Ivica Dacic, Serbia's Parliament Speaker, and Antony Godfrey, the US ambassador to Belgrade, agreed on Friday that the successful fight against terrorism was possible only in cooperation and partnership among countries.

The conference, organised by the Serb-American Friendship Congress and East-West Bridge, under Serbia's Parliament auspices, started with Pastor Nenad Savic saying a prayer for all September 11 terrorist attacks' victims.

Godfrey thanked Serbia for its cooperation with the US and other countries in fighting terrorism during the conference 'We Remember and Stand by US' ahead of the 20th anniversary of the terrorist attacks on New York and Washington, ×

„We confront terrorism by building partnerships and friendships. Our partnership with Serbia lies in our past and the common vision of the future,“ Godfrey said.

He added that „we appreciate the honest gesture by Dacic, Congress and East-West Bridge as a solidarity of our friends and hosts today when we remember almost 3,000 victims of the 9/11 terrorist attacks.“

Dacic said that those attacks showed the world's countries should be persistent in fighting terrorism, adding Serbia was a part of the global community against extremism.

He also said, „it is known the Balkans is one of the regions where the extremists are recruited from,“ for fights in different parts of the world.
