it is important to note that these are the sorts of activities in which I have been engaged as a scholar on Saudi Arabia for many years and prior to my representation of the foreign principle. In addition, these activities are not coordinated with or cleared by the foreign principle. Just as importantly, my contract explicitly states that I am not authorized to speak on behalf or to represent the foreign principle in anyway. It is also important to note that I mention my consulting relationship with the foreign principle during all my media interviews and speaking engagements at US government agencies, think tanks and academic institutions.

<sup>5</sup> "Political activity," as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act, means any activity that the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.
