Covic informs intl officials of new charges against BiH election watchdog – N1

📅 December 30, 2020

The leader of the BiH's main Croat party (HDZ), Dragan Covic, wrote another letter to international officials in BiH informing them about new criminal charges against the Central Election Commission for alleged abuse of office and negligence.

According to him, there are many elements of illegal and institutionally unacceptable actions performed by the Central Election Commission in Bosnia, many of which have been presented to them before, and the new findings allegedly show elements which can be used for criminal prosecution.
