

ENGLISH

Home > News > World > Russian gas giant Gazprom threatens to cut supplies to Moldova

Russian gas giant Gazprom threatens to cut supplies to Moldova

By AFP • Updated: 22/11/2021 - 20:57

Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov, right, and his Moldovan counterpart

SHARE THIS ARTICLE

Russian gas giant Gazprom has threatened to cut supplies to Moldova within 48 hours, increasing tensions between the two countries.

"The deadline for payment is November 22. Today Gazprom, in accordance with the terms of the contract, has threatened to interrupt supplies to Moldova within 48 hours," said company spokesperson Sergei Kuprianov on Russian TV.

ENGLISH

ENGLISH

Newsletters

Games euronews.

Europe

World

Business

Sport

Green

Europe

ADVERTISE

Moldova and Gazprom signed a contract at the end of October after several weeks of negoti
Gazprom spokesman Kuprianov said on Monday that Gazprom had agreed to sign the cont

Moldova, a country of 2.6 million inhabitants located between Romania and Ukraine, traditic Ukraine.

English

English

Newsletters

euronews.

Europe

World

Business

Sport

Green

Europe

Games

SPONSORED CONTENT

Each State Hilariously Summed Up In One Photo

By SBLV

Threatened with shortages, Chisinau had established a state of emergency which allowed it

Experts argue that Moscow increased its tariffs to punish Chisinau after the 2020 election of

Moscow had accused Chisinau of late payments and threatened to turn off the tap if a new

The Kremlin denied it was putting political pressure on the country. The gas shortages came blamed on Russia.

English