Brnabic said Serbia had not imposed sanctions on the Russian Federation but that it had in no way been and would not be a platform for bypassing EU sanctions.

In terms of the war in Ukraine, Serbia is not neutral when it comes to values and we have taken a clear stand on the violation of Ukraine's territorial integrity, Brnabic added.

Serbia is a credible and dependable partner, she noted.

Brnabic and O'Sullivan exchanged views on concrete steps to be taken with third countries to prevent bypassing of sanctions.

O'Sullivan thanked Brnabic for an open and constructive stance and readiness for further cooperation.
