Re: Authorization to Begin Work ("Authorization")

We are pleased that you have selected APCO Worldwide LLC ("APCO") to provide a mutually agreed amount of strategic communications services, meeting planning services, and media relations services within the United States in connection with the H.E. Minister of Industry & Mineral Resources visit to the United States in September of 2022.

In the meantime, APCO's policy requires that you confirm in writing that you have asked us to begin work as of the date of full execution of this Authorization and authorized us to incur a fixed fee of USD $81,500 ("Fee"), plus applicable taxes, in connection with our work on this project. An invoice for the Fee, plus applicable taxes, is forthcoming and shall be paid by Client upon execution of this Authorization.

For the avoidance of doubt, all amounts (fees, disbursements, out of pocket expenses, and any other charges) are exclusive of value added taxes or other indirect taxes including, without limitation, applicable country taxes and surcharges and such taxes and surcharges shall be paid by Client concurrently with such amounts.

In addition, Client shall reimburse APCO for expenses incurred in performing the services. APCO shall invoice such expenses monthly in arrears; provided, however, that if the parties anticipate any single expense in excess of $5,000 or expenses in excess of $15,000 in any given month, then Client shall prepay such anticipated expenses. Except as otherwise set forth herein, invoices shall be paid within thirty (30) days of receipt of such invoice.

If the foregoing reflects your understanding, please execute this Authorization for our files and send to APCO the payment specified in the forthcoming invoice pursuant to the remittance instructions therein. Please note that continuation of our work on this project is contingent upon our receipt of the invoiced amount. Thank you for choosing APCO. We look forward to working with you and your team.
