Tegeltija: BiH paid for COVID-19 vaccines for 20 percent of its citizens – SRNA/N1

📅 December 30, 2020

BiH Council of Ministers Chairman Zoran Tegeltija said at a press conference Tuesday that BiH has already paid for Covid-19 vaccines for 20 percent of its population.

He said that the government would earmark the funds for procuring vaccines for some 50 to 60 percent of the population.

“We will see how many vaccines we will get through this system with the European Commission, and BiH will procure the rest for its citizens from its own budget,” he said.
