US ambassador: Electoral reform possible in BiH during 2021 as non-election year – FENA

 June 28, 2021

U.S. Ambassador to BiH Eric Nelson said it is possible to achieve electoral reform during 2021, which is a non-election year, enabling all citizens to participate equally in the 2022 election.

... Nelson said he regrets the fact that the inter-agency working group in charge of the electoral reform was not formed earlier, adding that nevertheless the certain progress has already been made and that the process needs to speed up.
