HNS: Territorial reorganization of BiH if Croat constituent status not respected – FENA

February 22, 2022

The Croat People’s Assembly of BiH (HNS) has adopted seven conclusions, including a conclusion saying that the formal and legal conditions for calling general elections will not be met if no agreement is first reached on changes to the electoral legislation.

The last conclusion of the presented ones on Saturday states that “if the process of stripping of the constituent status of the Croat people continues, the HNS will initiate all legal procedures and political steps for the new institutional and territorial organization of BiH on the principles of federalism and consociational democracy, which will ensure full constitutional equality of all three constitutive peoples in BiH”.
