Dodik: With discipline, peak of COVID-19 crisis could be over in 2-3 weeks – N1

April 1, 2020

BiH Presidency Member Milorad Dodik said Wednesday that if BiH citizens show discipline and protect themselves from the virus as much as possible, BiH could get past the peak of the epidemic within two to three weeks, though there will likely be a ten percent drop in the economy.

BiH Fiscal Council Adopts Letter of Intent with IMF – SRNA

April 1, 2020

The BiH Fiscal Council on Wednesday adopted a Letter of Intent with the International Monetary Fund asking for financial support under a rapid financing instrument as part of efforts to curb the spread of coronavirus.

It was concluded at the second session of the Fiscal Council, held via video link by Chairman of the Council of Ministers, Zoran Tegeltija, that BiH's fiscal position was significantly improved during the previous arrangement with the IMF, which allowed some fiscal space to cover the current economic price of coronavirus pandemic, and that the surplus in the last two years has averaged close to two percent of GDP.
